BOB TOLEDO

San Francisco State '68
Head Football Coach

In his first year as UCLA's 14th head coach, Bob Toledo built a solid foundation for the future of his program. His enthusiastic, aggressive approach, as well as his beliefs in a football family and discipline, were embraced by the members of the team. This past February, Toledo and his staff recruited a consensus Top 20 class, laying further groundwork for the future.

The Bruins opened the 1996 season by playing Tennessee toe-to-toe into the fourth quarter in Knoxville and concluded it with a record sixth consecutive victory over USC. In between, there were highs and lows associated with a young team and a new program. Skip Hicks set a school record with 20 touchdowns and developed into a 1,000-yard rusher, Cade McNown twice passed for over 350 yards and several youngsters developed into quality defensive players. UCLA finished with a 5-6 record and plenty of optimism for the upcoming season.

Prior to being named head coach on January 4, 1996, Toledo spent the two previous seasons as UCLA's offensive coordinator, during which several players set records under his guidance.

In 1995, UCLA's offense averaged 399.3 yards, ranking third in the Pac-10, and 28.0 points during the regular season. The 4,787 yards were the ninth most in school history and the team's 4.7 rushing average was the team's highest in 20 years. Jonathan Ogden became the first Bruin ever to win the Outland Trophy and was runner-up for the Lombardi Award. Tailback Karim Abdul-Jabbar set a school record with 1,571 rushing yards and led the Pac-10 in rushing, McNown became the first UCLA true freshman to throw for over 300 yards in one game and Kevin Jordan became the first receiver in school history to catch at least 40 passes in three different seasons. Jordan also concluded his career as UCLA's all-time leader in receptions and receiving yards. UCLA's rushing average of 212.5 yards per game was its highest since 1986. Ogden and Abdul-Jabbar earned first-team All-America honors.

In 1994, the Bruin offense included the Pac-10's leading receiver (Jordan), second-ranked rusher (Abdul-Jabbar) and third-ranked passer (Wayne Cook). Jordan set a school record with 1,228 receiving yards and the team ranked second in the conference in total offense (399.6 yards per game). The Bruins set a school record with 679 yards total offense in a 59-23 victory at Arizona State.

Toledo, who has tutored NFL players such as quarterbacks Chris Miller, Bill Musgrave and Bucky Richardson of the Kansas City Chiefs, running back Derek Loville, receiver J.J. Birden and defensive backs Ronnie Lott, Dennis Smith and Dennis Thurman, joined the Bruin staff in February of 1994 as offensive coordinator.

Prior to arriving in Westwood, Toledo served five seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterback coach at Texas A&M. In 1993, the Aggies set a school record for points (404), averaged 400.8 yards total offense, were ranked eighth on the final USA Today/CNN Coaches poll and finished at 10-2. A&M scored at least 30 points in eight straight games to set a school record and ranked eighth overall in the NCAA in scoring with an average of 36.7 points per game. During his five years at Texas A&M, the Aggies averaged almost 10 victories per season, compiling a record of 49-12-1, and played in five straight bowl games, including three consecutive Cotton Bowls.

Prior to his years in College Station, Toledo spent six seasons (1983-88) at the University of Oregon, serving as assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Two of the Pac-10 conference's most productive signal callers of all-time, Chris Miller and Bill Musgrave, were products of Toledo's coaching prowess. Musgrave still ranks second on the Pac-10 career touchdown list (60) and fourth on the yardage list (8,140 yards) while Miller, who twice passed for over 2,200 yards in a season, ranked seventh with 6,681 yards when he completed his career in 1986. In addition, two of the four 1,000-yard rushers in Duck history — Tony Cherry (1,006 yards in 1985) and Derek Loville (1,202 yards in 1988) — accomplished the feat under Toledo's tutelage.

The San Jose, CA native served as head coach at the University of the Pacific from 1979-82. In 1979, he led UOP to a 24-7 victory over Iowa State, the school's first-ever victory against a Big Eight school. The 1980 win over Washington State (24-22) was the school's first over a Pac-10 school in over a decade. His four-year record was 12-30.

Toledo moved to Pacific from USC, where he coached the secondary for three seasons (1976-78). At USC, he tutored Dennis Thurman, Ronnie Lott and Dennis Smith. In his three seasons, the Trojan defensive backs intercepted 56 passes, including a nation-leading 28 in 1976. During that span, USC compiled a record of 31-6 and won two-Pac-10 titles, two Rose Bowls, a Bluebonnet Bowl and a share of the 1978 national championship.

Prior to his stint at USC, Toledo spent three seasons at UC Riverside, the first (1973) as offensive coordinator (an 8-2 record) and the final two (1974-75) as head coach. The Highlanders were 15-6 during his tenure as head coach (8-3 in 1974 and 7-3 in 1975) and won two California Collegiate Athletic Association titles. Riverside was ranked among the Top 10 in total offense in each of his three years at the school.

During his collegiate career, Toledo has coached in nine bowl games — 1995 Aloha Bowl, 1994 Cotton Bowl, 1993 Cotton Bowl, 1992 Cotton Bowl, 1990 Holiday Bowl, 1989 Hancock Bowl, 1979 Rose Bowl, 1978 Bluebonnet Bowl and 1977 Rose Bowl.

In 1969, Toledo embarked on his coaching career at San Francisco's Riordan High, where he is now a member of the Hall of Fame. Following one season as an assistant, he became head coach in 1970. During the next three seasons (1970-72), Riordan compiled a record of 26-5-1 and won a pair of West Catholic Athletic League titles.

As a player, Toledo enjoyed an outstanding collegiate career as a quarterback for legendary coach Vic Rowen, at San Francisco State (1966 and 1967). During his two seasons, the Gators were 16-5 (7-3 in 1966 and 9-2 in 1967), winning the Far Western Conference in 1967. He is now a member of the San Francisco State Gridiron Hall of Fame.

As a senior in 1967, Toledo earned Northern California Player of the Year honors and was also named a second-team All-American. He completed 211 of 396 passes (.533) for 3,513 yards and 45 touchdowns, setting eight NCAA Division II records. He averaged 340.7 yards total offense to lead the nation and passed for 568 yards against Hayward State. Following the season, he played in the Camelia Bowl and the North-South Shrine Bowl game.

As a junior in 1966, he completed 66 of 140 passes for 788 yards despite not winning the starting job until the fifth game of the year. Toledo played the 1965 season at San Jose City College after transferring from San Jose State. At SJCC, he completed 113 of 225 passes for 1,445 yards and 19 touchdowns, leading his team to second in the Golden Gate Conference. He earned second-team GGC and JC All-America honors.

Toledo was a star quarterback at San Jose's Lincoln High School, leading the team to a 27-3 record during his three years (1961-63) as a starter. The first sophomore to start at quarterback for Lincoln, he was an all-league and All-Central Coast Section selection during his junior and senior seasons. In his final year, Lincoln went 10-0 and won the Mt. Hamilton Athletic League championship.

Following his prep and collegiate playing careers, Toledo had a tryout with the San Francisco 49ers as a free agent. He then began his coaching career.

GARY BERNARDI

CSU Northridge '76

Tight Ends, Offensive Line, and Recruiting

Gary Bernardi, who first became a Pac-10 assistant in 1980 and has worked previously at Arizona and USC, enters his fourth season as a member of the UCLA coaching staff. He is in charge of the Bruin tight ends and helps tutor the offensive line in addition to his all-important duties overseeing UCLA's nationwide recruiting efforts. Last February's recruiting class included players from seven different states. Last season, UCLA's tight ends became an important factor in the offense, making a total of 43 receptions after accounting for just eight in 1995.

Bernardi played a very important role during the three-plus weeks between the retirement announcement of Terry Donahue and the hiring of Bob Toledo. His efforts kept prep seniors interested in UCLA during the transition period, enabling the Bruins to sign a solid class a month after Toledo's hiring.

He began his collegiate coaching career at Arizona in 1980, under Larry Smith, as a part-time coach working with tight ends and serving as an administrative assistant. He became a full-time coach the following season and continued at the Tucson school through 1986, serving as tight ends coach and administrative assistant (1981-84), receivers coach (1985) and back to tight ends coach (1986). He also worked as Arizona's recruiting coordinator.

In 1987, he followed coach Smith to USC where he handled the tight ends, offensive tackles and was special teams coordinator. In his final year at USC in 1992, offensive tackle Tony Boselli, a 1995 first round NFL pick, earned first-team All-America acclaim after being selected as a Freshman All-American the previous season. Bernardi coached three NFL-bound tight ends — Paul Green, Scott Galbraith, Brad Banta — and also worked with current pro offensive linemen such as Dave Cadigan and Pat Harlow.

Bernardi began his coaching career at Bell-Jeff High School in Burbank, CA (1973-74) and spent 1975 as an assistant at his prep alma mater of Monroe High in Sepulveda, CA. From 1976-79, Bernardi served as receivers and tight ends coach at Fountain Valley, CA High, working with future Stanford All-America Ken Margerum. The team went 40-7-1 during his tenure, winning a CIF championship in 1978. He came to UCLA after serving in 1993 as head coach at Burroughs (Burbank) High.

Bernardi was an All-League receiver and team captain at Monroe High, graduating in 1971. He attended College of the Canyons in Valencia,CA, for two years (1973 and 1974) and went on to CSU Northridge where he earned his degree in 1976.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Physical Education / Health Sciences, Cal State Northridge, 1976; At UCLA: Fourth year (joined staff in February, 1994); Born: September 24, 1954; Family: Gary and his wife Leigh have three children, Marina 13, and 10-year old twins Joe and Briana.

Alan Borges

Chico State '81

Offensive Coordinator, Quarterbacks

Alan Borges, one of the most versatile offensive coaches in the nation, was one of Bob Toledo's first hires, joining the Bruin staff on January 11, 1996. He came to UCLA after one year as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Oregon (1995). He had previously served as a coordinator at Portland State and Boise State.

Under Borges' direction, Bruin quarterback Cade McNown produced two of the most prolific passing days in school history last season. McNown totaled 395 yards, third all-time, vs. Arizona State and 356 yards (sixth all-time) in an overtime win over USC. Running back Skip Hick also prospered under Borges' system, setting a school mark with 20 touchdowns while rushing for 1,034 yards. Overall, UCLA produced its second-highest scoring average since the 1988 season (30.0).

In 1995, Oregon led the Pac-10 in passing offense (263.8 yards) and ranked second in both total offense (406.3 yards) and scoring (29.1 points) in 1995. Quarterback Tony Graziani led the league in total offense (272.9 yards) and passing yards (249.1). Tailback Ricky Whittle paced the league in all-purpose yards per game (164.0). In addition, wide receiver Cristin McLemore produced the second-best numbers in school history with 61 catches for 1,010 yards.

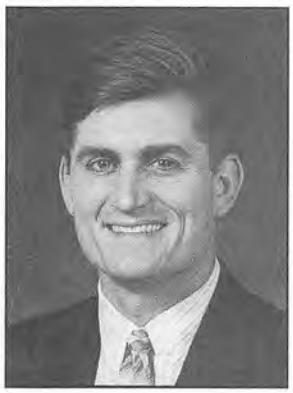
Prior to taking the Oregon job, Borges was the offensive coordinator for the late Pokey Allen at both Boise State (1993 and 1994) and Portland State (1986-92). The tandem consistently conjured up some of the most sophisticated offensive schemes in the country and advanced to the NCAA playoffs. In 1994, Boise went 13-2, winning the Big Sky Conference and playing for the Division I-AA championship. The Bronco offense ranked 19th nationally and quarterback Tony Hilde ranked eighth in total offense and 16th in passing efficiency.

Portland State compiled a 63-26-2 mark during Borges' seven years as offensive coordinator and earned a berth in the NCAA Division II playoffs five times, playing for the national title in 1987 and 1988. In 1992, the Vikings ranked second in Division II in passing offense (361.1 yards), fourth in total offense (489.2) and seventh in scoring (36.9). PSU was also listed second in passing in 1989. Borges tutored three All-America quarterbacks during his tenure — John Charles (1992), Darren Del'Andrae (1989) and Chris Crawford (1988).

Borges began coaching at the high school level in the state of California, assisting at Salinas (1975-78) and Pleasant Valley (1979-80), while still attending Chico State. He played quarterback at North Salinas and Hartnell Junior College before embarking on his coaching career. He assisted at Salinas High again in 1981 before taking his first collegiate job at Diablo Valley College (1983-85) in the Bay Area. He also spent 1984-85 as a defensive assistant with the USFL's Oakland Invaders before joining the Portland State staff.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Physical Education, Chico State, 1981; At UCLA: Second year (joined staff on Jan. 11, 1996); Born: October 8, 1955. Family: Alan is single and one of seven children.

RON CARAGHER



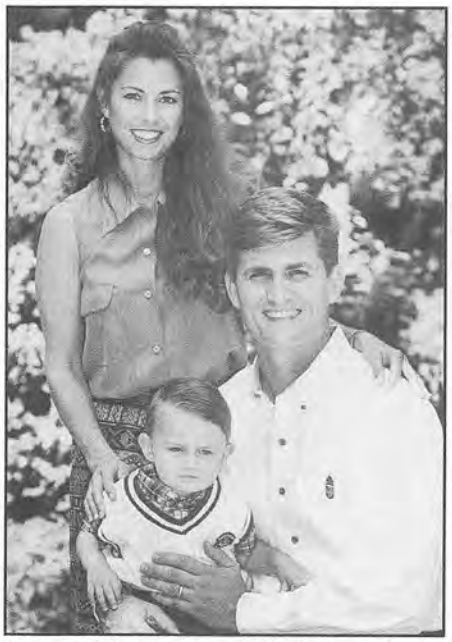
UCLA '90

Wide Receivers

Ron Caragher, former UCLA quarterback (1985-89), produced some tremendous results in just his first season as a full-time member of the Bruin staff. His tutoring helped redshirt freshman Danny Farmer emerge as the team's top pass catcher with 31 receptions while Jim McElroy averaged a team-leading 20.3 yards on each of his 26 catches.

The previous two seasons (1994-95), Caragher served as a graduate assistant coach working with the Bruin offensive unit while securing his Master's degree in Education.

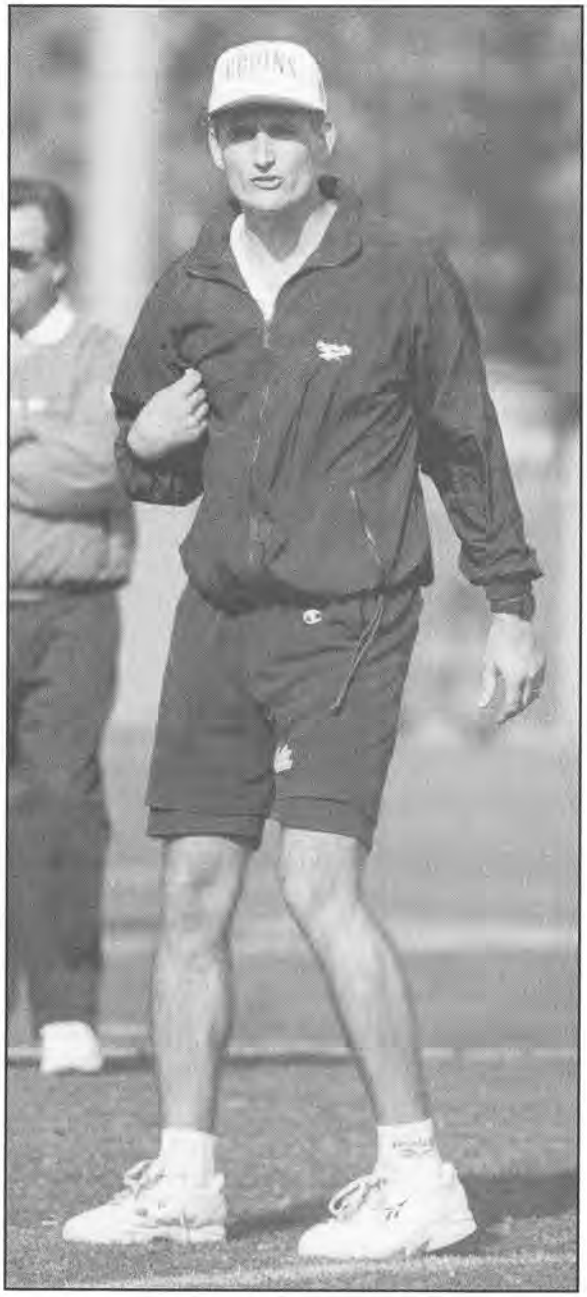
The Morgan Hill, CA native was a four-year letterwinner and served as backup to current NFL star Troy Aikman in the 1987-1988 seasons. During those two seasons, the Bruins posted an overall record of 20-4, were ranked No. 1 in the nation for two weeks in 1988 and earned post-season victories in the Aloha ('87) and Cotton Bowls ('89). The Cotton Bowl win set an NCAA record for bowl victories in consecutive years (seven). Ron was also a member of teams which won the Rose ('86) and Freedom Bowls ('86).



Ron and Wendy Caragher with son Josh

A graduate of Bellarmine College Prep in San Jose, Caragher threw for over 1,500 yards and 21 touchdowns as a senior. He piloted his team to the West Catholic Athletic League championship and was named MVP of the Peninsula League, All-Bay Area and All-Central Coast Section. The right-hander also was a two-year varsity letterwinner in track and basketball. Prior to returning to UCLA in 1994, Ron had worked in private business as a retirement plan administrator and consultant. He is married to former Bruin women's tennis player Wendy Ouwendijk.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Psychology from UCLA, 1990; Master's in Educational Administration from UCLA, 1995; At UCLA: Fourth year, second as full-time coach (joined the staff in Spring of 1994); Born: January 24, 1967 in Redwood City, CA; Family: Married to the former Wendy Ouwendijk, also a UCLA graduate; they have one child, Joshua Robert.



Marc Dove

Texas Tech '73

Defensive Backfield

Marc Dove begins his second season with the Bruins after joining the staff in March of 1996. Previously, he had served as the defensive coordinator at the University of Minnesota since 1992.

From 1992-94, he also specialized with the Golden Gopher linebackers. In 1995, Dove worked with all defensive positions. Dove's Minnesota defenses exhibited a consistent level of improvement, moving up the Big Ten charts in rushing defense, total defense and scoring defense.

Dove started his coaching career at his alma mater of Texas Tech as defensive secondary coach from 1973-74. He then moved on to the University of South Carolina as defensive backfield coach from 1975-77. In 1978, Dove was named defensive coordinator at Mississippi State, a position he held for six years. He was named the defensive coordinator at North Carolina beginning with the 1984 season and remained there until 1988 when he joined coach Wacker's staff at Texas Christian University, once again as defensive coordinator. Overall, he has coached in eight bowl games in his career.

A 1968 graduate of Central High in San Angelo, TX, Dove was an all-state choice in football as a senior. He went on to earn three varsity letters at Texas Tech, earning All-Southwest Conference accolades twice. In 1971, Dove was honored as the league's Defensive Player of the Year.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's, Texas Tech, 1973; At UCLA: Second year (joined staff in March, 1996); Born: May 16, 1950; Family: Marc and his wife, Judy, have two sons, Zach, and Seth.

BOB FIELD

Arkansas '71

Asst. Head Coach / Strong Safeties / Rovers

Throughout his tenure at UCLA, Bob Field has made a habit of developing big-play defenders. Last season, after 14 seasons as defensive coordinator and 17 as outside linebacker coach, Field was elevated to assistant head coach and coach of the strong safeties and rovers.

Over the years, Field has tutored some of the top athletes in school history, including All-American Carnell Lake (Pittsburgh Steelers), Roman Phifer (St. Louis Rams), Marvcus Patton (Washington Redskins), Jamir Miller (Arizona Cardinals), Donnie Edwards (Kansas City Chiefs), Eric Smith and Neal Dellocono. He has led his teams to 15 bowl games in 25 years of coaching.

Field has crafted numerous NCAA Top 20-ranked defenses during his years at UCLA. In 1993, the Bruins led the nation in turnover margin (+1.73) and ranked 20th in rushing defense. The 1992 season saw a Bruin defense, which had carried the team in the first half of the campaign, finish 16th nationally despite a rash of late-season injuries. In 1991, the Bruins ranked eighth nationally in rushing defense, giving up just over 100 yards per game on the ground (100.9). In 1988, UCLA ranked eighth nationally in rushing defense and set a school record by limiting Arkansas to just 42 yards total offense in the 1989 Cotton Bowl.

Two of his best units were developed in the late '80s. In 1987, the Bruins ranked fourth nationally in rushing defense (85.1) and 13th in total defense. In 1985, a Bruin defense, keyed by the play of future world champion Dallas Cowboys James Washington and Ken Norton, held 11 regular season opponents to an average of 70.3 net yards rushing to lead the nation and also ranked seventh nationally in total defense.

The Bruin assistant head coach began his career under Bear Bryant at Alabama (1971-72) and moved to Mississippi State in 1973. During his five-year tenure at MSU, he coached the secondary, served as defensive coordinator and, in his final year, was the Bulldog assistant head coach. He has been at UCLA since 1978, with the exception of the 1980 season, when he left coaching to enter private business.

Field gained valuable experience during his collegiate playing career at Arkansas. He was a three-year (1968-70) letterman and two-year starter for Frank Broyles in the defensive backfield. In his three years on the varsity, the Razorbacks were 28-5 with a 1969 Sugar Bowl victory over Georgia.

An outstanding high school athlete at Farwell (Tex.) High School, Field earned four letters in football, three in basketball and two in track.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Science Education, Arkansas, 1971; At UCLA: 19th year (joined staff in March, 1978 and again in February, 1981); Born: September 12, 1948 in Elk City, OK; Family: Has three sons, Kyle, 24, Brian, 22, and Michael, 17.

Rocky Long

New Mexico '72

Defensive Coordinator / Linebackers

Rocky Long, who spent the previous five seasons as defensive coordinator at Oregon State, took over the same duties at UCLA in March of 1996. Long brought a reputation for getting the most out of his players with him to Westwood and did not disappoint. Last year's Bruin defense ranked third in the Pac-10 and 23rd in the nation against the run and linebacker Brian Willmer led the team with 102 tackles. His 1995 Beaver defense ranked third overall in the Pac-10.

Prior to his tenure at Oregon State, Long, a former All-American quarterback at the University of New Mexico, spent three years at Texas Christian University (1988-90) as the defensive secondary coach. From 1986-87, he was linebacker coach for the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League. Long was defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of Wyoming from 1981-85.

Following a professional football careeer, he returned to coach the offensive backfield at his alma mater in 1978 and served as the defensive backfield coach from 1979-80. He worked as a teacher and coach at the New Mexico Diagnostic Center in Albuquerque, NM from 1976-77. In 1974-75, he was an assistant football and basketball coach at ElDorado High School in Albuquerque. Following his playing career at UNM, he was a graduate assistant at his alma mater from 1972-73.

Coach Long with wife Debra and daughters Roxanne (l) and Hannah

Professionally, Long played defensive back and returned kicks for the British Columbia Lions in the CFL from 1972-73 and again from 1975-77. He spent the 1974 season playing for the Detroit Wheels of the World Football League.

At New Mexico, he lettered three years at quarterback, winning All-America honors, both on the field and academically as a senior in 1971. Long was a two-time All-Western Athletic Conference selection (1970 and 1971) and was the WAC 'MVP' and 'Back of the Year' in 1971. He also was awarded an NCAA post-graduate scholarship following the 1971 season.

He attended Alta Loma, CA High School and lettered in football, basketball and track. Long was selected All-League at quarterback and defensive back as a junior and senior in 1966 and 1967 and All-State in his final season, playing in the San Gabriel Valley All-Star Game.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Secondary Education, University of New Mexico, 1972; At UCLA: Second year (joined staff in March, 1996); Born: January 27, 1950 in Provo, UT; Family: Married to the former Debra Meerdink. They have two daughters — Roxanne, a basketball player at Oklahoma, and Hannah, a member of the volleyball team at Portland State.

SKIP PEETE

Kansas '86

Running Backs

Skip Peete is beginning his second season with the Bruins and his first was quite memorable. He coached Skip Hicks to his first 1,000-yard season and a school-record 20 touchdowns while developing several outstanding young backs who should contribute this season.

Peete joined the Bruin staff after serving as wide receivers coach at Rutgers University in 1995. During the 1993 and 1994 seasons, Peete served as the receivers coach at Michigan State under George Perles. The 1993 Spartan team played in the Liberty Bowl. From 1988-93, Peete was on the staff at Pittsburgh of the Big East Conference. He served as running backs coach from 1991-93 and was the receivers coach from 1989-90. He began at Pitt as a graduate assistant in the 1988 season. The Panthers took part in the John Hancock Bowl following the 1989 campaign.

During the 1987 season, Peete was a wide receiver and special teams member of the New York Jets. His NFL football family history is extensive — his brother, Rodney, is a quarterback with the Philadelphia Eagles and his father, Willie, is a longtime coach in the NFL, serving this past season as running backs coach of the Chicago Bears.

As a college performer, Peete was an All-Big Eight wide receiver at Kansas (1984) and was elected team captain for the 1985 season. He began his college career at the University of Arizona, lettering two seasons as a receiver and special teams player before transferring to KU. He attended Sahuaro, AZ High School where he earned All-City, All-Metro, All-State and All-America honors.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Theater Media Art, Kansas, 1986; At UCLA: Second year (joined staff in January, 1996); Born: January 30, 1963; Family: Skip is single.

TERRY TUMEY

UCLA '88

Defensive Line

Terry Tumey, a former All-Conference nose guard at UCLA, is in his third season as coach of the defensive linemen, having joined the staff in March of 1995. Last season, several young lineman came into their own and senior Travis Kirschke had his usual solid season while the Bruins ranked 23rd in the nation versus the run. In Tumey's initial campaign, he helped direct a veteran defensive line headed by seniors George Kase and Grady Stretz. Each had career years with Kase ranking fifth in the Pac-10 in tackles for loss and Stretz wrecking havoc on a consistent basis.

Tumey earned All-Pac-10 first-team honors in 1985, 1986 and 1987. During those three seasons, the Bruins compiled a record of 27-7-2 and won three bowl games — the 1986 Rose Bowl, the 1986 Freedom Bowl and the 1987 Aloha Bowl. The Tulsa, OK native is one of just six Bruins in the last 32 years to earn first-team All-Conference honors three times. Overall, he was a member of four winning bowl teams as UCLA captured the '85 Fiesta Bowl crown in his initial season. Tumey was a member of Bruin teams which posted a 36-10-2 four-year mark and was ranked in the top 10 nationally at season's end three times. Individually, he still ranks second on the all-time UCLA list with 39 tackles for loss and third on the quarterback sack list with 25.

Terry and Candace Tumey

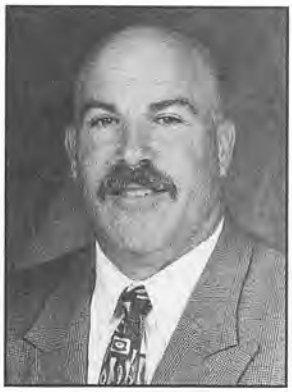
He capped his red-shirt freshman season in 1984 by sacking Miami quarterback Bernie Kosar, causing a fumble to preserve UCLA's Fiesta Bowl victory. At the annual awards banquet, Tumey was voted a tri-winner of the John F. Boncheff Jr. Memorial Award for Rookie of the Year. In 1985, he started 11 games and recorded 61 tackles, including the Pac-10 's seventh-best total of 10 tackles for loss. Tumey earned 1984 honorable mention AP All-America acclaim for a Bruin defensive unit that held 11 regular season opponents to an average of 70.3 net yards rushing to lead the nation.

As a junior in 1986, he led the defensive line with seven sacks and was credited with 57 total tackles and three caused fumbles. Once again, he was tabbed by Associated Press as an honorable mention All-American, in addition, to his first-team all-conference honors. As a senior, Tumey duplicated those two accolades for a third straight time after recording a career-high 67 total tackles and adding four quarterback sacks in 1987. The Bruin defense ranked fourth nationally against the run that season, yielding just 85.1 net yards per game on the ground.

Tumey graduated from UCLA in 1988 and served as a graduate assistant football coach in 1992 while earning his MBA degree.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Political Science, UCLA, 1988; Master's in Business Administration, UCLA, 1993; At UCLA: Third year (joined staff in March of 1995; served as graduate assistant in 1992); Born: October 29, 1965 in Tulsa, OK; Family: Married to the former Candace L. Gonzales, also a UCLA graduate.

MARK WEBER



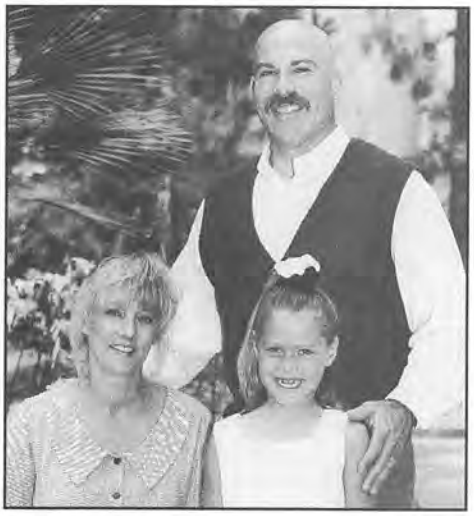
Cal Lutheran '80

Offensive Line

Los Angeles native Mark Weber is in his first season on the Bruin staff, having been hired to coach the offensive line in March of 1997. A graduate of both Cal Lutheran and Valley College, Weber has been associated with some of the nation's top passing offenses and has previous Pac-10 coaching experience. He comes to UCLA after serving the past three seasons as the assistant head coach and offensive line coach at UNLV. Last year's Rebel team ranked ninth in Division I-A in passing and the 1994 team was the Las Vegas Bowl champion.

Weber coached in 1993 (assistant head coach and offensive line coach) and 1992 (offensive line coach) at the University of Nevada-Reno. The Wolf Pack led Division I-A in passing and total offense in 1993 and had a pass protection success ratio of 97%. The 1992 squad rated fourth in Division I-A and won the Big West Conference championship. He served as offensive line coach at Oregon State University from 1987-90 and the Beavers ranked first in the conference and among the top 10 nationally in both 1987 and 1988. In between, he had a one-season tenure at Missouri Western State College for the 1991 campaign where he was defensive line coach.

In 1985 and 1986, Weber coached the offensive line and served as the strength coach at West Texas State University. The Buffaloes ranked first in Division II passing in 1986 and posted the third-best mark in 1985 for Division I-AA. Each team compiled a pass protection success ratio of over 95%.



Mark and Kathryn Weber with daughter Alexandra

Weber has also worked at Eastern New Mexico University (offensive line and strength coach) during the 1983 and 1984 seasons; Snow College in Utah (offensive line and strength coach) in the 1982 season; and at Idaho State University (graduate assistant offensive line coach) for the 1980 and 1981 seasons.

Weber began his coaching career at his alma mater of Los Angeles Valley College in the 1979 season as offensive line and strength coach. He had earned All-Metropolitan Conference honors as a player at Valley at offensive guard. At Cal Lutheran, he was a two-time honorable mention Small College All-American at guard.

PERSONAL — Education: Cal Lutheran, 1980; Master's degree, Idaho State, 1981. At UCLA: First year (joined staff in March, 1997); Born: June 30, 1957 in Los Angeles, CA; Family: Wife, Kathryn and daughter Alexandra.

Tim Heffelfinger

Northwestern '90

Graduate
Assistant Coach

Tim Heffelfinger begins his second season as a Bruin graduate assistant coach. While also attending UCLA's Graduate School of Education, Heffelfinger will again serve as an assistant specializing with the offensive line. He will also work with the defensive scout team simulating the opponents' defense for the offensive each week.

Heffelfinger earned a scholarship to Northwestern after graduating from Sterling (Ill.) High in 1986. A career-ending back injury prevented him from playing for the Wildcats, but did little to diminish his enthusiasm for the game.

From 1988-94, he served as varsity line coach at his high school alma mater, helping to guide the Golden Warriors to a No. 1 ranking at the Illinois 4A level and an 11-1 record.

As a two-way starter at Sterling High, Heffelfinger played for the 1984 Golden Warrior team that posted a 9-1 record after winning the league championship. As a senior, he earned All-State honors as an offensive lineman and played in the 1985 Illinois East-West All-Star game.

Heffelfinger, who earned his undergraduate degree in Organizational Studies from Northwestern, is married to the former Amy England.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Organized Studies from Northwestern, 1990; At UCLA: Second year (joined staff in August of 1996); Born: April 18, 1968 in Morrison, IL; Family: Wife, Amy.

Grady Stretz

UCLA '96

Graduate
Assistant Coach

Grady Stretz, a four-year defensive stalwart for the Bruins from 1992-95, begins his second season on the UCLA coaching staff this Fall as a defensive assistant.

The Arizona native finished his UCLA playing days with a career season in which he earned honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors in 1995 at his defensive tackle position. He registered 39 total tackles, including 30 unassisted stops in his 12 starts. Stretz added nine tackles for loss, two sacks, two fumble recoveries, four pass break-ups and one blocked kick. He earned the Chevrolet Scholarship Award as the "Player of the Game" versus Washington State in which he was credited with six tackles and three tackles for loss, including one for a safety. Stretz capped off his senior year by being awarded the N.N. Sugarman Trophy for Best Leadership on the Bruin team.

Grady came to UCLA from Tempe's McClintock High in 1991 after winning the State championship and earning honors from USA Today, SuperPrep, Tacoma News Tribune, BlueChip Report and Long Beach Press Telegram. He redshirted in that 1991 season. In 1992, he saw action in 65 plays on the defensive line. In the Rose Bowl season of 1993, Stretz started three games and was credited with four tackles, one sack, two tackles for loss and one fumble recovery in an injury-plagued year. As a junior in 1993, Stretz started five games and had 31 total tackles and 17 unassisted stops with one sack, three tackles for loss and one pass defense (he missed four games with a sprained knee). He had five stops each in games versus Tennessee, Nebraska, Washington State and Arizona State.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in History from UCLA, 1996; At UCLA: Second year (joined staff in April of 1996); Born: November 8, 1972 in Tempe, AZ; Family: Married the former Sarah Rowe, a UCLA graduate, on July 5.

RANDY TAYLOR

Illinois '79

Football Operations

Randy Taylor begins his second year at UCLA. He came to Westwood following a couple of stints as an assistant athletic director and after operating his own business for several years. He works in an administrative capacity, dealing with all facets of the Bruin football program.

A former All-Big Ten center at Illinois, Taylor returned to his alma mater as a graduate assistant offensive line coach for the '79 college season. He then moved into administration as the Assistant Director of Operations at his alma mater in charge of fund raising; marketing and public relations. In 1980, Taylor went on to become an Assistant to the Athletic Director for Football at Illinois.

Taylor then moved on to UNLV as an Assistant Athletic Director for Football from 1985 to 1987. His duties centered on directing the adminstration of the Las Vegas football program, including media and community relations, fund raising, recruiting, NCAA compliance, athlete advising and camp production. Randy was named Assistant Athletic Director at San Jose State in 1988, where he oversaw the areas of marketing, promotions, media and community relations, corporate sponsorships, advertising, and event and camp production.

Taylor came to UCLA after working as the president of his own company which specialized in sports-related business ventures.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Science from Illinois, 1979; At UCLA: Second year (joined staff in May of 1996); Born: February 24, 1956; Family: Wife, Kristine.

Kevin Yoxall

East Texas State '83

Strength and Conditioning Coach

Kevin Yoxall is in his second full year at UCLA, having joined the Bruin staff in February of 1996. He is responsible for developing and coordinating the strength and conditioning programs for all varsity men and women athletes in UCLA's 21 sports.

Yoxall came to UCLA after serving as head football strength and conditioning coach at both the University of Minnesota (1993-96) and Texas Christian University (1989-92). He began his collegiate work as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at TCU from 1987-89.

A competitive powerlifter, Kevin earned Collegiate All-American honors in 1983. He was a Region IX record holder from 1981-83 and a Texas State Drug Free powerlifting record setter from 1984-86. He won the 242-pound weight class championship in 1988, 1989 and 1990.

Since 1980, Yoxall has been a member of the United States Powerlifting Federation. He became a certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist in 1988 and a Level I Olympic Weightlifting coach in 1990.

Following his graduation from East Texas State in 1983, Yoxall worked as a teacher in the Goose Creek Consolidated Independent School District in Baytown, TX. He was recognized as the Baytown Classroom Teachers Association, Teacher of the Year for 1987.

Yoxall is assisted by former UCLA offensive lineman Mike Linn and Craig Sowers.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's of Science in Special Education from East Texas State, 1983; Master's of Science in Physical Education from Texas Christian University, 1989; At UCLA: Second year (joined staff in February of 1996); Born: August 3, 1959; Family: Kevin and his wife Nancy have one son, Collin, six, and one daughter, Marlee, two.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Geoff Schaadt is entering his first full year as UCLA's Coordinator of Athletic Training and Rehabilitation, having been promoted to the position in May. Schaadt oversees the operation of UCLA's combined men's and women's training room and has primary responsibility for football.

Schaadt joined the Bruin athletic training staff in 1993. During his tenure, he has served as assistant athletic trainer for football with responsibility for daily operations and coordinator of rehabilitation, as well as primary athletic trainer for several sports, most recently men's tennis.

Prior to his tenure at UCLA, Schaadt served as assistant athletic trainer at the United States Military Academy (1992-93) and Arizona (1990-1992). He is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association, the Far West Athletic Trainers' Association and the California Athletic Trainers' Association.

Schaadt graduated from Purdue University in 1990 and earned a Master's of Science - Exercise and Sport Sciences from the University of Arizona in 1992. His staff in the athletic training room includes Lorita Granger, Dave Polanski, Krista Polanksi, Tony Spino, Maria Castro, Marty Lauzon and Russ Romano.

Richard "Nick" Nichols is entering his 20th season as UCLA's Head Equipment Manager. Nichols, who has been at UCLA for 34 years and who joined the equipment staff in 1968, supervises three other full-time staff members — Tony Perri, Phil Hollenbaugh and Mike McBride.

The equipment staff is in charge of the cleaning, maintenance and storage of UCLA's football equipment both before and after each practice and game. During the games, they are poised on the sidelines ready to assist players and coaches with any equipment problem.

As head equipment manager, Nichols is in charge of the budget, annually ordering over $250,000 worth of football equipment and dealing with athletic administrators, coaches and student-athletes. He and his assistants also oversee equipment ordering and warehousing for all of UCLA's 21 sports.

Ken Norris is in his ninth year as UCLA's Video Coordinator. Ken and his staff are responsible for taping all of UCLA's practices and games. They provide the coaching staff with various types of tapes (offense, defense, special teams, end zone angles) for use in coaching and scouting.

Norris, who worked for the Los Angeles Rams prior to joining the UCLA staff, also tapes games for several of UCLA's other sports, including men's basketball and volleyball. He is assisted by Eric Kowal.

Ed Kezirian is in his 16th season as a member of the Bruin staff and his fifth in his current capacity. An assistant to Director of Academic Services Wayne Johnson, he is responsible for implementing academic services for team members and tracking the progress of the student-athletes. In addition, he is also responsible for interacting with other departments within the athletic administration in the area of student services for the football team.

A former Bruin standout at offensive tackle (1972 and 1973), Kezirian spent 11 seasons (1982-92) coaching UCLA's offensive line prior to moving into administration.

1997 OUTLOOK

Bob Toledo, who was named UCLA head coach on January 4, 1996, will begin his second season earlier than anyone in school history. The Bruins open the 1997 schedule with a Pac-10 conference battle against Washington State on August 30th in Pullman, WA.

Toledo will be looking for improvement in 1997 after laying the foundation for future successes in his initial campaign. After his first team faced what many considered perhaps the nation's toughest slate of games, Toledo Take-Two will face yet another formidable schedule, meeting six teams which played in bowl games last season, including all three non-conference opponents — Tennessee, at Texas and Houston. He and his coaching staff will build their second Bruin team around 15 returning starters — nine on offense and six on defense — plus a punter.

"I really feel like we have 11 starters returning on offense because Mike Grieb and Danny Farmer have each started a handful of games," said Toledo. "These players now have a year of experience under their belts on the field as well as working with our coaching staff. We will do many of the same things on offense that we did a year ago. Offensively, we want to improve our execution of the routine plays while creating more big-play opportunities. On defense, our goal is to reduce the number of big plays we allow and create more big plays of our own with turnovers and interceptions. You can also never understate the value of keeping continuity on your staff. When you work together on a consistent basis it helps the coaches communicate better with each other and it makes it easier to teach the players when the terminology and techniques remain the same."

"Experience will be a tremendous factor for us offensively. Defensively, I really like our athleticism. We are still refining our defensive scheme to best utilize the talent we have available. Tight end and linebacker are two of the real strongpoints of this team in terms of quality depth and talent. Some of the young guys could contribute at wide receiver and along the defensive front once we get a chance to evaluate them in August."

On offense, the key performer is senior tailback Skip Hicks while on defense free safety Shaun Williams, cornerback Javelin Guidry and linebackers Brian Willmer and Danjuan Magee lead the returnees. Junior Cade McNown will operate behind an offensive line which returns intact and he also welcomes back explosive wide receiver Jim McElroy. Defensively, nose guard Jeff Ruckman and defensive end Weldon Forde are two starters returning to man a defensive line which ranked 23rd in the nation last season against the run. A number of non-starters will be expected to assume more important roles, including wide receiver Danny Farmer, tight end Mike Grieb and strong safety Larry Atkins.

OFFENSE

The Bruins will again strive for balance between passing and running. UCLA's offensive scheme will feature numerous formations with shifting and motion, including the short passing game as a way to control the football while moving it down the field.

QUARTERBACK

CADE McNOWN (6-1, 211), who burst on to the scene as a true freshman in 1995, starting nine contests, is now entrenched as the leader of the offensive unit, having started the last 19 straight games.

The true junior, who possesses a strong arm and quick feet, saved his best for last a season ago. In the 1996 finale against USC, McNown completed 29-47 passes for 356 yards and one touchdown. His 29 completions tied him for second on UCLA's single-game list, trailing only Troy Aikman, and his 47 attempts tied for third in that category. Both marks were career highs. His 356 passing yards against USC rank sixth in school history and he is now the only Bruin ever to pass for over 355 yards twice in a career (395 versus ASU earlier in the season).

Cade McNown

In addition, McNown's 382 yards total offense vs. USC rank fifth in school history and he is the only Bruin to record at least 375 yards of total offense twice in his career. His 395 yards passing against ASU rank third on that all-time list, trailing only Tommy Maddox's 409 against USC in 1990 and Steve Bono's 399 versus BYU in 1983. He is the only true freshman in school history to throw for over 300 yards in a game (306 versus Fresno State in 1995). Cade also led the Bruins to touchdowns on each of their first three possessions in the 24-20 victory over USC, as the first true freshman to start at quarterback against the Trojans since Tom Ramsey in 1979.

Redshirt freshman walkon DREW BENNETT (6-5 ½, 190) is the team's No. 2 quarterback. He was a scout team performer last season and has risen to No. 2 on the depth chart following the transfer of backup Steve Buck and the injured-retired status of Dylan Aquino. He took plenty of reps in the Spring and showed he is a capable performer.

Two true freshmen —SCOTT McEWAN (6-3, 196) and EDMUND STANSBURY (6-2, 225) will have the opportunity to contribute right away. McEwan, a PrepStar All-American from Thousand Oaks High, threw for over 2,100 yards and 14 touchdowns in a run-oriented offense. Stansbury, perhaps the most decorated of the Bruins' 1997 recruiting class, was listed as the nation's No. 14 offensive player by one recruiting service.

He threw for over 2,500 yards and 27 touchdowns in 1996 and also rushed for over 200 more on the ground.

"Cade is a gamer, a hard worker and a winner," said Toledo. "He has succeeded despite having to learn new offenses in each of his first two seasons and without the benefit of a redshirt year. He is now doing the little things we have been trying to teach him all along. He played with a lot of confidence this Spring. The continuity in our offense this season should further aid his progress. Consistency is the only thing holding him back from being among the elite in our conference."

"Drew Bennett, while still having a lot to learn, proved this Spring that he is a competent backup quarterback. We also look forward to the arrival of the freshmen in August. At least one of them will have to be ready to go."

RUNNING BACK

Senior SKIP HICKS (6-0, 222) possesses the size and speed to become one of the nation's dominant tailbacks. He led the Bruins in rushing with a career-best 1,034 yards and his average of 94.8 yards per game ranked fourth in the Pac-10. He rushed for at least 100 yards six times in 1996 and has done it eight times overall in his career. Football News tabbed him as a first-team All-Pac-10 selection, while the coaches picked him to the second-team.

Skip Hicks

Hicks led the team with 17 rushing touchdowns and added three touchdown receptions on his 21 catches. His average of 10.9 points per game led the team and was second in the Pac-10 and tied for fourth in the NCAA. His 20 touchdowns broke UCLA's previous season record (17 by J.J. Stokes in 1993 and Gaston Green in 1986) and also tied Green's record of 17 rushing touchdowns. His 120 points also set a new school mark, breaking kicker John Lee's record of 117, set in 1984. His 1,034 rushing yards rank 12th on the season list while his 224 rushing attempts rank fourth.

As a true freshman in 1993, he led the team in rushing with 563 yards despite missing several games with an ankle sprain. He suffered a torn left knee ligament as a member of the track team in March of 1994 and had arthroscopic surgery on his other knee prior to the 1995 season. He played just three games in 1995, rushing for 100 yards (6.2 average) before being sidelined for the season and being granted a medical hardship year.

Sophomore DURELL PRICE (6-0, 220), was the first Bruin true freshman to rush for over 100 yards (a team-high 110 yards vs. NE Louisiana) since Skip Hicks did it against ASU in the 10th game of the 1993 season against Arizona State. Hicks also did it in the second game of his career (1993 vs. Nebraska). Price finished as the team's second-leading rusher with 210 yards. He saw action at both running back positions during the Spring.

Sophomore KEITH BROWN (6-0, 206) started to make an impact with his speed during the latter portion of the 1996 season as a true freshman. He was UCLA 's third-leading rusher with 149 yards on 39 attempts and averaged 20.4 yards on nine kickoff returns and 13.0 yards on five receptions. Off-season shoulder surgery forced him to miss Spring ball and leaves him a little of a question mark for the start of the season.

Redshirt freshman JERMAINE LEWIS (5-7, 170) will get the chance to contribute in the backfield this season, as well as, on special teams as a kick returner. He proved to be a very talented performer on last year's scout team and had a huge Spring using his speed and quickness to great advantage. An all-purpose All-American at Antelope Valley High in Lancaster, CA, Lewis rushed for 2,574 yards (9.8 average per carry) to rank No. 2 in the state of California and scored 35 touchdowns as a prep senior.

Junior AKIL DAVIS (5-10, 175) moved from the secondary to tailback during the 1995 season and played a key role in the victory over USC, setting up a touchdown with a 21-yard run. He rushed for 1,341 yards and 14 touchdowns as a prep senior in 1993 and possesses blazing speed. Davis, who also competes on the Bruin track team, carried four times for 57 yards last season prior to suffering a season-ending knee injury that required arthroscopic surgery.

UCLA also appears to be well-stocked at fullback. Junior CRAIG WALENDY (6-0, 229) started five games last season after earning some playing time as a true freshman. He is a good runner and an even better blocker. Walendy carried 20 times in 1996 for 57 yards. Fellow junior CHEYANE CALDWELL (6-1, 241) started five games as a true freshman and another game last season. A punishing blocker, he carried twice for six yards in 1996. Redshirt junior JARVIS WATSON (5-11, 234), who opened the 1995 season as the starting fullback, will also have a chance to contribute this season. Last year, he earned the offensive scout team player of the year award while also gaining 29 yards on four carries and scoring a touchdown in game action. Walkon sophomore MARK VERTI (6-2,227) who played in several games last season as a reserve fullback, special teams performer and blocking back in goal line situations, will look to expand on that role in 1997.

"The running back position can be a real strong point for our team," said Toledo. "We have experience, quality and depth at both tailback and fullback. Each of our backs is capable of contributing in one way or another in our game plans.

"Skip Hicks is a big-time talent who is a threat to score anytime he touches the ball. He set a school record last season with 20 touchdowns and possesses a rare combination of great speed and size. He could be even more dangerous this year running behind what is now an experienced offensive line. Keith Brown played well a year ago as a true freshman, as did Durell Price. Jermaine Lewis and Price each had strong Spring performances. Price is healthy after suffering a knee injury during the season. Lewis was a standout on the scout team last season and carried that momentum through the Spring practices. He has a chance to be a factor this year. We are in good shape at the fullback position. Each of our backs has experience as a starter and the ability to block, catch or run with the ball when we call on them."

TIGHT END

One of the key elements of UCLA's new passing scheme under offensive coordinator Alan Borges was the utilization of the tight end as a regular part of the offense. A year ago, the tight ends made 42 receptions, compared to just eight in 1995. Jamal Clark, the starter of a year ago, is the lone non-returner in this area.

Mike Grieb

Junior MIKE GRIEB (6-4, 244) started six games as a freshman in 1995 and two last season including the season-opener. In that game at Tennessee, Greib made a career-high five catches, but suffered a sprained ankle which kept him on the sidelines for the next two games. Later in the season against Washington State, he caught his first career scoring pass and capped off the year with four grabs in the USC game. He ranked sixth on the team with 19 catches.

In addition, senior TYRONE PIERCE (6-2, 252) moved over from a linebacker position and did quite well as a blocker in double tight end formations. True sophomore GABE CRECION (6-5, 235) got off to a slow start after suffering a foot injury in last Fall's pre-season camp. He finished with two catches for 46 yards last season. A fine athlete, he is also a pitcher with the baseball team. Junior RYAN NEUFELD (6-4, 235), a reserve linebacker and defensive end the last two seasons, will compete for playing time as a tight end, a position he played in high school.

Add true freshman BRYAN FLETCHER (6-5, 215) to the mix and this position may be the most complete on the team. Fletcher made 22 receptions for 536 yards and seven touchdowns and also saw action as a linebacker for Hazelwood East High in St. Louis, MO.

"This was an area at which we needed to up our level of play and now it is one of the strengths of our offensive football team," said Toledo. "With the emergence of Jamal Clark and the development of Mike Grieb, Tyrone Pierce and Gabe Crecion, I feel that we improved significantly. Grieb earned the starting job but was injured in the opener. He came back to play an important role throughout the year. Tyrone has outstanding blocking skills and Crecion showed us that he could be a real talent as a receiver at this position. Ryan Neufeld is a solid football player who has now found a home. He gives us some quality depth and could be a bit of a surprise because of the many two and three tight end formations we utilize."

WIDE RECEIVER

Senior JIM McELROY (5-10, 152) possesses game-breaking capability and could be one of the country's top big-play receivers. He enters the 1997 season with 54 career receptions to rank 25th (tied) on UCLA's all-time list. He has the highest average per reception (19.28) of anyone in the Bruin Top 25, just ahead of Willie "Flipper" Anderson's mark of 19.27.

Jim McElroy

In addition, his 48 career kickoff returns rank second on that list, trailing only Brian Brown (66). McElroy is only the second player to break the 1,000-yard barrier on kickoff returns (1,158, trailing only Brown's 1,416). His average of 24.13 yards is second only to Theotis Brown (25.24) among players with at least 29 career returns.

A year ago, he led the team with 327 receiving yards and an average of 20.3 yards per catch and ranked second with 26 receptions. He made 22 of the catches in the final six games of the year. In the finale against USC, McElroy set career highs for catches with eight and yards with 149. He made a 52-yard reception to set up one touchdown and had a double-digit yardage catch for a first down on each of UCLA's three fourth-quarter scoring drives. He also returned three kickoffs for 67 yards. For the season, he averaged 25.1 yards on his 15 kickoff returns, including one for 58 yards against Arizona which was UCLA's longest since 1990. Jim also competes as a sprinter on the Bruin track squad.

Former walkon DANNY FARMER (6-3, 205) earned a scholarship prior to the start of the 1996 Fall practice and began his varsity career with a bang. He led the Bruins with 31 receptions and his 524 receiving yards trailed McElroy by just three yards. His average per catch of 16.9 was second only to McElroy's 20.3 mark. In his first game, a start versus Tennessee, Farmer made five receptions for 115 yards, including an 88-yard score, the fifth-longest pass play in UCLA history. He started four games last season, shifting back and forth from slot receiver to split end. In the Spring, Danny plays a key role on the Bruin volleyball squad.

Junior TOD McBRIDE (6-1, 196) an aggressive blocker who runs well after he catches the football, made nine receptions for 105 yards as a freshman and added another nine grabs for 142 yards and a pair of touchdowns last season. However, he underwent surgery on both knees during the off-season and could be sidelined until the middle of the year. Whe he returns, he may also shift to a safety position.

Redshirt sophomore BRAD MELSBY (6-1, 190) sat out the 1996 season while rehabilitating from surgery on his right knee. As a true freshman, he made 12 receptions for 173 yards (14.4 average) and two touchdowns while playing just the latter half of the season. In the Aloha Bowl, the Los Alamitos High product made five catches and scored two touchdowns and a two-point conversion against Kansas. One of the best route runners on the team, Melsby's knee withstood the rigors of Spring ball and he is ready to go.

Senior ERIC SCOTT (6-0, 179) is an outstanding blocker / receiver combination who brings plenty of big game experience to the field. He started five games last season and had nine catches for 112 yards. A starter in eight games during 1995, Scott grabbed 14 balls for 219 yards.

Senior RODNEY LEE (6-1, 186) earned a scholarship prior to the 1996 Fall camp and proceeded to start the first game of the season at Tennessee. It proved to be his lone start of the season, but Lee managed to catch five balls on the season for 50 yards, including a spectacular third-down diving grab on the tying drive in the fourth quarter of the USC game.

Several highly-touted freshmen — CODY JOYCE (6-1, 193), FREDDIE MITCHELL II (6-0, 175) and BRIAN POLI-DIXON (6-4, 195) will join the receiver ranks of the Bruins this Fall. Joyce, a star at Hart High in Saugus, CA, earned PrepStar All-America status while catching 65 balls for 1,067 yards and 12 touchdowns. Mitchell, from Kathleen High in Lakeland, FL also earned PrepStar All-America accolades while making 30 receptions for 530 yards and nine scores in a run-oriented attack. Poli-Dixon is an imposing target and grabbed 44 passes for 913 yards and 17 touchdowns during an All-American senior season at Sabino High in Tucson, AZ.

"This group of wide receivers can be better as a group than a year ago," said Toledo. "We have moved Jim McElroy, who is a dangerous deep threat and a real playmaker, from split end to flanker in order to give him more chances to touch the ball. He will also be a significant plus for us in the kick return area. Danny Farmer came through for us in a big way. He is a consistent, reliable receiver. The fact that Brad Melsby returns from injury is a huge boost for our corps of receivers. Eric Scott and Rodney Lee, combined with some of the younger guys, will give the position quality depth."

OFFENSIVE LINE

"The offensive line should be a strength," says Toledo. "We have all five starters returning after a solid season. Chad Overshauser is the most experienced of the group and is one of the better linemen in the West. Kris Farris made great strides this Spring and the other returners each looked impressive at times. Young guys like David Plenty Hawk, Tony Ippolito and Oscar Cabrera improved each day during Spring ball."

Senior right tackle CHAD OVERHAUSER (6-5, 296) will be in his fourth year as a starter in 1997. A versatile performer who has played both the tackle and guard positions, he started all 11 games last season at right tackle. Overhauser has the ability to be one of the top players at his position in the Pac-10 and earned first-team All-Conference honors in 1996 from Football News. Senior DAN COTTI (6-5, 288), a junior college transfer also returns at the position after a season as a backup.

Chad Overhauser

On the left side, redshirt sophomore KRIS FARRIS (6-9, 295), a 1994 prep All-American who possesses great all-around potential, had a solid initial campaign. Redshirt freshman DAVID PLENTY HAWK (6-5, 290) impressed the coaches as a scout team performer last Fall. He earned All-West acclaim at Norte Vista High in Corona, CA.

At the guard positions, senior CHAD SAUTER (6-4, 297) returns after starting each game last season at left guard. He started three games as a redshirt freshman in 1994 and was a key reserve in 1995. Redshirt freshman TONY IPPOLITO (6-5, 265) is waiting in the wings and a big Spring has given him a chance to join the regular rotation. He was an All-West selection at Lincoln High in Stockton, CA.

On the right side, junior ANDY MEYERS (6-5, 298) emerged as the starter after a good pre-season camp and started the first 10 games. He suffered a broken bone in his leg and was forced to miss the USC game. Meyers demonstrated he was fully recovered during the Spring practices. Senior SEAN GULLY (6-4, 273), who had seen spot duty in previous seasons, saw regular duty as a reserve in 1996. He even started the USC game for Meyers and backed him up the rest of the way.

Redshirt junior center SHAWN STUART (6-3, 306) stepped in for All-Conference performer Mike Flanagan a year ago and started all 11 games. As a freshman, he had seen action in nine games, but never as the starter. Sophomore MATT PHELAN (6-4, 282) and talented redshirt freshman OSCAR CABRERA (6-4, 306) are slated to be the top reserves at this position. Phelan made some major gains during the off-season. Cabrera earned All-West Region honors at Los Angeles' Franklin High.

Waiting in the wings are true freshmen BRIAN POLAK (6-5, 319), a highly honored standout at Bishop Amat High School in Hacienda Heights, CA; ED ANDERSON (6-5, 260) of Ayala High in Chino Hills, CA; DAVID WILFORD (6-5, 276) of Tustin, CA High and TROY DANOFF (6-4, 280) of LaCueva High in Albuquerque, NM.

DEFENSE

In the Spring of 1996, new defensive coordinator Rocky Long and his staff experimented with several formations before settling on one which featured two safeties, and a rover in addition to three down linemen, three linebackers and two cornerbacks. A similar alignment will be utilized again this season although the Bruins also employed a two down lineman, four linebacker scheme at times during this past Spring.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Senior WELDON FORDE (6-1, 242), a former outside linebacker, did an outstanding job as a versatile lineman, playing both nose guard (three starts) and end (four starts) with seven starts in all. He is a big play guy who led the team in sacks (six for 36 yards) and tackles for losses (13 for 59 yards) while totaling 35 tackles, second among the linemen. He enters the Fall as the starter at left defensive end.

Weldon Forde

Redshirt freshman BILLY PIEPER (6-2, 220) will compete for playing time this year at a defensive end position. He earned All-West honors at Kamehameha High School in Honolulu, HI, making 127 tackles as a senior linebacker and recorded 336 (25 sacks) in his career. However, he missed some crucial developmental time in the Spring while playing baseball and nursing an ankle injury.

At the other defensive end, junior BRENDON AYANBADEJO (6-2, 230) saw action at linebacker and on the special teams last season and will enter the Fall with a good chance to start after an outstanding Spring showing. Ayanbadejo transferred to UCLA from Cabrillo College in Santa Cruz, CA, and saw his first action as a Bruin last year, making six tackles from a linebacker position.

Senior JASON NEVADOMSKY (6-2, 230), will look to regain a prominent role at a defensive end spot after sitting out last season following shoulder surgery. In 1995, his first season at UCLA after transferring from junior college, he played end in the 4-3 alignment, making 20 tackles while starting once and playing in every game.

At defensive tackle, senior JEFF RUCKMAN (6-2, 264), who missed all of 1994 and part of 1995 due to back problems, came back strong in 1996, starting eight games, including the final seven, at nose guard. He is an aggressive player who can make an important contribution if healthy. Ruckman totaled 21 tackles last year with two sacks and three tackles for loss.

Senior DAMON SMITH (6-3, 264), who redshirted in 1995 after transferring as a walk-on from Ashland University, started three games at nose guard last season. He will compete with Ruckman for a starting job at defensive tackle. Smith had 24 tackles in 1996 with one tackle for loss and a fumble recovery.

At the other defensive tackle, senior DARREN CLINE (6-4, 265) enters Spring ball at the top of the depth chart. Cline had seen limited action prior to last season when he started four games and was credited with 18 tackles, including one quarterback sack, one fumble recovery and an interception.

Redshirt sophomore PETE HOLLAND (6-3, 261) will compete with Cline for playing time, as will TRAVOR TURNER (6-4, 240), a redshirt sophomore with plenty of potential as a pass rusher. He saw limited action last season at linebacker and on special teams.

Redshirt freshman MICAH WEBB (6-6, 267), a scout team standout, is also in the mix at defensive tackle. Like his twin brother, Micah earned All-America honors while playing both ways at Turlock (CA) High School.

Redshirt freshman JOSH WEBB (6-7, 258) will also try to earn playing time at a defensive tackle slot. He spent last season on the scout team and earned All-America honors while playing both ways at Turlock (CA) High School. Josh made 72 tackles, including nine sacks, as a senior.

Coach Toledo will take a long look at each of the defensive line recruits — KENYON COLEMAN (6-5, 260) of Alta Loma, CA High; ANDY KASSOTIS (6-3, 263) of Citrus College, JESSE SIMMS (6-3, 265) of King and Low Haywood Thomas High in Norwalk, CT; STEPHEN SUA (6-1, 257) of Tustin, CA High.

"This is an area which returns a lot of experience and has several solid, steady performers," said Toledo. "However, we are still looking for someone to become a dominating performer along the line of scrimmage. Nevadomsky did well in 1995 in a different defense, and appears to be recovered from his injury. We expect even more production from guys like Forde, Cline, Ruckman, Smith and Holland, who really stepped up last season. The Webb twins, who have some of the size we are looking for at this position, made progress this Spring before they were both injured. Billy Pieper and Travor Turner will also get a look in the Fall."

LINEBACKER

UCLA has two returning senior starters in this key defensive area who form the nucleus of the entire defensive unit.

Middle linebacker BRIAN WILLMER (6-2, 239) was the team's most valuable and consistent defensive player in 1996 and established himself as a definite candidate for 1997 post-season honors. He led the team with 102 tackles, including nine for losses (three sacks) and added one fumble recovery, one forced fumble and six passes defensed. In 1995, he started eight games as a sophomore as the middle linebacker in the 4-3 defense and ranked fourth on the team with 57 tackles.

Brian Willmer

DANJUAN MAGEE (6-2, 255) started 10 games at right outside linebacker last season. He finished with 56 tackles, three and one-half sacks, six tackles for loss and a forced fumble. Magee started nine games at defensive end in 1995 and made 24 tackles, including four for losses. He made the switch to linebacker in the Spring of 1996 and significantly strengthened the area.

Redshirt sophomore MICHAEL WILEY (6-2, 230) recorded 10 tackles, one for loss, last season as a backup linebacker and special teams player. He compiled 178 stops as a high school senior in 1994 and was impressive with the scout team in 1995. He emerged from Spring having won a backup job at an inside linebacker slot.

Redshirt sophomore RAMOGI HUMA (6-1, 215) is slated to back up Magee at inside linebacker. Huma, a great all-around athlete, has played both in the middle and on the outside in the past. He totaled 25 tackles as a true freshman in 1995. A foot injury sidelined him in 1996.

SANTI HALL (6-2, 242) and TONY WHITE (6-1, 224) are a couple of highly touted incoming freshmen looking to impress. Hall, a PrepStar All-American from Valley View High in Moreno Valley, CA was deemed the No. 2 defensive lineman in the West and registered 22 quarterback sacks as a senior. White, was named theDistrict 3-4A Most Valuable Player at El Paso, TX Burges High.

"We have a good combination of experience and young talent at this position," Toledo said. "Willmer and Magee are two proven performers we can depend on day in and day out. Brian had an outstanding season a year ago and provides us with leadership. Danjuan is a tremendous athlete — big, strong and fast – who is a big play guy. Our young people are somewhat unproven and need to step up and provide depth to make this unit complete. Michael Wiley really upped his level of play this Spring and could be a real plus for us this Fall."

SECONDARY

With the loss of three starters and four players — rover Anthony Cobbs, strong safety Abdul McCullough and left cornerbacks Paul Guidry and Kusanti Abdul-Salaam — this area was one of the focal points of a Spring reconstruction effort.

Senior SHAUN WILLIAMS (6-2, 204) enters his third season as a starter and headlines the defensive backfield. He is an All-America candidate and team leader with a size and speed combination comparable to some of UCLA's all-time greats at the safety position — Kenny Easley, Don Rogers, James Washington and Eric Turner. Fellow senior GLENN THOMPKINS (5-8, 165), a part-time starter and special teams performer throughout his career, provides steady support as a back up.

Shaun Williams

Fourth-year senior JAVELIN GUIDRY (5-10, 170) is one of UCLA's most experienced performers, having started five games as a true freshman, two as a sophomore and all 11 games last season at right cornerback. Javelin had 41 tackles, 12 pass defenses, an interception and a fumble recovery in 1996. Redshirt sophomore RYAN ROQUES (5-11, 180), a converted running back, and redshirt freshman speedster DAMIAN ALLEN (5-9, 160), who caught the coaches' eyes as a scout team performer in 1996, figure to back up Guidry. Ryan worked hard this Spring around his commitments to the baseball team and seems to have found his position. Allen, who ran track in the Spring, earned prep All-American honors at Damien High in Ontario, CA by making 60 tackles and six interceptions as a senior, three of which he returned for touchdowns.

At the other corner, senior AARON ROQUES (6-1, 186) is coming into his own as a player. He had a solid Spring to emerge as the starter heading into Fall camp. True sophomore JASON BELL (6-1, 167), who excelled on special teams last season, will play behind Guidry and as the third cornerback. Bell earned prep All-America acclaim at Long Beach's Millikan High, making 70 tackles and five interceptions.

Senior WASSWA SERWANGA (5-11, 194), who transferred to UCLA from the University of the Pacific prior to the 1996 season, served as a reserve at both the safety and rover positions with a single start against Stanford. He impressed the coaching staff with his intensity and ability, totaling 32 tackles and four sacks, and is the leading candidate to take over at the rover position. Redshirt sophomore ERIC WHITFIELD (6-1, 196) saw duty on several of the Bruin special teams last season and will get a look at rover and at both safety positions this year.

Fourth-year junor LARRY ATKINS (6-4, 214), one of the top athletes on the team, came into his own in the Spring and enters Fall camp as the starter at the strong safety position. He possesses good size and recorded 25 tackles last season to go along with four pass defenses, a sack and two tackles for loss. Redshirt junior DuVAL HICKS (6-1, 195) is slated to back up Atkins. Redshirt sophomore ALI ABDUL AZZIZ (6-2, 213) is another converted running back who has found a new home in the defensive backfield.

Three quality freshmen join this unit in the Fall. MARQUES ANDERSON (6-0, 185); RYAN NECE (6-2, 192) and JASON STEPHENS (6-2, 180) each bring increased size to the program at this position. Anderson has track speed and a reputation as a hitter with 180 tackles over the last two seasons at Long Beach Poly High. Nece earned PrepStar All-America honors at a safety position last season at Pacific High in San Bernardino, CA. Stephens, a tremendous athlete, was also named a PrepStar All-American last season while at Redlands High in Highland, CA.

"We have a lot of talent in this area, but much of our depth is unproven," said Toledo. "Shaun Williams is an outstanding player, probably the best football player on our team. I've coached a lot of tremendous safeties over the years and Shaun ranks right there with them. He has become a team leader and will be a candidate for national honors. Javelin Guidry gives us a dependable and experienced corner. Guys like Jason Bell, the Roques brothers, Eric Whitfield and Damian Allen need to be ready to contribute."

SPECIAL TEAMS

Junior CHRIS SAILER (5-10, 190) has been a consistent performer the past two seasons as the Bruin punter. This Spring, with the loss of first-team All-Pac-10 placekicker Bjorn Merten, he was given a chance to handle all the kicking chores and passed the test with flying colors. An All-American place kicker and punter in high school, he averaged 41.6 yards on 66 punts last season after posting a 42.2 yard mark as a freshman. In his career, he has placed 41 punts inside the 20-yard line. Freshman kicker/ punter ZAK HASELMO (6-2, 175), comes to UCLA after a record-setting prep career. The PrepStar All-American from Cabrillo High in Lompoc, CA, will get a close scrutiny during the Fall practices. Senior CHRIS RUBIO (6-1, 265) will do the long snapping for the third straight year. Several players are still in competition to be the new holder.

"We are confident that we will play very well in this area because of the level of talent and experience," said Toledo. "We have a quality kicker in Sailer. This Spring, he answered all of our questions in a positive way. He was seven-for-seven in live scrimmage field goal situations from long distance and consistently boomed his kickoffs into the endzone."

#49 CHEYANE CALDWELL

Fullback

6-1, 241, Jr.

Bloomington, CA

Bloomington HS

UCLA — Cheyane has made some valuable contributions in his first two years in the program ... A big, strong fullback who runs with a lot of power ... Tough to bring down one-on-one ... One of the strongest men on the team ... Also possesses the ability to catch the ball out of the backfield ... Enters Fall camp listed second at fullback but should push Craig Walendy for the starting job throughout the year.

1996 — Did a good job as a sophomore reserve, primarily as a blocking back ... Appeared in all 11 games on special teams and the first seven on offense ... Started one (Michigan) of the six games in which the Bruins opened with a two-back alignment and was the first fullback into the game at Tennessee and Michigan ... Played 25 snaps against Northeast Louisiana, 24 at Oregon and 18 at Tennessee ... Carried twice for six yards, including a five-yard run versus Northeast Louisiana, and caught a 13-yard pass against Arizona State.

1995 — Became the starting fullback against Fresno State and started all five of the last eight in which the Bruins opened with two backs ... His blocking added a dimension to the Bruin running game ... On the year, he carried the ball 11 times for 24 yards and one touchdown and made seven receptions for 84 yards ... Against USC he scored a one-yard touchdown to make the score 14-0 and also caught two passes for 18 yards, including a key first down on UCLA's first scoring drive ... His 20-yard catch-and-run in the Aloha Bowl was the longest of his career ... Rushed for 13 yards on four carries against Fresno State.

HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered three seasons at linebacker and fullback at Bloomington High for coach Don Markham ... Earned All-America acclaim from Blue Chips Illustrated and rated No. 3 linebacker prospect in the West as a senior in 1994 ... USA Today All-America honorable mention ... Member of the Tom Lemming All-West team ... Selected first-team All-State by Cal-Hi Sports ... Named to CIF Southern Section and Division VIII teams ... All-Sunkist League selection ... Helped lead his high school to Cal-Hi's No. 1 state ranking in Division VIII with a 14-0 record ... As a fullback, he rushed for 1,612 yards on 147 carries and 19 touchdowns ... Team's leading tackler on defense ... Also lettered in track for coach Craw in the shot put and the 4 x 100 relay.

#94 DARREN CLINE

Defensive Right Tackle

6-4, 265, Sr.

Davis, CA

Davis HS

UCLA — Darren was one of the pleasant surprises a year ago and will be depended upon to continue to raise the level of his game in 1997 ... Perhaps the team's best pass rusher from the line, he is deceptively quick in his first couple of steps off the ball ... A smart player, he possesses good vision and a feel for the game, which aids in his attack on different blocking schemes ... Enters Fall camp as the starter on the right side ... Had an arthroscopic procedure on his ankle following Spring Practice and will be 100 percent by August.

1996 — Darren worked hard during the off-season in order to prepare for his junior year and his efforts paid dividends ... Appeared in nine of 11 games, starting four times (Michigan, Oregon, Arizona State and USC) ... Suffered a sprained ankle against ASU which caused him to miss two of the next three games (Washington and Stanford) and limited him to six snaps in the middle contest (California) ... Against USC, UCLA opened with four down linemen ... Played a career-high 45 snaps at Arizona, 33 versus USC, 27 at Tennessee, 26 at Oregon and versus Northeast Louisiana and 24 versus Washington State ... In all, he played at least 20 snaps in seven of the nine games in which he participated ... On the year, Cline made 18 tackles (12 primaries), including a 13-yard sack ... Also had a 10-yard interception, defensed three passes and recovered one fumble ... Credited with three tackles in three of his first four games (Tennessee, Northeast Louisiana and Oregon) ... Made his sack against the Indians ... His third-quarter fumble recovery at Tennessee's 25-yard line set up a field goal to bring the Bruins within eight points, 21-13 ... His third-quarter interception at UCLA's 13-yard line against Oregon prevented a score and led to a Bruin field goal.

1995 — Saw the first action of his career against Fresno State, playing eight snaps.

1994 — Did not appear in a game.

1993 — Did not see action with the varsity, practicing as a defensive lineman on the scout team.

HIGH SCHOOL — Played football at Davis (CA) High School for coach Dave Whitmire ... Also lettered in basketball for coach Rich Stromberg ... Honorable mention Scholastic Coach All-American in 1992 ... Named all-league in both sports and all-league, all-city, all-metro, All-Nor Cal, All-CIF, All-State and All-West in football ... Also earned second-team All-State honors from Cal-Hi Sports ... Honorable mention Press-Telegram "Best in the West" ... Had 13 sacks as a senior ... Lists his biggest thrill as making three sacks on third down plays in a 1992 playoff game.

PERSONAL — Full Name: Darren Campbell Cline ... Born: August 20, 1974 in San Leandro, CA ... Parents: Tony and Carol Cline ... Has one brother, Tony Jr., a former tight end at Stanford, and one sister, Ashley ... Father played defensive line for the Raiders and 49ers during his NFL career ... Lists former Raider Howie Long as his favorite player ... Enjoys hunting and fishing ... Pre-Political Science major.

#70 DAN COTTI

Offensive Left Guard

6-5, 288, Sr.

Burbank, CA

L.A. Valley College

UCLA — Dan made fine progress during Spring Practice and will compete for playing time at both left guard and left tackle due to his versatility ... Figures to battle Chad Sauter for the starting job at left guard but may also be the top reserve at guard ... Works extremely hard ... One of his strengths is his ability to pass block ... Transferred to UCLA in January of 1996.

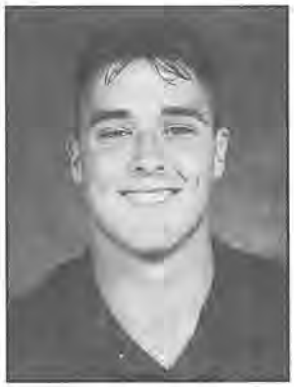
1996 — In his first season in the program, Cotti did a fine job as a reserve left tackle ... Made a major contribution in the season finale against USC, switching to the right side after injuries to starter Chad Overhauser and No. 2 Gene Waters and more than holding his own ... Played 25 snaps against Northeast Louisiana, 22 versus Washington State and 21 at Oregon and at least 10 in four other contests.

JUNIOR COLLEGE — Played two seasons for coach Jim Fenwick at Los Angeles Valley College ... As a sophomore in 1995, he earned first-team All-America honors from J.C. Grid-Wire and Student Sports magazine ... As a freshman, he earned Western State Conference honorable mention.

HIGH SCHOOL — Earned two varsity letters under coach Randy Stage at Burbank (CA) High ... Earned second-team all-league honors as a junior and a senior ... Selected team's Lineman of the Year and captain as a senior ... Also lettered in varsity golf and junior varsity basketball.

PERSONAL — Full name: Daniel Reed Cotti ... Born: June 10, 1976 in Los Angeles, CA ... Parents: John and Coleen Cotti ... Has one brother, John, and one sister, Cathi ... Lists beating No. 1-ranked Bakersfield College, 33-30, during his sophomore year as his career highlight ... Enjoys playing guitar ... Hopes to become a screenwriter ... History major.

#89 GABE CRECION



Tight End

6-5, 235, So.

Northridge, CA

Chaminade HS

UCLA — This talented sophomore gained valuable experience a year ago as a true freshman and should develop into an outstanding tight end with added experience ... Figures to compete for playing time this Fall after splitting time between football practice and baseball during the Spring ... Possesses outstanding hands and runs well, giving the Bruins a receiving threat anywhere on the field ... Pitched for the Bruin baseball squad this past Spring.

1996 — The true freshman missed much of Fall camp and the first two games due to a stress reaction in his foot ... Made his debut at Michigan, playing eight snaps ... Appeared in eight of the final nine games on offense, playing 10 snaps at Oregon and nine at Washington ... On the year, he made two receptions for 46 yards (23.0 average) — a 24-yarder at Arizona and a 22-yarder at Washington ... Appeared in nine games on special teams.

HIGH SCHOOL — Earned three varsity football letters for coach Rich Lawson at Chaminade College Prep in West Hills, CA ... BlueChips Illustrated All-American and rated as the No. 2 tight end in the West ... #30 AKIL DAVIS

Tailback

5-10, 175, Jr.

Mesa, AZ

Dobson HS

UCLA — Akil possesses great outside speed and should compete for playing time this Fall ... Has the ability to run away from defenses and could also contribute as a return man ... Did not participate in Spring Practice while recovering from arthroscopic surgery on his knee and competing for the Bruin track team.

1996 — Did not see any action due to a knee problem that required post-season arthroscopy.

1995 — Spent most of the season practicing with the defensive backs ... Shifted to tailback the week of the USC game and made some important contributions in the victory over the Trojans ... Carried the ball five times for 19 net yards ... His 21-yard run around right end on third-and-three during UCLA's first possession led to the first touchdown of the game ... Carried three times for 15 yards, including an 11-yard run, versus Kansas in the Aloha Bowl.

1994 — Did not see action in his first year at UCLA and has two seasons of eligibility remaining.

HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered three years in football at Mesa, AZ Dobson High School for coach Mike Clark ... Selected Blue Chips All-American and Super Prep All-American and All-Far West as a senior in 1993 ... A Tom Lemming All-West pick ... Selected to Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 ... #87 DANNY FARMER

Split End

6-3, 205, So.

Los Angeles, CA

Loyola HS

UCLA — This former walk-on earned a scholarship prior to the start of Fall camp and did not disappoint, becoming the first freshman to lead the Bruins in receiving ... A two-sport star, he is also a key performer on the UCLA volleyball team (he will be a junior for the 1998 season) ... Did not participate in Spring Practice due to volleyball ... Possesses deceptive speed which enables him to make big plays and is an outstanding all-round athlete ... Has great hands and can catch the ball over the middle.

1996 — In his first season as an active member of the team, Farmer led the Bruins with 31 receptions, the first freshman ever to do so ... His 524 yards trailed Jim McElroy by just three yards and his average of 16.9 was second only to McElroy's 20.3 ... Established himself as a big play performer and all four of his touchdown receptions measured at least 31 yards (88, 52, 38 and 31) ... His four touchdown catches led the team and his four scores tied him with Cade McNown and Keith Brown for second on the squad behind Skip Hicks's 20 ... His receptions produced 23 first downs ... Had six games of three or more receptions ... Made quite an impact in the first game of his career ... Started the Tennessee contest as the slot receiver and made five receptions for 115 yards ... With UCLA trailing 28-13 in the fourth quarter and facing a second-and-19 situation at its own 12-yard line, Farmer worked himself open, caught a pass from McNown around midfield and held off two pursuers to dive into the end zone ... The 88-yard play, which made the score 28-20 with 9:41 remaining, was the fifth-longest pass play in UCLA history ... Against NLU, he led the Bruins in receiving for a second straight game, finishing with four catches for 55 yards ... Against Arizona State, he led the team for the third time in five games, making four catches for 43 yards ... Farmer was moved from slot receiver to split end prior to the Washington State game and responded with the best contest of his short career ... He led the team in receptions for the fourth time, finishing with five for a career-best 121 yards and one touchdown ... He made a 52-yard over-the-shoulder catch to set up UCLA's go-ahead touchdown in the second quarter and with just under six minutes played in the second half, he out-fought double coverage to catch McElroy's 38-yard reverse option pass and scored his second TD of the year ... At Arizona, he led the Bruins in receptions (three) for the fifth time and scored on a 31-yard TD pass ... Against USC, Farmer made five receptions for 81 yards, including a 52-yard touchdown catch early in the second half on which he beat Daylon McCutcheon to get the Bruin offense started (UCLA trailed 24-7 at that point) ... #88 MIKE GRIEB

6-4, 244, Jr.

San Jose, CA

Oak Grove HS

UCLA — One of the key elements of UCLA's passing scheme is the utilization of the tight end ... Grieb, who earned the job a year ago only to be injured in the opener, enters this season firmly established as the starter at his position and could blossom into one of the best tight ends on the West Coast ... A fine player who is very technique-oriented and solid in all facets of the game ... Possesses outstanding hands and also blocks well ... A clutch receiver who has started seven games in his two seasons.

1996 — Mike began the year as the starting tight end ... In the season opener at Tennessee, he made a career-high five receptions, the most by a Bruin tight end since Rick Daly caught five passes against San Diego State in 1992 ... However, he suffered a sprained ankle which kept him on the sidelines for the next two games ... Returned to action at Oregon, making two catches for 25 yards ... Also made two against Stanford ... Against Washington State, he caught his first touchdown pass ever and the only one by a tight end all season, a 16-yard strike from Cade McNown in the final minute of the game ... In the finale against USC, he made four receptions for 45 yards, including a diving eight-yard catch on fourth-and-five to keep the first of UCLA's two fourth-quarter touchdown drives alive ... His 25-yard reception against USC was the longest of his career ... On the year, he made 19 receptions in nine games to rank sixth on the team and just one behind senior Jamal Clark for the lead among tight ends ... Made at least one reception in each of the nine games in which he played ... Started against Tennessee and USC (double tight-end formation) ... Played at least 20 snaps in eight of his nine games, including 55 at Tennessee, 51 at California and 48 against Washington State ... Also contributed on several of the special teams units.

1995 — Earned considerable playing time as a redshirt freshman ... Started five times (BYU, Oregon, WSU, Stanford and California), including three in a two-tight end formation ... Made two receptions for 26 yards ... His 14-yard reception versus USC was his longest of the year and set up UCLA's fourth-quarter field goal ... Also played on several special teams units throughout the year.
1994 — Did not see action in his first year at UCLA and has two seasons of eligibility remaining.
HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered three years at tight end and linebacker at Oak Grove High for coach Lee Evans ... As a senior in 1993, he caught 33 passes for 504 yards and eight touchdowns ... Named to the Blue Chips All-America team, Super Prep All-Far West and Cal-Hi Sports All-State high honorable mention ... National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award winner ... Also named to the AIR Academic All-State team with his 3.6 GPA ... Served as team captain for 1993's league championship team ... Named first-team All-Mount Hamilton Athletic League, All-Santa Clara County and League MVP as a senior ... Also served as team captain as a junior for a league championship team ... Named first-team All-Mount Hamilton Athletic League, All-Santa Clara County and Defensive team MVP in 1992 ... Named honorable mention all-league as a sophomore ... His career totals include 101 catches for 1,296 yards and 13 touchdowns ... Also lettered three years in basketball at forward for coach Rich Young.
PERSONAL—Full Name: Michael Andrew Grieb ... Born: February 25, 1976 in Torrance, CA ... Parents: Rich and Michaelle Grieb ... Has two brothers — Tim and Mark, who quarterbacked UC Davis to the 1996 NCAA semifinals and now plays for the Anaheim Piranhas ... Lists Jerry Rice of the San Francisco 49ers as the player he admires most ... Earned spot on Director's Honor Roll in Fall 1994 with his 3.00 grade-point average, Winter 1995 (3.57), Fall 1995 (3.10) and Spring 1996 (3.13) ... Mathematics major.

#42 Skip Hicks

Tailback

6-0, 222, Sr.

Wichita Falls, TX

Burkburnett HS

UCLA — The talented tailback enjoyed a tremendous junior campaign and enters his senior year as one of the country's top players at his position ... A prime candidate for All-America honors, he should also contend for the Doak Walker Award, presented to the nation's top running back, and perhaps the Heisman Trophy ... Has the potential to score anytime he touches the football ... Possesses the deadly combination of size and speed and has the strength to break tackles and the speed to run away from would-be tacklers ... A well-rounded performer who is adept at catching the ball out of the backfield ... Ranked fourth (tied) nationally in scoring a year ago ... Hicks enters his senior year with 1,858 rushing yards and has run for 26 touchdowns ... He ranks 14th on UCLA's career rushing list and could finish in the top five with another productive season ... Hicks also ranks third on the career touchdown list (29 — 26 rushing and three receiving), trailing only Gaston Green (40) and Gary Beban (35) ... His 174 career points also rank seventh on that all-time UCLA chart ... Has rushed for at least 100 yards in a game eight times in his career, twice in 1993 and six times last year ... Led the team in rushing as a true freshman in 1993 ... Suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee while long jumping for the track team in March of 1994 ... Had reconstructive surgery and returned to action on October 1 of the same year.

1996 — Enjoyed a fabulous season, blossoming into a game-breaking tailback ... Selected All-Pac-10 first team by Football News and second-team all-league by the coaches ... Voted offensive winner of UCLA's Henry R. "Red" Sanders Award for Most Valuable Player ... Co-winner, along with quarterback Cade McNown, of UCLA's George W. Dickerson Award for Outstanding Offensive Player versus USC ... Hicks led the team in rushing with a career-high 1,034 yards (more than in his entire career entering the season) and his average of 94.8 yards ranked fourth in the Pac-10, less than one yard per game away from second ... He rushed for more yards than any other returning Pac-10 performer ... Rushed for at least 100 yards six times in 1996 ... Made 11 runs of 20 or more yards and 32 of double digits, including one of 49, four between 30 and 39 yards and six between 20 and 29 yards ... Had one run of at least 25 yards in six of the final nine games ... Produced 45 first downs on his runs ... Led the team with 17 rushing touchdowns and also made three touchdown receptions on his 21 catches ... Seven of his 17 TD runs measured double digits ... His average of 10.9 points per game led the team and was second in the Pac-10 and tied for fourth in the NCAA ... His 20 touchdowns broke UCLA's previous season record (17 by J.J. Stokes in 1993 and Gaston Green in 1986) and also tied Green's record of 17 rushing touchdowns ... His 120 points also set a new school mark, breaking John Lee's record of 117, set in 1984 ... His 1,034 rushing yards were the most by a player other than Karim Abdul-Jabbar since Kevin Williams in 1991 (1,141) and ranked 12th on UCLA's season list while his 224 rushing attempts ranked fourth ... Ranked third on the squad with 21 receptions for 283 yards ... His three receiving touchdowns ranked second behind Danny Farmer's four and his 63-yard catch-and-run at California was the team's second-longest scrimmage play of the year, trailing only Farmer's 88-yard reception at Tennessee ...

Hicks enjoyed the best game of his career at California, accounting for a career-high 259 all-purpose yards and four touchdowns (all in the second half) while showing both his toughness on short runs and his speed on long plays ... Rushed for 146 yards, the third-highest total of his career, and three touchdowns, including a 34-yard TD in which he juked the final defender out of position ... He also made four receptions for 113 yards, including a 63-yard run with a short screen pass in which he ran away from several would-be tacklers, to become the first player in school history to account for 100 yards rushing and receiving in the same game ... Turned another screen pass into a 45-yard gain, setting up UCLA's lone first-half touchdown ... On the night, he made three plays of at least 34 yards to account for 142 of his 259 yards ... By scoring four touchdowns against the Golden Bears, he became only the third player in UCLA history to score four TDs in a game twice in his career and the first to do it twice in the same regular season (Freeman McNeil did it in 1979 and 1980 while Eric Ball did it during the 1985 regular season and the 1986 Rose Bowl) ... In the season finale against USC, he rushed for 116 yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries ... His 11-yard TD with 39 seconds remaining in regulation (plus Bjorn Merten's PAT) tied the score at 41 and put the game into overtime ... His 25-yard, tackle-breaking touchdown run on the first play of the second overtime proved to be the winning points ... Hicks enjoyed the best rushing effort of his career at Oregon and was at his best in the second half ... After gaining just 20 yards on 13 first-half carries, he exploded in the third quarter, carrying on 19 of UCLA's 27 offensive plays and rushing for 153 yards and two scores ... Seven of those runs measured at least 10 yards and three measured 20 or more ... In addition to his touchdowns of 20 and two yards, he also produced eight first downs ... On the evening, he rushed for a career-high 175 yards on 34 attempts (also a career high) ... Against Arizona State, he rushed for 114 yards and two touchdowns, including 93 yards and one score on 11 carries in the first half ... Against Washington State, he accounted for 175 all-purpose yards — 116 on the ground and 59 on four receptions ... Also scored three touchdowns — one rushing and two receiving — and scored at least twice (17 total) in six of his 11 games ... Scored his 18th touchdown of the year, a new school record, against Arizona ... Against Northeast Louisiana, Hicks rushed for 101 yards and four touchdowns and at Michigan, he rushed for 71 yards on 12 carries, including 49 on one second-quarter run, the second-longest of his career ... Suffered a mild concussion which limited his effectiveness in the opener at Tennessee ... Started all 11 games and played at least 50 snaps on seven occasions, including 59 at Oregon, 55 versus Washington State and 54 against California and Stanford ... On the year, he touched the ball 245 times and lost just four fumbles, none in the last five games and just two in the final nine contests.

Skip Hicks Highlights

- Scored UCLA record 20 touchdowns and 120 points in 1996
- T-4th in NCAA in scoring (No. 1 returnee)
- Eight career 100-yard games, including a career-high 175 yards at Oregon in 1996
- One of just three Bruins to score four touchdowns in a game twice in a career
- Only player in school history to gain 100 yards rushing and receiving in the same game
- Ranks third on UCLA career list with 29 touchdowns, trailing only Gaston Green(40) and Gary Beban (35)
- Averaged 94.8 yards rushing in 1996
- 32 double-figure runs in 1996
- UCLA's Offensive MVP in 1996

1995 — Played in just three games (all in the first half of the year) due to his knee problems and was granted a substitute season of eligibility ... Underwent arthroscopic surgery on his left knee early in double days and missed the first two games of the year ... Made his season debut against Oregon and ran for a 52-yard touchdown, the longest of his career, on his first carry ... However, he carried just 15 more times for 48 yards over three games before the pain in his knees became too great ... Finished the year with 100 yards on 16 carries.

1993 — Thrust himself into the national spotlight during the season's early games and finished the year as the team's leading rusher, the only true freshman to accomplish that feat since first-year players became eligible in 1972 ... Concluded the season with 563 yards, just shy of Shawn Wills's true freshman record of 622, set in 1988 ... He also tied for the team lead with five rushing touchdowns and averaged 5.6 yards per attempt ... Ranked seventh in the Pac-10 in rushing (62.0) during the regular season ... In the opener versus California, he ran for a 40-yard touchdown on the second carry of his career ... The following week against Nebraska, he rushed for a career-high (at the time) 148 yards — the second-highest total ever by a UCLA true freshman ... In the first quarter of that game, he had a 53-yard touchdown run nullified by penalty ... That afternoon, he had six runs of at least 10 yards, including 28 and 23 yards, and scored a six-yard touchdown ... Selected ABC-Chevrolet Player of the Game ... On the first play of the final quarter, he suffered a sprained ankle at the end of a 21-yard run and missed the next three games ... Returned to action against Washington but played sparingly the next few weeks ... Came off the bench at Washington State to lead the Bruins in rushing with 64 yards, including a one-yard TD ... Had an 18-yard run that afternoon ... The following week, he led the Bruins with 132 yards on 19 carries against Arizona State ... In that game, he had five runs of at least 10 yards, including a career-long 43-yarder ... In the season finale against USC, he ran for 47 yards on 14 attempts ... His four-yard touchdown gave the Bruins a 14-0 lead in the first quarter ... Had two double-figure runs against the Trojans ... In the Rose Bowl, he rushed for 67 yards on just eight attempts, averaging over eight yards per carry ... Played in nine of 12 games and started once (Nebraska) ... Offensive winner of UCLA's John Boncheff Jr. Memorial Trophy for Rookie of the Year.

HIGH SCHOOL — Earned three letters in football for coach Jerry Watson at Burkburnett (TX) High School ... Rushed for 1,104 yards on 158 carries in 10 games as a senior in 1992, scoring 19 touchdowns ... Caught 15 passes for an additional 249 yards ... Also had six interceptions as a defensive back ... Gained over 3,600 yards for his career and scored 41 touchdowns ... Honorable mention Scholastic Coach All-American ... Member of the Super Prep All-Southwest squad ... Selected to the North Texas All-Area team three times ... As a senior, he was named first-team all-region and Offensive MVP of the District 5-AAAA ... As a junior, he helped lead his team to the District championship and was named 5-AAAA District Offensive MVP ... Earned Sophomore of the Year honors in District 5-AAAA and honorable mention All-State in 1990 ... Also earned four letters in track and three each in basketball and baseball ... In track, he holds school records in the 100 meters (10.51), long jump (23-3) and triple jump (44-3) ... Placed fourth in the 1992 State meet in the long jump and sixth in the triple jump.

#85 Jim McElroy

Flanker

5-10, 152, Sr.

Los Angeles, CA

Washington HS

UCLA — This fourth-year senior possesses the potential to be a game-breaking performer for the Bruins in 1997 ... Possesses great speed and leaping ability and is especially dangerous when he is streaking downfield for big plays ... Makes the tough reception and has improved on his route running ... Enters his senior year with 54 receptions to rank 25th (tied) on UCLA's career list ... His average of 19.28 yards per reception is the highest in school history among players with at least 50 catches, just ahead of Willie Anderson's 19.27 ... His 48 career kickoff returns rank second on that list, trailing only Brian Brown (66), and he is only the second player to break the 1,000-yard barrier on kickoff returns ... He has 1,158 yards, trailing only Brown's 1,416 ... His average of 24.13 yards per kickoff return is second only to Theotis Brown (25.24) among players with at least 29 career returns ... Missed Spring Practice while sprinting with the Bruin track team and enters Fall camp in competition with Rodney Lee for the starting position.

1996 — McElroy led the team with 527 receiving yards, averaged a team-best 20.3 yards on his 26 catches (second on the team) and 25.1 yards on his 15 kickoff returns — 20th in the NCAA ... McElroy was at his best during the Pac-10 season, making 24 of his 26 receptions in those eight games, including 22 in five of the last six games (he did not make a catch versus Stanford) ... Five of his receptions measured at least 30 yards, including catches of 55, 52, 50 and 46 yards ... Produced 23 first downs with his 26 receptions, including 18 of his final 19 beginning at halftime of the Washington contest ... In the season finale versus USC, he set career highs with eight receptions and 149 yards ... His reception total in that game ranked 11th (tied) in school history while his yardage ranked 14th ... He made a 52-yard reception to set up one touchdown and he had a double-digit catch for a first down on each of UCLA's three fourth-quarter scoring drives ... He also returned three kickoffs for 67 yards ... Against Arizona State, he made two receptions for 105 yards and one touchdown and returned two kickoffs for 52 yards ... His first reception was a 55-yard TD pass which he caught on the 20-yard line and cruised into the end zone ... His second was a 50-yard catch in the fourth quarter to give UCLA the ball on the ASU 30-yard line trailing by one point (UCLA fumbled on the next play) ... At Washington, he made a career-high (at the time) six receptions for 76 yards ... McElroy followed it up with four more catches at California, good for 56 yards ... Against Washington State, he shifted from split end to flanker and made two receptions for 27 yards ... In addition, he threw the second touchdown pass of his career on a reverse option pass, hitting Danny Farmer despite double coverage for a 38-yard touchdown ... He also returned two kickoffs for 66 yards, including a 39-yard return that was UCLA's longest of the year at that point ... At Arizona, he once again flashed his big-play abilities, making receptions of 46 and 32 yards and returned two kickoffs for 80 yards ... His 58-yard return was UCLA's longest of the year and longest since 1990 ... Bothered by back spasms in the 10 days prior to the Tennessee game, McElroy did not return kickoffs and made only two receptions for 36 yards against the Vols and played just nine snaps against Northeast Louisiana ... He did not make a reception at Michigan or at Oregon and returned kickoffs for the first time versus the Ducks ... Started nine games, including the final eight (the last three at flanker), missing against Northeast Louisiana (nine snaps versus Northeast Louisiana and 23 at Michigan ... Played at least 35 snaps nine times, including 48 at California and at Arizona, 45 versus Arizona State and 44 at Tennessee and Oregon.

1995 — Jim concluded his sophomore season ranked fourth on the team with 19 receptions for 403 yards ... His average of 21.2 yards per catch was the highest on the team among players with at least five receptions ... Ranked second on the squad with two touchdown receptions — a 40-yard score against Fresno State and an 11-yard TD versus California ... Made six receptions of at least 45 yards, including a 59-yard catch and run to set up UCLA's second touchdown in the 24-20 victory over USC ... Made a 51- yard reception vs. Washington State, catches of 49 and 46 yards at Arizona State and a 46-yard catch against Arizona ... His 95 yards against Arizona State set a career high ... In the USC contest, he also tossed a 35-yard scoring pass to Kevin Jordan to make the score 21-0 in the second quarter ... Selected co-winner of UCLA's George W. Dickerson Award for Outstanding Offensive Player versus USC ... Made a season-high four receptions against Washington and made at least two catches seven times, including ASU (95 yards), USC (68 yards) and Fresno State (67 yards) ... The team's No. 1 kickoff return man, he ranked fifth in the Pac-10 with his average of 22.7 yards on 19 returns during the regular season ... Including his five returns for 163 yards in the Aloha Bowl, he set UCLA records for kickoff returns (24) and yards (595) and his 24.8 average was the highest by a Bruin since Dokie Williams in 1982 ... His 46-yard return against California was the team's longest of the year ... Also averaged 9.3 yards on three punt returns against Arizona State ... Played in all 12 games and started five, including the final two, while sharing split end duties with Eric Scott.

1994 — Became only the second true freshman since 1973 to catch a touchdown pass when he grabbed a pass over his shoulder in the end zone for a 30-yard score against USC, giving the Bruins a 24-12 lead in the third quarter ... On the year, he made nine receptions for 111 yards and one score ... His TD catch against USC was the longest reception of his career ... Made his varsity debut in game number three against Nebraska and caught two passes for a career-high 32 yards ... His 24-yard catch-and-run on a middle screen set up a third-quarter touchdown run by Karim Abdul-Jabbar ... Set another personal mark with three catches for 22 yards against Oregon State ... Played 20 snaps against Oregon State and 19 each versus the two Washington schools ... Made his first start against the Huskies ... Also contributed on special teams ... Led the Bruins with a 20.7 average on his nine returns ... Had a 40-yard return against Stanford and a 30-yard return versus Oregon State.

#18 CADE MCNOWN

Quarterback

6-1, 211, Jr.

West Linn, OR

West Linn HS

UCLA — The third-year junior burst onto the scene as a true freshman in 1995 and has enjoyed a productive two-year career ... With his understanding of the offensive schemes, he has taken the next step in placing himself among the elite quarterbacks on the West Coast, if not the nation ... He is constantly growing in the position, learning how to beat a team with his arm and his athleticism ... Has improved almost every phase of his game, including reading defenses, pocket presence and throwing accuracy ... Possesses great leadership skills as well as mental and physical toughness ... McNown's 298 career completions rank fifth on UCLA's all-time list, having passed Dennis Dummit in the final game of last season ... His 4,122 career passing yards rank sixth on that list (he passed 1967 Heisman Trophy winner Gary Beban against USC) ... In addition, his 4,491 yards total offense rank sixth on that UCLA career list ... He is the only player in school history to pass for more than 355 yards in a game twice in a career and the only player to account for more than 375 yards total offense on more than one occasion ... UCLA's first lefthanded quarterback since Ernie Case in 1945, he is the only true freshman to start a conference opener at quarterback.
1996 — On the year, McNown completed 176 of 336 passes (52.4%) for 2,424 yards and 12 touchdowns, bettering his 1995 season totals in all of these categories ... Twenty of his completions traveled at least 25 yards ... His 176 completions rank eighth on that season list, his 2,424 yards put him seventh on that list and his 2,482 yards of total offense rank fifth in school history ... McNown saved his best game for the season finale ... Against USC, he completed 29 of 47 passes for 356 yards and one touchdown while rallying the Bruins from a 17-point deficit in the final seven minutes of regulation to a 48-41 double-overtime victory ... His 29 completions tied him for second on UCLA's single-game list, trailing only Troy Aikman, and his 47 attempts tied for third in that category ... Both marks were career highs ... He also ran for two scores and 26 net yards ... In the second half, he completed 16 of 25 for 259 yards and one score ... On the final two scoring drives in regulation, he completed six of his last seven passes (the seventh was a spike to stop the clock) for 73 yards ... He threw a 52-yard touchdown pass to Danny Farmer early in the second half and also threw a 52-yard strike to set up his own 10-yard scoring run late in the third quarter ... His 356 passing yards against USC rank sixth in school history and he is the only Bruin ever to pass for over 355 yards twice in a career (he had 395 versus Arizona State earlier in the year) ... His 382 yards total offense rank fifth in school history and he is the only Bruin to record at least 375 yards of total offense twice in a career ... His 57 offensive plays were one shy of Dennis Dummit's record, set in 1970 against Texas ... Co-winner of UCLA's George W. Dickerson Award for Outstanding Offensive Player vs. USC ... McNown was also impressive in the year's Arizona State game ... He set a career high for passing yardage (395), his completions (22) and attempts (41) were career highs at the time and he tied another career best with three touchdown passes ... His 395 passing yards rank third on that all-time UCLA list, trailing only Tommy Maddox's 409 against USC in 1990 and Steve Bono's 399 versus BYU in 1983 ... His 379 yards total offense ranked fifth at the time (sixth now) on that all-time list ... Against Washington State, he tied his career high with three touchdown passes and completed 16 of 32 passes for 230 yards ... He completed a 52-yard strike to Danny Farmer to set up a touchdown and his screen pass was turned into a 24-yard score by Skip Hicks ... At Arizona, he completed 12 of 28 passes for 205 yards and one score, a 31-yard strike to Danny Farmer ... He also completed passes of 46 and 32 yards to Jim McElroy ... McNown was also impressive in his season debut ... Against No. 2 Tennessee, he completed 16 of 24 passes for 230 yards and one touchdown ... In addition, he scrambled out of trouble several times, grossing 34 rushing yards ... His 88-yard touchdown play to Danny Farmer at Tennessee is the fifth-longest pass play in UCLA history and the longest since Wayne Cook and J.J. Stokes teamed up for a 95 yarder versus Washington in 1993 ... Against NLU, he completed 13 of 20 passes, including 12 of his first 14, for 164 yards, no touchdowns and no interceptions ... Against Michigan, he suffered through his worst game of the season, completing just eight of 27 passes for 39 yards ... He also threw three interceptions, breaking a streak of 97 consecutive attempts without an interception ... At Oregon, he completed 13 of 24 passes for 158 yards and one touchdown ... On third down, he completed all six attempts for 76 yards and four first downs (the other two were double-digit completions but UCLA needed more yardage for first downs ... He also netted 29 yards on the ground, including a key first down on an option play, and his first touchdown of the year ... Three of his runs resulted in first downs and a fourth in the TD ... At California, he completed 10 of 13 second-half passes for 196 yards to finish 16 of 28 for 273 yards and a touchdown pass play to Skip Hicks which covered 63 yards ... Against Stanford, he completed just 14 of 34 passes for 156 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions.

1995 — Only the second UCLA true freshman to start at quarterback against USC (Tom Ramsey was the other in 1979), McNown completed 122 of 245 passes (49.8%) for 1,698 yards and seven scores on the year ... He also ranked second on the squad with 311 yards rushing, the most by a Bruin quarterback since Rick Bashore (317) in 1977 ... His five rushing TDs tied for second in that category ... His 2,009 yards total offense ranked 12th on the UCLA season list (first among true freshmen) while his 122 completions ranked 16th (also first among true freshmen) ... Against USC, McNown led the Bruins to touchdowns on each of UCLA's first three possessions but saved his best for last ... With about two minutes remaining and UCLA protecting a 24-20 lead, McNown faced a third-and-13 at his own 29-yard line ... He kept the ball out of the shotgun, skirted around the right side and ran for 21 yards for the first down that enabled the Bruins to run out the clock ... On the day, he completed 8 of 17 passes for 131 yards, including a 59-yard pass to Jim McElroy to set up UCLA's second TD ... He also rushed for 36 net yards, including that key 21-yard run to clinch the victory ... In the Aloha Bowl, rushed for a career-high 82 net yards on 11 carries and threw a career-best three touchdown passes while completing 13 of 34 passes for 121 yards ... Against Arizona State, McNown completed 13-23 passes for 289 yards (second-highest total of his career) and ran nine times for 37 yards and a pair of touchdowns ... Versus California, he completed 13 of 24 passes for 157 yards and one touchdown (no interceptions) and rushed for 51 yards and one TD on six carries ... At Stanford, he completed 15 of 27 passes for 150 yards and one score ... In addition, he also rushed for 52 yards, including an 11-yard touchdown on UCLA's first series of the second half ... He completed just one of his first five passes, including an interception at his own five-yard line that set up Stanford's first score, but then completed 14 of his last 22 attempts (63.6%) ... In his second career start vs. Fresno, the left-hander connected on 18 of 22 tosses for a school true-freshman record total of 306 yards and one TD ... McNown racked up his record yardage total despite yielding to Ryan Fien with 12 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter of the game ... Versus Oregon (the first start of his career), McNown completed 12 of 24 passes for 183 yards, directed three second-half touchdown drives to help the Bruins rally from a 24-10 halftime deficit to tie the game at 24-all and 31-all ... On UCLA's final possession of the game, he moved the Bruins from their own seven-yard line to the Duck one-yard line in less than one minute but UCLA could not get in the end zone to tie the game ... Selected offensive winner of UCLA's John Boncheff, Jr. Memorial Award for Rookie of the Year.

#69 CHAD OVERHAUSER

Offensive Right Tackle

6-5, 296, Sr.

Sacramento, CA

Rio Americano HS

UCLA — The versatile senior, who is one of the best and most versatile linemen on the West Coast, is a prime candidate for post-season honors in 1997 ... Chad is a consistently outstanding performer, both on the run and the pass ... Can play any of the line positions and has done it in game situations ... A real student of the game, he is a technician who spends many hours on film study ... Works hard in the weight room and that strength is put to good use on the playing field ... The most experienced of the five returning starters on the line and will be expected to provide leadership for this unit ... Enters his senior year with 20 consecutive starts and 30 in the last three years.

1996 — Overhauser played very well throughout the season and was selected first-team All-Pacific-10 by Football News and honorable mention by the league's coaches ... Offensive winner of UCLA's Paul I. Wellman Memorial Award for All-Around Excellence ... Allowed just one sack in 11 games (he missed most of the USC game after reaggravating the ankle he injured at Arizona) and was a major reason the Bruins averaged over 154 yards per contest on the ground ... Started all 11 contests and played at least 45 snaps in each of the first 10, including 84 versus Arizona State, 68 against Stanford, 62 at Oregon, 57 at Washington and 56 against Washington State ... One of the team captains for the Tennessee and California games, Chad played virtually the entire contest each week, starting at right tackle but also seeing some action at guard and center ... Played very well in the opener at Tennessee and was one of the few steady performers at Michigan ... Was even more effective versus Oregon, helping UCLA dominate the Ducks' defensive line in the second half ... He was particularly effective in protecting Cade McNown's blind side while the quarterback threw for 395 yards against Arizona State and was a dominant performer at California and against WSU ... The Cougars entered the game averaging 3.5 sacks per game but got to McNown just once.

1995 — Chad proved to be a valuable member of the offensive line, helping the Bruins at both tackle and guard ... Started 11 of 12 games, including three of the first four at right tackle (the fourth was at right guard) ... Shifted inside to right guard and started the final seven games at his new position and did a fine job ... Helped UCLA rank 20th in the NCAA in rushing offense and average 212.5 yards per game on the ground, its best average since 1986 ... Offensive co-winner of UCLA's Captain Don Brown Memorial Award for Most Improved Player ... Should be one of the leaders of the line in 1996.

1994 — Pencilled in as the No. 2 right tackle a year ago, Chad found himself in the lineup late in the SMU game after Paul Kennedy's season ended with a knee injury ... His 14 snaps against the Mustangs were the first of his career and he was in the starting lineup the following week ... Started eight of the final nine games, missing only against Stanford and handled the situation well while experiencing on-the-job training ... Played virtually every snap, including 76 against Washington State and 72 versus Oregon State ... Also played on special teams.

1993 — Did not see action with the varsity.

HIGH SCHOOL — Earned three letters in football (coach Mike Smith) and two in basketball at Rio Americano High School in Sacramento, CA ... Named a Blue Chips All-American as a senior in 1992 ... Scholastic Coach All-American ... Second-team All-State selection by Cal Hi Sports ... Super Prep and Tom Lemming All-West team member ... Named first-team All-Northern California, All-Metro and all-conference ... Started both ways ... On defense, credited with 55 tackles, eight sacks and three fumble recoveries ... As a junior, he started both ways and was second-team All-NorCal and first-team all-conference ... Started at offensive right tackle as a sophomore ...In basketball, he averaged 19 points and 14 rebounds while leading his team to the playoffs ... Selected team MVP and all-conference ... Played first base and pitcher for the baseball team as a sophomore ... As a senior, he earned Rio Americano's Jack Scott Memorial Award as Most Outstanding Male Athlete ... Graduated with 3.65 grade-point average.

PERSONAL — Full Name: Chad Michael Overhauser ... Born: June 17, 1975 in Sacramento, CA ... Parents: William and Susie Overhauser ... Has one sister (Erika) ... Enjoys all sports ... Earned a spot on the Director's Honor Roll in Winter 1994 with his 3.33 grade-point average and Fall 1995 (3.23) ... Physiological Studies major.

#64 CHRIS RUBIO

Long Snapper

6-1, 265, Sr.

Covina, CA

Charter Oaks HS

UCLA — Now in his fifth season as a member of the squad, Chris enters his senior year prepared for his third campaign as a starter ... Extremely reliable and accurate, he will be working with a new holder and place kicker (Chris Sailer) ... Originally made the team as a non-scholarship player and earned his grant-in-aid in 1995, his first year as a regular.

1996 — Handled the punt and placement duties in all 11 games and his accurate snaps helped Bjorn Merten enjoy an outstanding senior season (14 of 19 field goals and 38 of 40 PATs) ... Also snapped on all but two of the Bruins' 69 punts without a mishap ... An intense special teams performer, he is usually one of the first players downfield on punt coverage.

1995 — Chris earned the long-snapping duties during Spring Practice and handled them without a flaw in all 12 games... Earned scholarship following the opener against Miami.

1994 — Served as the primary backup to Chris Andersen ... Played two snaps against Arizona State.

1993 — Earned a roster spot as a non-scholarship player in his first year at UCLA.

HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered in football under coach Lou Farrar at Charter Oak High in Covina, CA ... As a senior in 1992, his team won the Maramonte League title, and Chris earned first-team All-League and second-team All-Valley acclaim ... Also lettered in track ... Charter Oak's Scholar-Athlete of the Year as a senior in 1992-93 ... Earned Academic all-league honors ... Selected National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete.

PERSONAL — Full name: Christopher Lawrence Rubio ... Born: March 5, 1975 in San Dimas, CA ... Parents: Lawrence and Deborah Rubio ... Lists UCLA's victories over USC as his career highlights ... Enjoys vacationing at the river ... History major.

#45 JEFF RUCKMAN

Right Defensive Tackle

6-2, 264, Sr.

Porterville, CA

Porterville HS

UCLA — Jeff came into his own a year ago, making a major contribution on the defensive line after playing linebacker and fullback earlier in his career ... What he lacks in size, he more than makes up for with tremendous strength and good lateral quickness to provide an anchor at the point of attack ... Very aggressive performer who always plays hard ... Was held out of scrimmage work during Spring Practice to preserve his health ... Switched from fullback to linebacker in the Spring of 1994 and moved to the defensive line in the Spring of 1996.

1996 — In his first season on the line, he started eight games at nose guard, including the opener at Tennessee and the final seven contests of the year ... Accounted for 21 tackles, including two sacks and a third behind the line of scrimmage ... In the opener at Tennessee, he made three stops, including a sack of Peyton Manning, before spraining a knee ... Returned to action against Michigan (game three) moved back into the starting lineup two games later (Arizona State) but was never totally healthy again ... Made a career-high five tackles against California and four in the victory over USC ... Had three tackles, all solos, at Washington and both of his stops against ASU were for losses ... Appeared in 10 of 11 games and played at least 40 snaps in five of the final seven, including 56 against California, 49 versus Arizona State and USC and 48 against Stanford.

1995 — Saw very limited action due to his back problems ... Played eight snaps versus Fresno State.

1994 — Missed the entire season due to back problems and retained his year of eligibility ... Demonstrated during Spring drills that he will be a good collegiate linebacker but did not get the chance to show his skills during the season.

1993 — One of two true freshmen to see action on offense (Skip Hicks was the other), Jeff did a good job after shifting from defense early in Fall camp ... Carried the ball three times for 11 yards and one touchdown — a nine-yard run against BYU ... Also made two receptions for 10 yards, including a nine-yard catch at Washington State ... Appeared in nine of 11 games, playing 31 snaps at Oregon State and 18 versus Nebraska.

HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered three years in football for coach Gary Stoddard at Porterville (CA) High School ... Credited with 144 tackles, including five sacks, three interceptions and four fumble recoveries as a senior in 1992 ... Also gained 760 yards rushing, caught 13 passes and scored 11 touchdowns ... Rushed for almost 2,000 yards and scored 26 touchdowns in his career ... Earned All-West honors from Blue Chips magazine, Super Prep and Tom Lemming ... Honorable mention Scholastic Coach All-American ... Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100 ... Cal-Hi Sports first-team All-State ... First-team All-San Joaquin Valley ... Fresno Bee Defensive All-Star team ... Visalia Times Delta and East Yosemite League Defensive Player of the Year ... As a senior, he was chosen team MVP and school Athlete of the Year ... Named league's Offensive Player of the Year as a junior ... Team power-lifting champion and selected to the MLO-All-Strength team ... Also lettered three seasons in basketball for coach Richard Rankin ... Twice named first-team all-league ... Played on eight league championship teams during his prep career.

PERSONAL — Full Name: Jeffrey Christopher Ruckman ... Born: March 7, 1974 in Long Beach, CA ... His brother (Ryan) was an All-State junior college linebacker ... Patterns his style of play after former Chicago Bear Mike Singletary ... Lists drama as his favorite class ... Earned spot on Director's Honor Roll in Fall 1994 with his 3.00 grade-point average ... Sociology major.

#2 CHRIS SAILER

Punter/Place Kicker

5-10, 190, Jr.

Burbank, CA

Notre Dame HS

UCLA — One of the top punters on the West Coast the past two seasons, Chris figures to be extremely busy this season ... In addition to the punting chores, he will also be performing the place-kicking and kickoff duties ... The last Bruin to handle all three tasks was former NFL star Frank Corral (1977-78) ... Did a fine job at all three during Spring Practice and was seven-for-seven from over 40 yards under pressure ... Enters his junior year with a career punting average of 41.93 yards on 125 kicks, ranking sixth in school history ... Possesses a very strong and accurate leg.

1996 — On the season, he averaged 41.6 yards on his 66 punts and placed 22 inside the 20-yard line with only three touchbacks ... Ten of his punts traveled at least 50 yards ... In the opener versus Tennessee, the third-year junior averaged 41.8 yards on six kicks and pinned the Vols inside their 20-yard line twice ... On three kicks against Northeast Louisiana, he averaged 48.0 and none were returned ... Two kicks were downed inside the 20-yard line, including one at the two-yard line ... Punted nine times at Michigan and averaged 37.6 yards per kick ... At Washington, he averaged 44.6 yards on eight kicks, and twice pinned the Huskies inside the 15-yard line ... At California, Sailer nailed six balls for a 44.8 yard average and a long of 57 and against Stanford, he averaged 41.2 yards on six kicks, including three inside the Cardinal 20-yard line ... Against Washington State, he averaged 43.7 yards on seven kicks, placing four inside the 20-yard line (WSU started possessions at its own two-, eight-, nine- and 11-yard lines following Sailer punts) ... At Arizona, he averaged 43.9 yards on eight punts, placed two inside the 20-yard line and had five returned for a total of 24 yards, a net punting average of 40.9 ... Against USC, he averaged 38.5 yards on four kicks but placed two inside the 20-yard line (12- and 13-yard lines) ... Had just one returned for nine yards.

1995 — Ranked third in the Pac-10 and 17th in the NCAA in punting with his regular-season average of 42.2 yards per kick (42.3 including the Aloha Bowl) ... Averaged a career-best 54.5 yards on two kicks against USC ... Sailer placed 19 of his kicks inside the 20-yard line, including an 81-yard kick that drove Washington State to its own four-yard line ... That was the longest punt by a Bruin in at least 26 years ... On the year, he had 12 kicks of at least 50 yards, including three of at least 60 ... He pinned California at its own one-yard line with a 66-yard kick in the third quarter and averaged 49.0 yards on four kicks ... In his last nine games, he averaged 44.2 yards on 41 kicks (47.7 vs. WSU, 37.0 vs. Fresno State, 43.0 vs. Arizona, 43.0 vs. Stanford, 49.0 vs. California; 42.3 vs. ASU; 40.2 vs. Washington; 54.5 vs. USC; 44.8 vs. Kansas) ... He had 11 kicks of at least 50 yards (three of 60+) and put 14 inside the 20-yard line in those nine games ... One of three winners of UCLA's John Boncheff Jr., Memorial Award for Rookie of the Year.

HIGH SCHOOL — Lettered three years in high school as a punter and place kicker for coach Kevin Rooney at Notre Dame High in Sherman Oaks, CA ... Named 1994 USA Today first-team All-America kicker ... Selected to Blue Chips Illustrated Dream Team and All-America squads ... Super Prep All-West team pick ... Named first-team all-league all three seasons ... Tom Lemming All-American ... Cal-Hi Sports All-State first-team ... Selected Valley Player of the Year by the Los Angeles Daily News ... Set a California state record with 22 field goals (29 attempts) and tied the state mark with 33 career field goals ... Seven of his 1994 field goals measured at least 50 yards, including three-pointers from 58, 57 and 54 yards ... Also converted all 39 PAT's and averaged 44.1 yards per kick as a punter in 1994 ... Helped his team to a 14-0 record and 1994 CIF Division III title ... As a junior in 1993, he converted six of 11 field goal attempts with a long of 48 yards and averaged 42.0 as a punter for CIF championship team ... As a sophomore in 1992, he hit five of 12 field goal attempts with a long of 51 yards and averaged 39.4 as a punter for CIF semifinalist team ... In all, he has made seven field goals of over 50 yards ... Successful on 104 of 108 PAT's for his prep career ... Also an outstanding soccer player, he lettered three seasons for coach Colm McFeely ... Named League MVP, All-CIF, State Player of the Year for 1994 ... Selected All-America by National Soccer Coaches Association and Umbro.

PERSONAL — Full Name: Chris Frank Sailer ... Parents: Hans and Elisabeth Sailer ... Born: January 9, 1977 ... Has one brother (Marc) ... Enjoys skiing in his spare time ... Earned a spot on the Director's Honor Roll in Fall 1995 (3.47 grade-point average), Winter 1996 (3.71), Spring 1996 (3.67), Fall 1996 (3.37) and Winter 1997 (3.10) ... Communication Studies major.

#74 CHAD SAUTER

Offensive Left Guard

6-4, 297, Sr.

Torrance, CA

South HS

UCLA — Chad is one of the more experienced linemen on the team ... A returning starter (11 games), he will battle Dan Cotti for the left guard position throughout the year ... Was hampered by a strained back during the early portion of Spring Practice but came on strong during the latter half of the four-week session ... Runs well, which makes him very effective pulling and blocking downfield ... Has a nice punch on his dropback pass protection.

1996 — Came into his own as a junior, starting all 11 games at left guard ... Played at least 40 snaps in every contest and at least 60 in seven of the last eight games (except Washington), including 84 against Arizona State, 76 at California, 75 versus Stanford and 74 against Washington State.

1995 — Played an important role as a reserve guard ... Saw extensive action in most of the game ... Was hampered by an ankle sprain that limited his playing time during the middle of the season.

1994 — In his first season with the varsity, he saw action as a reserve offensive guard ... Earned quality playing time during mid-year when starters James Christensen and Matt Soenksen were sidelined by injuries ... Started at left guard and played virtually every snap against Washington (65) and California (61) ... Started and played 21 snaps at Arizona State.

1993 — Did not see action in his first year with the program.

HIGH SCHOOL — Played football for coach Don Morrow at South High School in Torrance, CA ... As a senior in 1992, he was selected to the Western 100 by the Tacoma News-Tribune ... Honorable mention Scholastic Coach All-American ... Chosen first-team All-State (medium school) by Cal-Hi Sports ... Named All-CIF first-team on defense ... First-team all-area selection ... First-team all-league on both offense and defense ... Named first-team All-South Bay on defense ... National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete ... Team captain ... Most Outstanding Lineman and MVP on his team ... Had five sacks in the league championship game against North Torrance High ... Also lettered in wrestling under coach Mike Simoneck.

PERSONAL — Full Name: Chad Anthony Sauter ... Born: October 10, 1975 in Torrance, CA ... Parents: Tony and Toni delValle ... Has one brother, Dustin, and one sister, Shannon ... Game 1—September 7, 1996 at Neyland Stadium
Tennessee 35, UCLA 20

KNOXVILLE —The Bob Toledo era began on the road having to face some long odds in Knoxville, TN. Toledo and the Bruins were pitted against the No.2-ranked Volunteers, All-America quarterback Peyton Manning, and the ninth largest crowd in NCAA history, at 106,297, and the most fans to ever witness a UCLA game.

It didn't take long for Toledo to reveal his coaching personality — attempting a double-reverse, a double-reverse pass and a reverse on a kickoff. However, some big plays by the Vols and Manning proved too much to overcome for a hard-working, young Bruin squad which limited the explosive Vol offense to 357 yards but fell by a 35-20 count.

UT scored on an 86-yard punt return, a 53-yard pass and a one-yard Manning run which followed a 48-yard kickoff return. Each tally was following a UCLA score. The Bruins had a few big plays of their own in store. One came as safety Abdul McCullough stole a Manning pass and raced 51 yards for a second quarter score which cut Tennessee's lead to 14-10 at the time.

However, in the end, it was mistakes and too many of them which doomed a game Bruin team. Tennessee took the Bruins best shot and repeatedly had a counter punch at the ready. After McCullough's scoring theft, UCLA surrendered a 48-yard kickoff return to Mark Levine which set up a Manning one-yard sneak just before the intermission and staked Tennessee to a 21-10 halftime lead.

Bjorn Merten's 26-yard field goal, his second of the game, — the other was from a personal best 50-yards out to open the night's scoring — cut the UT advantage to 21-13 in the third quarter. Tennessee was able to answer with an 86-yard punt return by Terry Fair which once again advanced the Vols into a two touchdown lead.

The Bruins would not go away quietly as quarterback Cade McNown had a big play of his own up his sleeve. The sophomore signal-caller found freshman Danny Farmer in between defenders for an 88-yard catch-and-run that narrowed the gap to 28-20 with 9:41 to play in the game.

Once again, right back at you came the Vols. On a third-and-two situation, Manning, after first pump-faking defender Paul Guidry out of the play, lofted an aerial to a wide-open Joey Kent who raced 53 yards to the end zone and put the icing on an Orange and White cake.

"Our kids let it rip," said coach Toledo. "But I don't believe in moral victories. We're not satisfied with losing."

Game 2—September 14, 1996 at Rose Bowl
UCLA 44, NE Louisiana 0

PASADENA—The Bruins ran wild over Northeast Louisiana in the home opener, blanking the Indians 44-0 and handing Bob Toledo his first win as head coach at UCLA. Skip Hicks was the star shining the brightest this night with three-first half scoring runs included in a four-touchdown performance.

Hicks got plenty of help, both from a dominating offensive line and from quarterback Cade McNown who connected on his first six passes of the evening. Durell Price added 110 yards on the ground in 14 carries to become the first true freshman with a 100-yard game since Hicks, who had a pair in 1993 (the second game of his career vs. Nebraska and the 10th game of the season vs. ASU). The two Bruin backs — Hicks finished with 101 yards in 18 rushes — combined to give UCLA a couple of 100-yard runners in a game for the first time since it pasted BYU, 68-14, in 1993.

In addition, Hicks' four rushing touchdown performance marked the seventh time a UCLA back has accomplished that feat and tied the school record (Freeman McNeil - 2 times; Eric Ball - 2 times; Gaston Green and Karim Abdul-Jabbar). The four TD effort also tied the school mark for most touchdowns of any kind in a game (held by the above and Kermit Alexander, Jojo Townsell and J.J. Stokes).

Enough about offense, it was the Bruin defense which deserved the spotlight at game's end. NE Louisiana could manage only six first downs in the first half with UCLA taking over on downs at the nine-yard line to stifle the Indians only real scoring threat of the evening.

It was the first shutout for UCLA since October 3, 1987, when the Bruins won at Stanford, 49-0. Defensive coordinator Rocky Long's troops allowed NLU just 153 total yards in the contest.

Safety Shaun Williams was all over the field. He recorded an eight-yard sack, made an interception to set up one of Hicks' scores, downed a punt at the two-yard line and defensed four passes.

"This was obviously a game in which we could gain some confidence," said Toledo. "On the other hand, I'm proud of the way our guys competed. We want an attitude at UCLA that we'll play from the time the kickoff starts until the final gun sounds."

Game 3—September 28, 1996 at Michigan Stadium Michigan 38 , UCLA 9

ANN ARBOR—The Bruins young offensive unit met more than its match when playing one of the nation's top defenses at the University of Michigan, falling 38-9 before 106,011 fans.

The UCLA offense converted just one of 14 third-down plays on the afternoon. The only touchdown of the day came on a fourth quarter interception return by senior linebacker Phillip Ward. The Bruins got a taste of their own medicine when Michigan's Chris Howard matched Skip Hicks' performance against NLU with a four-TD day of his own against an overwhelmed defense. On the day, the Wolverine offense outgained the Bruins in total yards, 559-170 and had a 25-7 edge in first downs.

The game was scoreless after 15 minutes, but Michigan tallied three touchdowns in the second quarter, two on runs by Howard and added a couple of more Howard scores in the third period to make it 35-3 before Ward's touchdown.

Hicks broke loose for a 49-yard run in the second-quarter to set up the offense's only score, a 25-yard field goal by Bjorn Merten. It proved to be the only effective running play of the day for the Bruins.

Quarterback Cade McNown's numbers were less than impressive as he completed just eight of 27 attempts for 39 yards and three interceptions. Although off-target at times with his passes, McNown was hurt by a number of dropped passes.

Junior linebacker Brian Willmer led the Bruin defenders with a personal-best and team season-high of 15 tackles, including 12 primary stops. In addition to his scoring interception, Phillip Ward also made an earlier theft to stop a UM drive deep in Bruin territory.

"Offensively, we didn't play well," said Toledo. "We couldn't block them. When we had guys open, we didn't hit them. And when we did hit them, they dropped the ball."

Game 4—October 5, 1996 at Eugene, OR
UCLA 41, Oregon 22

EUGENE, OR —The third quarter proved to be a memorable one for the Bruins and especially Skip Hicks in the Bruins' 41-22 win at Oregon in the Pac-10 opener. The junior tailback carried 34 times for a career-best 175 total yards on the night, gaining 153 of the yards in the third quarter. The win marked the first time the Bruins had opened the Pac-10 schedule with a win since the 1990 campaign.

After laboring for 20 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Hicks was a new man in the second half. He carried three times on the Bruins initial drive of the second half, the last one found him in the end zone from two-yards out and gave UCLA a 14-7 lead.

A subsequent drive, this one of 10 plays, saw Hicks carry seven times and resulted in a 46-yard Bjorn Merten field goal. He had the ball on four of the seven plays of the following drive which culminated with a six-yard Cade McNown scoring scamper and handed UCLA a 24-7 lead. Hicks then carried on the lone play of the next drive, outracing the Ducks' defense in a 21-yard dash to the goal line. At quarter's end, he had 153 yards in 19 carries.

"The holes were there, and I was just taking 'em," said Hicks. " I've been waiting a long time for a game like this. It's been frustrating."

Linebackers Phillip Ward and Danjuan Magee paced a tenacious Bruins defense which limited Oregon to just 45 yards on the ground, holding one of the Pac-10's most prolific passers in Perry-Smith to under 230 yards in the air. The longest run the Bruins allowed was nine yards while the defense held the Ducks under 50% in the air and picked off one pass and defensed 10 others. Defensive lineman Darren Cline made the interception and tipped two other passes.

The win marked a triumphant return to the state of Oregon for quarterback Cade McNown, an all-stater at West Linn High; offensive coordinator Alan Borges, who left the Ducks to come to UCLA in the off-season; and defensive coordinator Rocky Long, who joined the Bruins from Oregon State. Of course, coach Bob Toledo, also had past ties to the Duck program, having served as an assistant coach at UO for six seasons.

Game 5—October 12, 1996 at the Rose Bowl
Arizona State 42, UCLA 34

PASADENA— The Bruins let turnovers and All-America quarterback Jake Plummer ruin what had been an inspired opening half of play as fourth-ranked ASU rattled off 21 unanswered fourth quarter points to rally the unbeaten Sun Devils to a 42-34 win.

UCLA had stormed out to a 28-7 first half lead thanks to a near flawless passing attack (McNown hit his first seven balls for 142 yards, ending the half with 244 and three scoring passes), a defense which came to play and a surprise onside kick.

McNown's scoring tosses included a 55-yard catch-and-run to Jim McElroy, a 38-yarder to Derek Ayers and an 11-yard pitch to Tod McBride. On the day, NcNown would throw for 395 yards, the No. 3 performance in school history. Skip Hicks recorded his third 100-yard rushing game of the year, finishing with 114 yards and a pair of scores, his seventh and eighth of the season. All this against an ASU team which had entered the contest as the Pac-10 leader in total defense.

After taking a 28-14 advantage into the locker room, the Bruins hoped to be able to slow down ASU's Jake "the Snake" for a second half of play. However, ASU drove for a touchdown on the first possession following the intermission, with Plummer completing all four of his passes for 73 yards, including a 17-yarder to Keith Poole in the end zone.

A Skip Hicks touchdown run pushed the Bruin advantage back up to two touchdowns, but the margin was just 13 points when Bjorn Merten missed the extra point after a 15-yard penalty turned the conversion attempt into a 35-yard kick.

Now in the fourth quarter, Plummer furthered the ASU comeback with a 23-yard touchdown pass to Kenny Mitchell to make it 34-28 with just over seven minutes to go.

A play later, ASU had the ball on the Bruin 16-yard line thanks to a botched Hicks and McNown handoff. Two plays after that, Plummer had the Sun Devils in the endzone and ahead 35-34, after he was on the receiving end of a halfback option pass.

Two plays after that, backup tailback Durell Price fumbled the ball, and Arizona State took over on its 30-yard line. Plummer's one-yard scoring run culminated a drive which chewed up the balance of the fourth quarter clock and left Bruin fans, coaches and players stunned.

"A win could have taken us a long way," said coach Toledo. "It hurts so bad. But we've got a young football team and hopefully they'll learn from that experience that you can't let games slip away."

Game 6—October 19, 1996 at Husky Stadium
Washington 41, UCLA 21

SEATTLE—In what was billed as a match up of the two leading rushers in the Pac-10 conference, Corey Dillon and 25th-ranked Washington put the wood to Skip Hicks and the Bruins to the tune of 41-21 in a chilly, wind-blown Husky Stadium.

Dillon, who had 503 yards to Hicks' 506 coming into the contest, outrushed his Bruin counterpart by 145 yards to eight and scored five touchdowns in the process, tying the great Hugh McElhenny's 1950 school mark.

The Bruins repeatedly treated the Huskies to great field position as a result of turnovers and big kick returns. Four Dillon first-half touchdowns had the home team up 28-0 over the Bruins at the intermission. The Husky back totaled 21 carries for 95 yards and four scores in just 30 minutes of action.

"Our kicking game gave them great field position most of the day," said coach Bob Toledo. " When you only have to go the short end of the field, you're probably going to win a bunch of games."

The Huskies totaled just 308 yards in total offense but added 118 yards on three kickoff returns and 53 more yards on a pair of punt returns. Of Washington's four touchdown drives in the first half, three began in UCLA territory.

After receiving the second-half kickoff, the Bruins showed their first signs of offensive life. Quarterback Cade McNown's sneak on fourth-and- goal from the Washington one put them on the board following an 80-yard, 12-play drive.

UW answered with the fifth Dillon touchdown of the day to deflate any hopes of a Bruin comeback.

Steve Buck, on in relief of McNown, engineered the first scoring drive of his career when he piloted the Bruins 57 yards in three plays in the late moments of the game. The big play came on a 46-yard aerial to Tod McBride who made a spectacular diving catch.

Buck ended the game as UCLA's leading rusher with 10 yards. Jim McElroy led the receivers with six catches for 76 yards. Linebackers Brian Willmer (12) and Danjuan Magee (10 and one for loss) were each in double digit stops for the Bruin defense.

Game 7—October 26, 1996 at California
UCLA 38, California 29

BERKELEY — Tailback Skip Hicks had a day no other Bruin back has ever had — gaining over 100 yards on the ground and on pass receptions — in leading the Bruins over No. 25 California in Berkeley, before 54,000, by a 38-29 count.

Hicks gained 146 yards on 28 carries and totaled 113 yards on four catches. He found the endzone on four occasions, all in the second half as the Bruins rebounded from a 14-10 halftime deficit to post a big conference road win. "I sensed early on that he was really determined to play well," coach Bob Toledo said. "He was running so hard it was like he was obsessed."

Hicks' scores came on a 34-yard run from scrimmage, an eight-yard run, a 63-yard screen pass and a one-yard plunge which made it 38-21 with 11:08 to play. "I wanted to come out and have fun, no matter what," said Hicks. "All the talk, everything that's happened, just helped me to get ready for the game. It is the most fun I've had since I came to UCLA."

The Bruin defense came through with a big-play performance which allowed it to surrender a lot of yards (514 yards, including a school opponent record 435 in the air), yet still survive. They sacked Cal quarterback Pat Barnes seven times, six in the first half, and forced four turnovers, three in the second half. Cornerback Javelin Guidry, end Travis Kirschke and defensive lineman Weldon Forde each recovered fumbles, while cornerback Andy Colbert added an interception.

Although the Bruins finished with 479 yards, including 275 passing yards from Cade McNown, they didn't seize control until after the half. UCLA took the opening kickoff and went 75 yards on seven plays, the final 34 by Hicks. Five plays after Forde recovered a Colbert-forced Bobby Shaw fumble, Hicks went around the left side and into the endzone from eight yards out to make it 24-14.

After Cal made it 24-21 just before the end of the third quarter, the Bruins got serious. Hicks grabbed a screen pass behind the line of scrimmage, utilized a couple of blocks and sped 63 yards for a score to up the Bruin lead to 31-21 with 13:48 left in the game.

After the kickoff, Colbert intercepted a pass deflected by Glenn Thompkins at the Bears' 20. Five plays later the Bruins sent Hicks over right tackle for the touchdown and a 38-21 advantage which would hold up, despite a last-minute Barnes scoring pass.

Game 8—Nov. 2, 1996 at the Rose Bowl
Stanford 21, UCLA 20

PASADENA— It was not the first time the outcome of a Stanford-UCLA battle had come down to the final minute of a memorable game, but it was a forgettable finish this time for the Bruins who dropped a 21-20 decision on homecoming weekend.

UCLA was caught by the Cardinal with 58 seconds to play in regulation when Chad Hutchinson connected with Brian Manning in the endzone on a 10-yard scoring toss. The deciding point-after was added by Kevin Miller and the Cardinal were poised for the upset.

The Bruins seemingly had time to answer when they took over at their own 22-yard line with 51 seconds to go and three timeouts in reserve. However, quarterback Cade McNown was able to get off only four plays before being forced to hurl a desperation pass which was picked off at the Stanford 24.

McNown had scrambled twice for 12 yards, giving UCLA a first down at the 34 when confusion set in. The clock stopped at 32 seconds while the officials moved the chains, but then started up again with the Bruins lined up and ready to take the snap. Instead of a quick snap, McNown began calling signals while the clock ticked down. However, with 19 seconds left, the Bruins were called for illegal procedure. By the time McNown's pass fell incomplete on the next play just six seconds remained on the clock.

The Bruin defensive unit which had played well also had its problems down the stretch. Stanford had just 14 points and 214 yards prior to the final drive. Hutchinson, who had been sacked five times, suddenly had all day to pick out receivers. He completed seven consecutive passes after the Cardinal took over on their 20-yard line with 5:36 to play and faced just one third down situation.

But on that third down, defensive end Weldon Forde had Stanford running back Mike Mitchell all but wrapped up for what would have been a five-yard loss on a swing pass. However, Mitchell eluded the grasp of the hard-charging Forde and ended up with a four-yard gain and a first down at the UCLA 35. Three plays later the Cardinal were in the end zone.

"Cade obviously didn't play well and we didn't run the ball very well, either," Toledo said. "We weren't sharp, offensively, maybe because they were a team we thought we should beat and maybe because their defense is pretty good. And yet, we were in position to win the game."

On the Bruins' second possession, tailback Skip Hicks scored on a five-yard run which started around the right end and resulted in a score around the opposite end to stake UCLA to a 7-0 lead. The drive was keyed by a "swinging gate" play in which quarterback McNown snapped the ball to wideout Jim McElroy who gained 17 yards. Five subsequent first half possessions went for nought, three ending with punts and two on NcNown interceptions.

The Cardinal, in a preview of events to come, waited until the end of the half to make the big play. With the score tied at 7-7 and just under a minute remaining before intermission, Hutchinson lofted a high sideline pass to Troy Walters who outjumped Glenn Thopmpkins for the ball at the 25-yard line, kept his balance, and raced into the end zone.

The Bruins recaptured the lead in the fourth quarter after a scrambling McNown found freshman tailback Keith Brown for a 37-yard touchdown which when sandwiched by a pair a Bjorn Merten field goals made the score 20-14 with 5:36 to play.

Game 9—November 11, 1996 at the Rose Bowl
UCLA 38, Washington State 14

PASADENA—Just when it was most needed, the Bruins came up with perhaps their best outing of the season in a 38-14 victory over Washington State. With a loss meaning elimination from the bowl game picture, UCLA repsonded by winning the running game, the passing game, the special teams game, the defensive game and most importantly, the ball game on a brutally hot day in the Rose Bowl.

"There was no quit in the Bruins, and for that, I'm extremely proud," coach Toledo said. "We had to try to knock them out of a bowl and see if we can sneak in somehow."

Tailback Skip Hicks totaled 116 yards on the day and scored three touchdowns. He became the first back this season to ease past the 100-yard mark in the process. The trio of scores upped his season mark to 17 and tied him with J.J. Stokes and Gaston Green for the school record. Quarterback Cade McNown completed half of his 32 passes for 230 yards and three touchdowns, two to Hicks.

On the other side of the ball, safety Shaun Williams returned to the lineup after a two-game injury absence to wreak havoc defensively against the pass-happy Cougars. Williams finished with six tackles — one for a 10-yard sack of WSU signal caller Ryan Leaf— and a couple of pass defenses. His play keyed a Bruin defense which limited the Cougars to a season-low 14 points.

That brings us to the Bruin special teams. Punter Chris Sailer nailed his first two kicks of the day and twice pinned WSU inside its eight-yard line. Greg Andrasick booted five of his seven kickoffs into the end zone. UCLA's punt coverage team was not to be outdone and pressured WSU's Jeff Banks into a whiff on a second quarter punt. UCLA recoverd the ball on the Cougars' 28. Six plays later, McNown and Hicks hooked up on a 24-yard scoring toss — their second of the quarter — to give UCLA a 21-7 lead with 4:22 left in the first half.

However, the Bruins were not through. After coming up empty on several gadget plays earlier in the season, coach Toledo came up with a winner this Saturday. Flanker Jim McElroy took a handoff from Hicks, rolled right and connected with split end Danny Farmer on a 38-yard pass play which gave the Bruins a commanding 28-7 advantage midway through the third quarter.

Game 10—Nov. 16, 1996 at Arizona Stadium
Arizona 35, UCLA 17

TUCSON—The Bruins were done in by big plays in their bid for a winning season and a bowl game. Big plays they didn't make and big plays that Arizona did make.

"It was a series of errors," Toledo said. "We didn't perform. We didn't block people. We didn't run. We didn't pass-block. We didn't complete passes. I mean we just didn't execute."

"It just hurts that we lost," said quarterback Cade McNown. "I feel bad, especially for the old guys. Now we just have to knuckle down for the 'SC game and make sure these guys don't leave here with a loss."

The Bruins jumped out to a 14-7 halftime lead thanks to a record-setting Skip Hicks one-yard run and McNown's 31-yard touchdown pass to freshman Danny Farmer. Hicks' scoring scamper was his 18th touchdown of the season, a UCLA record total. It went downhill from there in the second half.

In the third quarter, with the ball on the UCLA 23, McNown dropped back for a quick-out pattern to Farmer. Arizona cornerback Kelly Malveaux stepped in front of Farmer and raced 31 yards for a tying score.

It was just one of the Wildcats' big plays. The next one put the 'Cats in control. Near the end of the third quarter, UA called time with ball on the UCLA 36, facing a fourth and two situation. Quarterback Keith Smith faked a handoff, looked left where his running back was covered and found his tight end Mike Metzler all alone downfield for a touchdown and a 21-14 lead.

UCLA countered with a Bjorn Merten 40-yard boot, which set the stage for the next big play of the day. Chris McAlister, whose father, James, was a Bruin All-American, gathered in Greg Andrasick's kickoff two yards deep in the end zone and raced the distance untouched for a 28-17 lead.

Before it was over, a pair of fumbles had added to the Bruin woes. One by Keith Brown on the Wildcat 18 nipped any chance at a Bruin rally in the bid; and one by McNown on the Bruin 15 that set up Leon Callen's run for the game's final tally.

"Our bowl game is next weekend," linebacker Phillip Ward said. "That's all we've got left to fight for. If that's not big enough motivation, I don't know what is. Especially after this kind of loss."

Game 11—November 23, 1996 at the Rose Bowl
UCLA 48, USC 41

PASADENA—Do you believe in miracles? Now you do, after the Bruins rallied from a 17-point, fourth quarter deficit to secure their sixth straight win in the city-series, 48-41, in overtime, before 80,644 spectators in the Rose Bowl.

After the teams traded field goals in the first overtime period, Skip Hicks scored the game-winner on a 25-yard run in which he broke several Trojan tackles on the first play of the second overtime period. UCLA clinched the win when Anthony Cobbs intercepted a fourth-down pass in the end zone and the four-hour, 23-minute battle was over and once again a blue-and-gold celebration was on.

USC dominated the game for three quarters like UCLA had for the previous five seasons — forcing turnovers and making the big play on offense. The Trojans marched out to a 17-0 lead in the first 21 minutes of the game and led 31-21 entering the fourth quarter and 38-21 after R. Jay Soward streaked down the right sideline on his way to a 78-yard scoring play with 11:06 to play in the game

Down by 17 points, the Bruins went 47 yards on 12 plays to narrow the deficit to 38-24 on a 47-yard field goal by Bjorn Merten with 6:12 remaining. The Bruins quickly got the ball back after pinning USC against its own goal-line and forcing a short punt. Nine plays and 41 yards later freshman Keith Brown scored from the one-yard line to slice the margin to 38-31 at the 2:49 mark.

The ensuing onside kick was recovered by USC on its 46 and two plays later the Trojans had a first and ten at the Bruin 41 with less than two minutes to play. However, on the next play, junior linebacker Danjuan Magee reached in and hit running back LaVale Woods as he was about to break away from the pack, forcing a fumble that senior cornerback Kusanti Abdul-Salaam recovered and returned to the Bruin 44. UCLA had 1:27 on the clock and a single timeout left to go 56 yards, trailing 38-31.

Quarterback Cade McNown began the drive by connecting with Jim McElroy for 17 yards and three plays later lofted a 23-yarder to Rodney Lee who made a spectacular diving grab at the USC 11. On the next play, Skip Hicks found the end zone on a burst up the middle. The game was tied when Merten sent the extra point through the uprights and 39 seconds showed on the clock.

USC had one last chance to win the game in regulation after a 39-yard pass play and a pass interference penalty put the ball at the UCLA 23. But Adam Abrams' 40-yard field goal attempt sailed into the Bruin line and it was on to overtime for the first time in the 66-game series.

Perhaps senior safety Abdul McCullough summed it up the best —"This is beyond unreal. If I was writing screenplays for Hollywood, I couldn't have written one as good as this.It's the most amazing game I've ever been involved in."

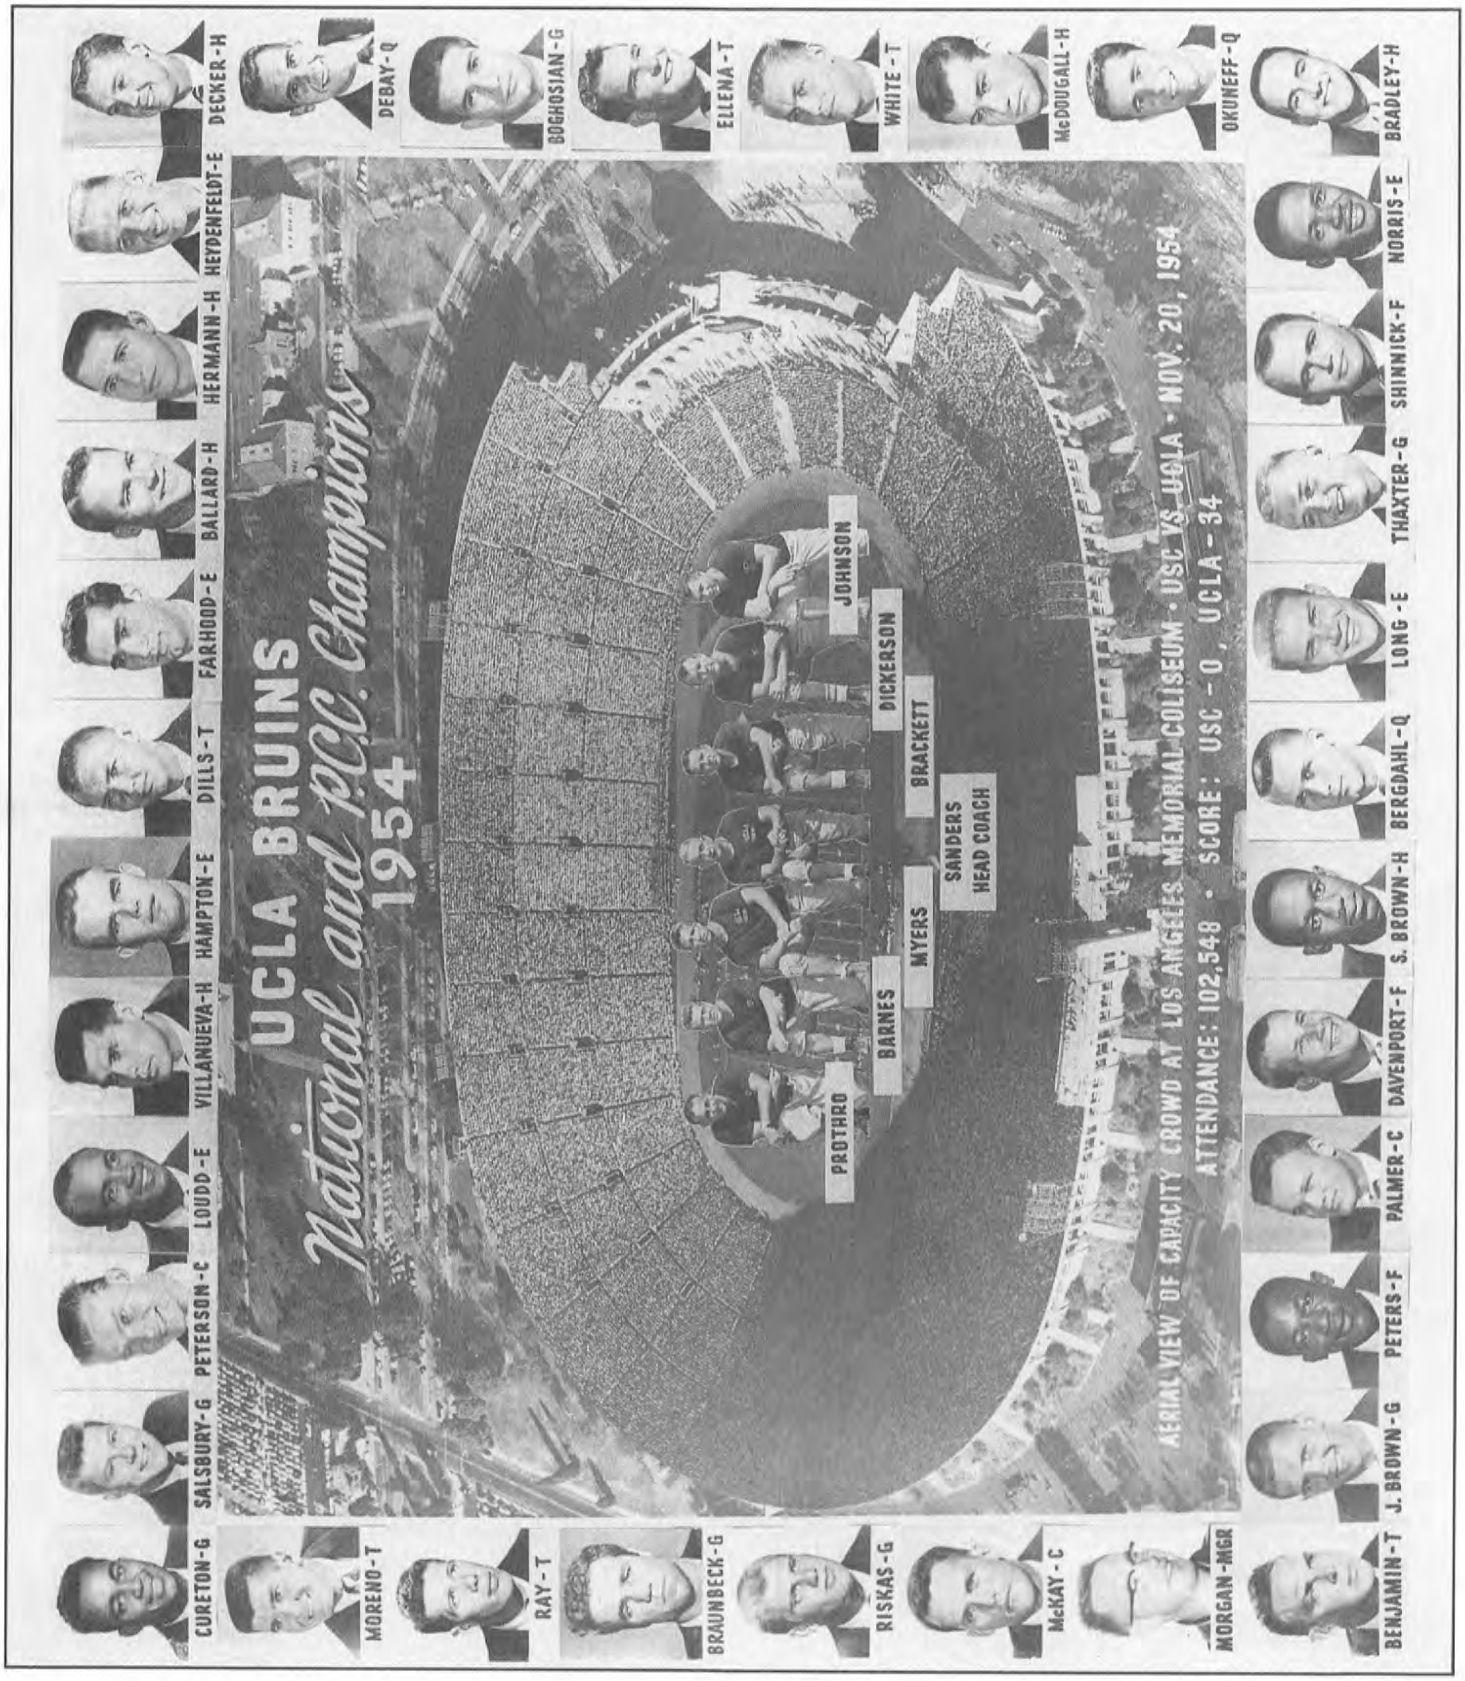
UCLA FOOTBALL HISTORY



Forty-three years ago, UCLA fielded the finest football team in the school's history. The 1954 Bruins compiled a perfect 9-0 record and, at the end of the season, were voted National Champions by United Press International.

Most of the key players from the 1953 Bruins, who were 8-2, returned in 1954, led by legendary head coach Henry R. "Red" Sanders. During his nine seasons in Westwood, Sanders' winning percentage was .773 and he won three Pacific Coast Conference titles.

Tommy Prothro, who would later become head coach at UCLA after a successful stint at Oregon State, was a key assistant coach on this team. Prothro, who was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1991, passed away May 14, 1995.

The Bruins opened the 1954 season on Sept. 18 with a 67-0 victory over San Diego Navy at the Coliseum. The point total was the highest in school history at the time. The following week, the Bruins improved to 2-0 with a 32-7 victory at Kansas.

On Friday night, Oct. 1, amid much pre-game hype, defending national champion Maryland invaded the Coliseum. Playing in front of 73,376 fans, Bob Davenport rushed for 87 yards and both touchdowns in a 12-7 Bruin victory.

The next week, UCLA received its sternest test of the year. Playing Washington in Seattle, UCLA built a 21-0 lead. The Husky passing attack brought the home team within striking distance and a missed PAT was the difference in a 21-20 Bruin win.

Stanford was next on the hit parade and the Indians were hit often. The Bruins rushed for 418 yards and threw for 59 more. Defensively, they intercepted quarterback John Brodie eight times. UCLA scored early and often en route to a 72-0 win and a victory margin that is still the school record.

The carnage continued the following week as the Bruins won 61-0 at Oregon State. UCLA accounted for 593 yards total offense, including 498 on the ground.

The following week, California scored the only touchdown UCLA's defense allowed in the season's final five games, but it wasn't nearly enough. The Bruins won 27-6 in Berkeley behind 121 yards rushing and 120 yards passing by Primo Villanueva.

The Bruins improved to 8-0 the following week, shutting out Oregon, 41-0 in the Coliseum.

On Nov. 20, the Bruins faced USC before 102,548 fans in the sold out Coliseum. UCLA held a 7-0 lead entering the fourth quarter and exploded for 27 points in the final 15 minutes to finish the season with a perfect 9-0 record.

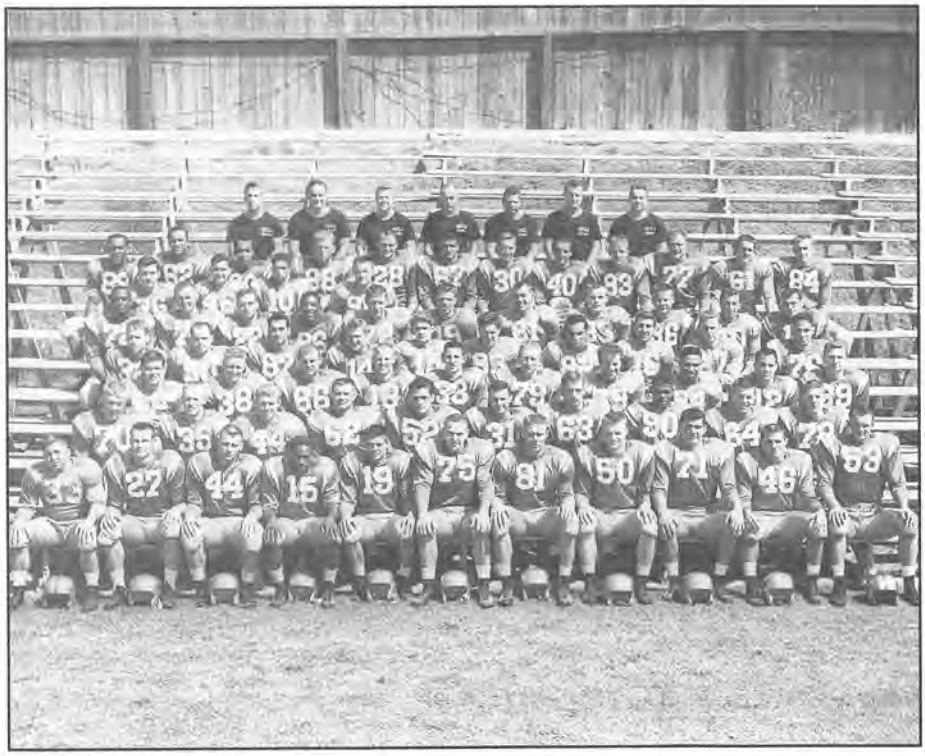
UCLA did not play in the Rose Bowl following that magical season because of the "no-repeat" rule. It was voted No. 1 on the United Press International poll and shared the national championship with Ohio State (AP).

The 1954 team set numerous records, including points in a season (367), points in a game (72) and touchdowns in a season (55). It led the nation in scoring offense (40.8 average) and scoring defense (4.4 average). Today, it still ranks No. 1 in school history in rushing defense (659 yards), total defense (1,708 yards) and scoring defense (40 points) while its 40.8 scoring average ranks second in school history.

Jack Ellena, Jim Salsbury, Bob Davenport and Primo Villanueva all earned first-team All-America honors, as well as All-Coast and All-PCC acclaim. Eight other Bruins were named All-America honorable mention, including Sam Boghosian, who earned Academic All-America acclaim and was first-team All-Coast.

Other AA honorable mentions included Hardiman Cureton (All-Coast and All-PCC second team), John Peterson (All-Coast second team), Bob Heydenfeldt (All-Coast second team), Jim Decker (All-PCC second team), Joe Ray (All-Coast and All-PCC second team), Terry Debay (second-team Academic All-American), and Rommie Loudd. Bob Long was selected second-team All-Coast and All-PCC while Gil Moreno and Warner Benjamin earned All-Coast honorable mention.

Decker led the team and ranked fifth in the PCC in rushing with 508 yards, followed by Villanueva with 486 and Davenport with 479. Villanueva passed for 400 yards and five touchdowns to lead the team while Davenport led the PCC in scoring with 11 touchdowns and Sam Brown led the league in punt returns (26.2 average and three touchdowns) and Heydenfeldt ranked second in punting (39.9).



ALL-AMERICAN BRUINS

Here is UCLA's list of 67 first-team All-American selections (60 players), headed by three-time consensus choices Jerry Robinson and Kenny Easley. Robinson (1976-77-78), an inside linebacker, and Easley (1978-79-80), a free safety, are the only three-time consensus All-Americans in Pacific-10 Conference history.

The list also includes 1967 Heisman Trophy winner Gary Beban, 1988 Davey O'Brien Award winner Troy Aikman, 1995 Outland Trophy winner Jonathan Ogden and two-time All-Americans Donn Moomaw, Bob Davenport and John Lee.

January 1, 1943 — Rose Bowl
Georgia 9, UCLA 0

UCLA's first ever bowl appearance did not end on a successful note, as the No. 1-ranked Bulldogs defeated the Bruins, 9-0. UCLA, playing one of its best games of the season, held the Bulldogs scoreless for three quarters. However, the powerful Georgia defense held the Bruins without any points as well. On the first play of the fourth quarter, Georgia's Red Boyd blocked Bob Waterfield's punt deep in the end zone. The ball went flying over the end zone for a safety. Georgia added a touchdown following a Waterfield interception when Frankie Sinkwich powered over from the one-yard line.

Scoring

Georgia	0	0	0	9	—	9
UCLA	0	0	0	0	—	0

Scoring: G—Red Boyd blocks Bob Waterfield's punt for an automatic safety and two points. Frankie Sinkwich scores from one-yard line. Leo Costa converts.

Illinois 45, UCLA 14

The Bruins scored their first ever post-season points when quarterback Ernie Case scored on a 1 1/2-yard sneak to give the Bruins a slim 7-6 first-quarter lead. However, it was the Illini who tallied quickly and often, outscoring UCLA 39-7 from that point en route to a 45-14 victory. Illinois dominated the Bruins on the ground, compiling 320 yards to the Bruins 62. UCLA's Al Hoisch returned Illinois kicker Don Maechtle's kickoff 103 yards, establishing a Rose Bowl record which still stands today.

Michigan State 28, UCLA 20

UCLA completely dominated the first half of the game, but a missed blocking assignment allowed Spartan Ellis Duckett to block a Paul Cameron kick and score from the Bruin six-yard line. The Bruins left the field at halftime having allowed Michigan State only one completed pass, for a seven-yard loss, and a net gain of 56 total yards. However the Bruins were only up by seven, 14-7. Michigan State outscored the Bruins 14-0 in the third quarter to grab a 21-14 lead. Bruin quarterback Paul Cameron was outstanding as he led a UCLA drive in the fourth quarter. Having already passed and run for touchdowns, Cameron passed 28 yards to Rommie Loudd who made a great leaping catch. The reception pulled the Bruins to within one point, 21-20. UCLA failed on its conversion attempt, leaving the Spartans clinging to a one-point lead. Bruin hopes of regaining the lead were thwarted when Billy Wells returned a punt 62 yards for a touchdown.

David Kaiser's field goal with seven seconds remaining provided a sensational finish to a spectacular game as the Spartans earned a 17-14 decision over UCLA. The Bruins scored first when fullback Bob Davenport scored from the two-yard line four plays after Jim Decker picked off an Earl Morral pass. Michigan State scored the next two touchdowns but the Bruins tied the score at 14 in the fourth quarter when Doug Peters dove over from the one-yard line. With time running out in the game, UCLA was called for an intentional grounding infraction which pushed the ball back to its own one-yard line. A poor punt gave the Spartans the ball at the UCLA 40. However, the Bruins were cited for interference with the kick returner and the Spartans received the ball at the Bruin 19, setting up Kaiser's game-winning 41-yard field goal.

With 16 players returning from their 1961 Rose Bowl loss, the Golden Gophers were primed and ready for the 1962 renewal, and they used that experience to defeat the Bruins, 21-3. The Bruins opened the scoring in the first quarter when Bobby Smith kicked a 28-yard field goal. However, that was all the offense the Bruins could muster and Minnesota scored touchdowns in the first, second, and fourth quarters.

January 1, 1966 — Rose Bowl
UCLA 14, Michigan State 12

UCLA earned its first Rose Bowl victory by upsetting No. 1-ranked, 10-0 Michigan State. UCLA took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter on a one-yard touchdown by quarterback Gary Beban. A successful onside kick recovered by Dallas Grider, a 21-yard run by Mel Farr and a 20-yard pass from Beban to Kurt Altenberg gave the Bruins the ball at the one-yard line. On the next play, with 11:50 left in the first half, Beban sneaked for a touchdown to stake the upstart Bruins to a 14-0 halftime lead. Michigan State finally got on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter when Bob Apisa scored on a 38-yard run but the Spartans failed on a two-point attempt. Later in the quarter, Steve Juday scored from the one but defensive back Bob Stiles made a game-saving tackle on the two-point conversion attempt.

January 1, 1976 — Rose Bowl
UCLA 23, Ohio State 10

On Jan. 1, 1976, the Bruins returned to Pasadena to take on Woody Hayes' Ohio State Buckeyes and two-time Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin. During a first half in which Ohio State had the ball for 20 of the 24 minutes, kicker Tom Klaban provided the only points with a second-quarter field goal, giving the Buckeyes a 3-0 halftime lead. The Bruins tied the game early in the third quarter on a 33-yard field goal by Brett White. On UCLA's next possession, John Sciarra and Wally Henry teammed on a 16-yard touchdown. Late in the third quarter, Sciarra and Henry combined for a 67-yard touchdown play. OSU's Pete Johnson countered with a three-yard touchdown but Wendell Tyler, who rushed for 172 yards, countered with a 54-yard touchdown. Sciarra was named Rose Bowl MVP for completing 13-of-19 passes for 212 yards and two touchdowns.

December 20, 1976 — Liberty Bowl
Alabama 36, UCLA 6

The 1976 Liberty Bowl marked the first time the Bruins participated in a bowl game other than the Rose Bowl but they were soundly defeated by 'Bear' Bryant's Crimson Tide. Alabama took control from the outset, scoring 17 first quarter points on a Bruin defense that only allowed 23 first stanza tallies all year. Alabama added a touchdown in the second quarter and a field goal in the third and fourth to lead 30-0 before the Bruins could get on the scoreboard. The lone bright spot for the Bruins was a 61-yard touchdown run by running back Theotis Brown.

December 31, 1981 — Bluebonnet Bowl
Michigan 33, UCLA 14

In what would be their last bowl defeat for over a decade, UCLA was held to 33 yards rushing in the 33-14 loss to Michigan. Despite its inability to move the ball, UCLA trailed only 19-14 midway through the final period. Michigan scored two touchdowns in the final five minutes, including one with just eight seconds remaining in the game to produce the deceptively large final margin. With 7:37 remaining in the contest, the Bruins closed to within 19-14 when Tom Ramsey threw his second touchdown pass of the game and 16th of the year, this one covering nine yards to Tim Wrightman. The Bruins couldn't get any closer and the Wolverines scored the final two touchdowns of the contest.

The Bruins began their record-setting bowl streak by defeating the Michigan Wolverines, 24-10, in the 1983 Rose Bowl. Earlier in the year, the two teams had played in Ann Arbor and the Bruins had rallied from a 21-0 second-quarter deficit for a 31-27 victory. UCLA, 9-1-1 during the regular season, outscored the Wolverines 10-0 in the first half on Tom Ramsey's one-yard touchdown and John Lee's 39-yard field goal. Michigan closed the gap to three points early in the third quarter but Danny Andrews countered with a nine-yard touchdown run and the Bruins put the game out of reach with just over eight minutes remaining when Blanchard Montgomery intercepted a pass and returned it 11 yards to make the score 24-7. Ramsey was voted Player of the Game, completing 18 of 25 passes for 162 yards.

UCLA won its fourth straight Rose Bowl, upsetting highly-favored 10-1 Illinois. Quarterback Rick Neuheisel, who was ill the previous night, was the star, completing 22 of 31 passes for 298 yards and four touchdowns. Don Rogers' interception 43 seconds into the game led Neuheisel's first TD pass, a 10-yarder to Paul Bergmann. After an Illini field goal made the score 7-3, UCLA scored 21 points in the next eight minutes. Kevin Nelson ran 28 yards for a score, Neuheisel found Karl Dorrell with an 11-yard TD pass following another Rogers interception and Mike Young's 53-yard touchdown reception made it 28-3 at intermission. Neuheisel tossed another touchdown pass to Dorrell in the second half and the Bruins added one more touchdown (Bryan Wiley's eight-yard run) to make the final score 45-9.

January 1, 1985 — Fiesta Bowl
UCLA 39, Miami (FL) 37

UCLA rallied from a fourth-quarter deficit to earn its third consecutive New Year's Day victory, defeating Miami 39-37, in the Fiesta Bowl. Tailback Gaston Green, in his first career start, rushed for 144 yards and scored two touchdowns and was named Offensive Player of the Game. James Washington intercepted his fifth pass of the year to earn Defensive Player of the Game honors. With Miami leading 21-7 in the second quarter, Green's 72-yard run and two John Lee field goals gave UCLA a 22-21 halftime lead. Miami rallied, taking a 37-36 lead with 2:58 remaining but Steve Bono moved the Bruins down the field and Lee kicked a 22-yard field goal for the winning points. Miami mounted one last charge but Terry Tumey sacked Bernie Kosar to seal the win.

January 1, 1986 — Rose Bowl
UCLA 45, Iowa 28

Redshirt freshman Eric Ball rushed for 227 yards, the second highest total in Rose Bowl annals, and four touchdowns to lead UCLA to a 45-28 victory, its fourth in as many years on New Year's Day. The tailback was not the only star of the day. Junior quarterback Matt Stevens, starting in place of injured David Norrie, completed 16 of 26 passes for 189 yards and one touchdown and scored UCLA's last TD on a fourth-quarter sneak. James Washington, Tommy Taylor and Ken Norton, with 10 tackles each, led a Bruin defense that limited the Hawkeyes to 13 points during a 45-minute span in which the Bruin offense was scoring 45 points.

December 30, 1986 — Freedom Bowl
UCLA 31, Brigham Young 10

For the fifth consecutive year, UCLA capped a successful campaign with a post-season victory, defeating BYU, 31-10. Tailback Gaston Green had a record-setting performance against the Cougars and the Bruin defense held BYU without a touchdown until just under two minutes remained in the contest. Green scored three touchdowns and passed for a fourth en route to setting a major-bowl record with 266 net yards rushing. By the end of the third quarter, he had already rushed for 262 yards and three scores. UCLA led just 7-3 at halftime but the Bruins broke the game open with 17 third-quarter points.

UCLA became only the fifth school in college football history to win six consecutive bowl games with its 20-16 triumph over Florida in the Aloha Bowl. Florida built a 10-3 lead in the second quarter but the Bruins mounted an 81-yard drive over the final four minutes which resulted in Brian Brown's one-yard TD run with three seconds remaining in the half. The Bruins took the lead for good with 1:18 remaining in the third quarter as tailback Danny Thompson grabbed a tipped pass in the end zone for a 17-10 lead. Velasco's second field goal of the contest made the score 20-10 but Kerwin Bell's second touchdown pass of the day, a 14-yarder to Anthony Williams with 7:51 remaining, closed the gap to four points, 20-16.

UCLA's Bowl Tradition

January 2, 1989 — Cotton Bowl
UCLA 17, Arkansas 3

UCLA became the first school in college football history to win seven consecutive bowl games with its 17-3 triumph over Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl. In addition, Terry Donahue became the first coach in history to accomplish that feat. UCLA built a 14-0 halftime lead on a one-yard run by Mark Estwick and Troy Aikman's one-yard pass to Corwin Anthony. Arkansas got on the board late in the third quarter when Kendall Trainor kicked a 49-yard field goal but UCLA's Alfredo Velasco countered with a 32-yard three-pointer with just under six minutes remaining in the game. UCLA held Arkansas to just 42 net yards and four first downs on 36 plays. Tailback Shawn Wills became the first freshman in the history of the Cotton Bowl to rush for over 100 yards (120).

December 31, 1991 — John Hancock Bowl
UCLA 6, Illinois 3

UCLA increased its record of consecutive bowl victories to eight with a 6-3 victory over Illinois in the John Hancock Bowl. UCLA took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 32-yard Louis Perez field goal, after Michael Williams blocked a punt by Illinois' Forrey Wells. Illinois tied the score in the third quarter on a 27-yard field goal by Chris Richardson. The game remained tied until the fourth quarter, when the Bruin special teams unit came through again, with senior Randy Cole recovering a fumbled punt by Filmel Johnson on the Illini 11-yard line to set up a 19-yard field goal by Perez. The Illini took the ensuing kickoff and drove all the way to the UCLA 29, but were stopped when senior linebacker Stacy Argo intercepted a Jason Verduzco pass and returned it to the UCLA 34. Linebacker Arnold Ale, who made a first-quarter goal-line interception, was named the game's MVP.

UCLA was playing in its 10th bowl in 13 seasons but despite a record-setting performance by receiver J.J. Stokes, the Bruins were unable to pull out a victory against the Big 10 champion Badgers. Putting the finishing touches on his All-American season, Stokes set Rose Bowl records for receptions (14) and receiving yards (176) in the Bruins' losing effort. Playing only days after a serious bout with the flu which caused him to miss three practices on game week, UCLA quarterback Wayne Cook passed for 288 yards while completing 28 passes, the third-highest total in school history. UCLA trailed most of the game but pulled to within five points with 3:38 remaining in the game. On its next possession, UCLA moved from its own 38-yard line to the Badger 15-yard line as the clock ticked away the final seconds.

December 25, 1995 — Aloha Bowl
Kansas 51, UCLA 30

It was Terry Donahue's final game as head coach of the Bruins, but Kansas dominated it from the start. The Jayhawks, moving the ball on the ground and in the air, built a 17-0 halftime lead en route to the victory. Early in the third quarter, Kansas built the lead to 23 points. The Bruins came back to put numbers on the scoreboard. A Cade McNown touchdown pass to Brad Melsby capped a 10-play, 80 yard drive that tightened the Kansas lead to 23-7. Trailing 37-7 entering the fourth squarter, the Bruins staged a fourth-quarter rally that made things interesting. Behind the passing and scrambling of McNown, the Bruins scored 23 points in the quarter but it wasn't enough to avert defeat.

(21-point deficit in the second quarter) In what many have deemed the greatest comeback in UCLA history, the Bruins rallied from a 21-point second quarter deficit to best Bo Schembechler's 20th-ranked Wolverines, 31-27, in front of over 105,000 shocked Michigan fans who had seen their team lose at Notre Dame the week before. Senior Tom Ramsey thrust himself into the national spotlight with a truly All-American performance, completing 22 of 36 passes for 311 yards and two touchdowns in leading UCLA to its first win ever over the Wolverines.

Trailing 7-0 after one period, the 12th-ranked Bruins nearly saw the game slip away early in the second quarter. Quarterback Steve Smith's six-yard run gave Michigan a 14-0 lead and after the Wolverines blocked a Bruin punt and took possession on the UCLA seven, Smith's five-yard pass to Anthony Carter made the score 21-0 with 12:57 remaining in the second quarter.

However, on the next series, UCLA converted two key fourth-down plays to keep the drive alive. Facing a third-and-25 situation on the UM 46-yard line, Ramsey saw Dokie Williams streaking down the sideline, hit him in stride at the three-yard line and the speedster scored to give UCLA its first touchdown at the 4:34 mark of the second quarter to culminate an 80-yard drive.

After the Bruins stopped Michigan on its next series. Ramsey passed for a couple of first downs and then hit JoJo Townsell on a spectacular 25-yard pass play to set up a one-yard quarterback sneak that narrowed the gap to 21-14 with 2:34 to play in the first half. Michigan ended the first half with a field goal to make the score 24-17 at the intermission.

An interception by Don Rogers on the second play of the second half gave the Bruins the ball on the Michigan 22-yard line for their first possession of the half. Ramsey connected on a six-yard touchdown pass to Townsell to make it 24-21. Another Michigan field goal pushed the UM advantage up to 27-21 with 4:32 remaining in the third quarter. Williams returned the ensuing kickoff 65 yards and the Bruins took it in from there on a two-yard run by Kevin Nelson. John Lee's conversion put the Bruins in the lead at 28-27 with 2:50 to play in the third quarter.

Interceptions by Danny Lauter and Neal Dellocono helped stifle the UM's attempted rally. Lee followed up with a 26-yard field goal with 11:46 to go in the contest. Neither team could put any additional points on the board, but a fumbled pitch from Ramsey to fullback Frank Cephous gave Michigan one last chance with 1:05 to play. UM took over on its own 48-yard line and managed to squeeze 12 plays into their final series, but could not score and the final gun sounded with the Wolverines at the Bruin eight-yard line.

Sept. 14, 1985 - UCLA 26, Tennessee 26 at Neyland Stadium, Knoxville, TN

(16-point deficit in fourth quarter) Senior quarterback David Norrie led the Bruins in a come-from-behind fourth quarter rally to tie Tennessee at 26-all. With the Bruins trailing 26-10 with 11:57 to play in the fourth quarter, Norrie entered the game to replace starter Matt Stevens and direct the game-tying drives. However, Tennessee intercepted Norrie on his first series under center, the fourth pick by UT in the game.

With 4:46 left in the final quarter, Norrie hit senior flanker Al Wilson with an eight-yard scoring pass to culminate a 97-yard drive. The key play was a 44-yard aerial to wide receiver Mike Sherrard on a third-and-ten play from the three-yard line. Norrie then passed to senior tight end Jeff Nowinski for the two-point conversion and the Bruins trailed by eight, at 26-18. It was Nowinski's first-ever reception. Tennessee punted the ball with 1:43 to play. Starting from the Bruin 27, Norrie engineered another scoring drive. With just 37 seconds remaining, he passed 25 yards to sophomore split end Flipper Anderson for a score. It was also a first career catch for Anderson. Sophomore tailback Gaston Green then swept around the right end for the game-tying two point conversion.

Oct. 11, 1986 - UCLA 32, Arizona 25 at Rose Bowl, Pasadena, CA

(18-0 deficit at halftime) UCLA staged one of its biggest second-half comebacks in besting ninth-ranked Arizona, 32-25, in the Rose Bowl. The Bruins went to the lockerroom at the half down 18-0 to the unbeaten Wildcats. An interception, two blocked punts and a safety contributed to the 'Cats first half 18-point advantage.

The Bruin rally started in the third quarter when free safety James Washington intercepted Arizona quarterback Alfred Jenkins' pass at the UCLA 46-yard line. Hit just moments after the interception, the ball popped out of Washington's grasp and into the arms of cornerback Darryl Henley, who raced 54 yards for the touchdown with 12:39 remaining in the third quarter.

UCLA still trailed 18-7 at the start of the final quarter of action. David Franey kicked a 29-yard field goal less than a minute into the quarter to make it 18-10. Quarterback Matt Stevens then hooked up with Paco Craig on a 78-yard scoring pass and run to make the score 18-16 after the two-point conversion attempt failed with 10:29 to go. Tailback Gaston Green raced nine yards for the go-ahead score with 5:36 to play and Stevens hit fullback Marcus Greenwood for a two-point conversion to put the Bruins in the lead at 24-18. Arizona answered with a 72-yard, eight-play scoring drive of its own and took a 25-24 lead at the 3:27 mark on a halfback pass.

UCLA took over with 3:22 on the clock and drove 77 yards in nine plays to score the winning touchdown with just 0:41 seconds left. Stevens completed five of six passes on the drive for 60 yards and Gaston Green scored on a 32-yard burst down the left sideline, breaking three tackles along the way.

(16-point deficit in fourth quarter) The Bruins stormed back after trailing by 16 points with fewer than 12 minutes to play to tie Arizona State at 26. Determined running by Kevin Nelson and Danny Andrews combined with the pinpoint passing of Rick Neuheisel keyed the comeback.

Down 26-10, UCLA drove 80 yards in 13 plays, Neuheisel hitting Karl Dorrell on a fourth-and-goal pass from the seven for the score. Nelson then swept the right side on the conversion run to make it a 26-18 ballgame with 8:07 to go. However, on ASU's second play following the ensuing kickoff, strong safety Joe Gasser picked off a Sun Devil pass and gave the Bruins new life and the ball at their own 47. Eight plays later, Mike Young hauled in a Neuheisel toss on a third-and-four from the 19, twisted away from a would-be tackler and danced into the end zone to cut the ASU lead to 26-24 with 1:36 on the clock. After an ASU holding penalty on the first try for the two-point conversion, Nelson ran it in for the tying points.

(20-point deficit at halftime) UCLA spotted Cal a 20-0 lead before the Bruins rallied behind backup quarterback Bernard Quarles and running back Freeman McNeil. Three Bruin fumbles helped to stake Cal to the early lead before the Homecoming crowd in the Coliseum and set the stage for Quarles. The redshirt freshman quarterback entered the game with 13 minutes left in the half and the Bruins down by 20. Quarles went on to rush for 80 yards and completed eight of 13 passes for 103 yards on the night.

Shortly after Quarles replaced starter Rick Bashore, McNeil broke free for a 13-yard scoring run at the 6:12 mark of the second quarter, following a 31-yard punt return by Kenny Easley. Cal made it 27-7 by finding the end zone in the final seconds of the first half and the Bruins entered the locker room once again down by 20.

Five minutes into the second half, the Bruins closed to 27-14 on a 14-yard burst by McNeil. The comeback continued seven minutes later as McNeil cracked over from the one, slicing the Bears' margin to 27-21 with 2:49 remaining in the third quarter. The Bruins' junior tailback was not through. McNeil scored the tying points on another one-yard run and Peter Boermeester added the winner to culminate a 59-yard march with 5:09 remaining in the game. Linebacker Scott Stauch had set up the winning drive with an interception. On Cal's next two possessions, Stauch forced a fumble and Mike Barbee recorded a quarterback sack and fumble.

(13-point deficit in third quarter) For 57 minutes UCLA was on the short end of the score, in fact, the Bruins were on the verge of being shut out, after scoring in 139 straight games prior to this one. Cal's blitzing defense, led by All-American linebacker Ron Rivera, sacked Rick Neuheisel five times and forced two turnovers and three punts in the Bruins six first-half possessions.

After the Bruins' first drive of the second half stalled, the Bears' marched down the field to a 13-0 lead when Gale Gilbert connected with Andre Lindsey for a touchdown. Neuheisel directed the first Bruin scoring drive on their next possession, completing six of eight passes, including a scoring strike of 15 yards to Paul Bergmann.

Cal added a field goal at the start of the fourth quarter to take a 20-7 lead with 14:57 remaining. On UCLA's next two possessions, Neuheisel fumbled center snaps and Cal took over. However, all Cal could muster was a 47-yard field goal attempt which sailed wide. UCLA then mounted a drive, taking advantage of a pass interference call which gave them a key first down at the Cal 47. A couple of plays later, Karl Dorrell grabbed a 32-yard scoring pass which narrowed the Bear's margin to 16-14 at the 5:32 mark.

It was then three plays and out following a Bruin defensive stand. UCLA took over on its own 46 and soon was faced with a fourth-and-two situation. Following a timeout, Neuheisel connected with Bergmann for a 25-yard gain. Two plays later, Frank Cephous found the end zone from eight yards out for the winning score with 2:12 remaining.

(14-point deficit in fourth quarter) The Bruins used the passing of senior quarterback John Barnes, the receiving of sophomore split end J.J. Stokes and the defensive play by junior inside linebacker Nkosi Littleton at the end of the game to prevent USC's two-point conversion, to upset the heavily-favored Trojans.

UCLA trailed 31-17 entering the fourth quarter. With 12:49 remaining in the game, Barnes threw a 29-yard scoring toss to Stokes to cap off a 69-yard, seven-play drive which pumped life into the Bruin comeback hopes. After stopping the Trojans on their next series, UCLA marched 80 yards on five plays to knot the score at 31-all. Two Barnes to Stokes aerials on the first two plays of the series netted 73 yards alone and Kevin Williams took it in from one yard out for the tying score with 7:00 minutes to play.

The Bruin defense once again forced a Trojan punt on its next series and took over after the kick on the UCLA four-yard line. After a couple of short runs, Barnes faced a third-and-four situation from his own 10- yard line. He dropped back to pass and hit Stokes in stride at the UCLA 25. Stokes broke into the clear and then outmaneuvered a pair of Trojan near midfield on his 90-yard journey into the end zone which handed UCLA the lead at 38-31 with 3:08 to play.

UCLA still had to withstand one last Trojan rally. Quarterback Rob Johnson drove USC 69 yards in 11 plays for a touchdown with 41 seconds to play. The two-point conversion pass was knocked away by Littleton in the front left corner of the end zone to preserve the win.

Oct. 26, 1968 - UCLA 20, Stanford 17 at Coliseum, Los Angeles, CA

(14-point deficit at halftime) Quarterback Bill Bolden helped the Bruins stage a second half rally to offset the early game heroics of Stanford's sophomore signal caller Jim Plunkett and surge past the Indians 20-17 in the Coliseum. The Bruins spotted Stanford a 14-0 lead on a Plunkett run and scoring pass play. The Indians may have had even more first half points but for an official's call in the last minute of the second quarter which penalized them for offensive pass interference in the Bruin end zone and turned the ball over to UCLA.

On the third play of the second half, Bolden lofted a pass to Gwen Cooper for 64 yards and a touchdown which gave the Bruins a look at the game, at 14-6, following a missed two-point conversion. That play was followed by some Stanford self-destruction as the Indians were intercepted and fumbled on their next two possessions. The Bruins turned the fumble into a one-yard scoring run by Rick Purdy on the fourth play of the drive with 10:25 remaining in the third quarter. Once again, a Bolden rushing attempt on the two-point conversion came up short and the score was 14-12 in favor of Stanford.

The Bruins were lucky to be behind by just 17-12 early in the fourth quarter. Bill Shoemaker missed a 19-yard field goal attempt after an 86-yard drive late in the third quarter. He later added a 24-yarder with 13:39 to play in the game to make it 17-12 Indians. The Bruins then had to stop Stanford at the one-yard line to stay in the game and began what would be a 97-yard race against the clock. However, backup quarterback Jim Nader's third-down pass was intercepted in the end zone after he had led the Bruins down the field.

UCLA got another chance from its 47. On third and 10, Ron Copeland made an impossible catch of a 50-yard Nader bomb. On the next play, from the three, tailback Greg Jones dived over for the winning touchdown with just under four minutes to play.

News Media Information

Media Credentials

Admission to the Rose Bowl press box, sidelines and dressing area is by credential only. Due to space limitations, credentials will be limited to media members who cover UCLA on a regular basis, media members who cover the visiting team or national media. Local weekly publications will be credentialed only if space is available after filling requests from daily publications. Freelancers will not be accommodated. Requests should be made in writing on company letterhead by the media agency's Sports Editor or Sports Director at least two weeks prior to the game and addressed to Marc Dellins, Sports Information Director, UCLA Athletic Department, P.O. Box 24044, Los Angeles, CA 90024-0044. Writers covering the UCLA beat may request credentials for road games through Dellins.

Credential Pickup

Credentials are available during the week at the Sports Information Office. Credentials not claimed by Friday afternoon will be available on Saturday at the "Press Will Call" window, which is located in front of Gate A at the south end of the Rose Bowl. "Press Will Call" opens two hours prior to kickoff.

Media Parking

A limited number of parking permits are available from the Sports Information Office. The media area is located on the west side of the Rose Bowl. A map showing lot locations is printed on the back of the pass.

Media Entrance/Seating

The press gate is located adjacent to Gate F on the west side of the Rose Bowl. Three press box elevators are located in the lobby area opposite Gate F. Media seating is located on the southth side of Level Two of the press box. Television and radio booths are located on Level Three of the press box. Press box credentials are not good on the sidelines until the final five minutes of the game.

Media Services

A play-by-play of each quarter, plus halftime and final statistics and post-game quotes from both coaches, are supplied to media. Programs, pre-game notes and flip cards will be distributed prior to the game. Food is available in the press box for the media and at field level for photographers.

Telephones/Fax Service

Media members wishing to have stories or statistics transmitted from the press box should contact Amfax (Rick Laubert — 310/494-8757) for fax service. The UCLA Sports Information Office will also have one fax machine at the Rose Bowl. Media wishing to order telephones should place their order through Pacific Bell (800/339-3204 from anywhere in California and 818/576-3204 from outside California). Telephone instruments are not provided. Radio stations wishing to order broadcast lines should contact Pacific Bell Program Services (800/400-6990 from anywhere in California and 818/576-6990 from outside California). Four charge-call telephones are located in the press box for use by the media.

Photography

Television and Photo credentials entitle video and still photographers to shoot from the sidelines. In accordance with NCAA rules, members of the media (still photographers, television cameramen and reporters) are not allowed in the team area (between the 25-yard lines). Only photographers wearing proper credentials and working are allowed on the sideline. Credentials must be picked up at the Photo Will Call booth at Gate A on game day. Credential holders not working will be asked to leave the sidelines. In addition, a limited amount of space is available on the Photo Mezzanine, which is located in front of Press Box Level One. Admission to the Photo Mezzanine, which can be reached only from Level One, is by special permit only. Those permits will be issued at the door to the Mezzanine.

Post-Game Procedure

Following a cooling-off period, head coach Bob Toledo and selected Bruin players will be available in the Interview Room, located across from the UCLA locker room. Following the cooling off-period, the UCLA locker room will be open to all credentialed members of the media. The visiting coach will meet the media outside of the visiting locker room. In the case of a night game, questions and answers from the Interview Room will be shown on the press box television monitors.

Interview Policies

Head Coach: Bob Toledo hosts a media conference every Monday at 1:30 p.m. in the Press Room of the J.D. Morgan Intercollegiate Athletics Center. Coach Toledo will also be available on Tuesdays and Wednesdays between 1-2 p.m. and following practices. In addition, a tape of his Monday news conference will be available for play-back throughout the week, beginning Monday afternoon.

Players: All interviews must be arranged by the Sports Information Office. Players have been instructed not to grant any interview, in person or by telephone, not arranged by the SID staff. Player telephone numbers are private and will not be released. Interviews may be arranged for prior to coach Toledo's Monday media session by making a request to SID Marc Dellins or Associate SID Steve Rourke on Sunday. Please do not expect players to be available if you have not made prior arrangements.

On Monday through Thursday of game week, interviews may also be scheduled around the lunch hour, if the request is made the previous day and the player is available. Players will usually be available after practice once they have completed their football obligations. Players will not be available on the day prior to a game, except in special circumstances, or game day. Quarterbacks will be unavailable beginning Wednesday. Post-practice interviews will be conducted on Spaulding Field or in Pauley Pavilion. The locker room, training room and weight room are off-limits to everyone with the exception of team members and Athletic Department personnel.

Radio stations may schedule telephone interviews following the guidelines listed above. All interviews must be completed before the players leave the locker room area after practice. Night interviews will not be scheduled.

Practice

The UCLA football team practices on Spaulding Field, located just south of Pauley Pavilion. Practice sessions are generally open to members of the media, but you must contact the SID office before attending practice. Television crews may shoot isolation footage of players to be interviewed but not wide-angle formations. UCLA reserves the right to close any practice session.

UCLA on Radio/TV

This season, UCLA's football games will be broadcast on AM 1150 XTRA Sports LA. This is the first year of a four-year arrangement with the station and owner Jacor, which purchased the station in 1996. In addition, Jacor has responsibility for syndicating Bruin football throughout the West Region.

Chris Roberts

Chris Roberts will be in his sixth year as the play-by-play voice of the Bruins. A four-time Golden Mike winner, he also handles the play-by-play duties for men's basketball and baseball. Prior to joining the Bruin crew in 1992, he served as the voice of the Long Beach State 49ers for 10 years. During that time, he was the sports director at KFI/KOST 103FM.

UCLA's complete television plans were not definite at press time. ABC will televise the first three games (Washington State, Tennessee and Texas). ABC will also televise several games yet to be selected. In accordance with its contract with the Pacific-10 Conference, ABC can select games 12 days prior to kickoff but the network has the option to make a six-day selection on three occasions. In addition, Fox Sports Net will televise a Pac-10 Game of the Week to most of the nation either on cable (13 games) or over-the-air syndication (five games) for a third consecutive year. The Arizona contest has already been selected as one of the cablecasts.

Bill Macdonald

All games will be televised, live or delayed, by Fox Sports West 2, a regional sports cable company based in Los Angeles. Bill Macdonald will again handle the play-by-play duties (seventh year) with former UCLA All-America quarterback Tom Ramsey serving as analyst (eighth year). Fox Sports West 2 will also air the "UCLA Sports Magazine," which will be hosted by Macdonald, on a weekly basis for the 10th consecutive year.

UCLA: THE BEST IN COLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

When it comes to athletic success, UCLA is at the top of the list. Over the 15 years, no school can match UCLA's combination of NCAA team and individual championships, football bowl games and men's basketball NCAA Tournament appearances. In April of 1997, Sports Illustrated named UCLA as the nation's No. 1 'Jock' School.

In 1996-97, UCLA placed third nationally in competition for the fourth annual Sears Directors Cup. The cup recognizes the school with the best overall sports performance in an academic year and awards points based on finishes in NCAA competition. UCLA placed second in the Directors Cup race in 1995-96 and third in 1994-95 and 1993-94.

Suzy Powell

In 1996-97, UCLA added two NCAA titles and a collegiate championship to its victory total. The Bruins won their first-ever NCAA crown in women's gymnastics and their second straight and fifth overall in men's water polo. They also won a second consecutive national collegiate championship in women's water polo in just the third year of the program's existence. In addition, UCLA also finished second in men's volleyball, reaching the championship match for the fifth straight year, second in softball, third in women's outdoor track and field, tied for third in men's tennis,tied for fourth in men's outdoor track and field, fifth in women's golf, tied for fifth in men's basketball (third Elite Eight appearance in six years and ninth straight appearance) and women's tennis, tied for seventh in baseball (reaching the College World Series for the second time in school history), seventh in women's indoor track and field, ninth in men's indoor track and field, 14th in women's swimming and tied for 17th in men's soccer. UCLA's football team defeated USC for a record sixth straight season and the men's golf team reached the NCAA championships for the first time since 1993.

COMBINED PROGRAM

UCLA has placed among the top three schools in each of the four years of the Sears Directors Cup. In 1992-93, UCLA earned the award as the nation's top combined program, according to the annual USA Today All-Sports Survey. Prior to 1993-94, USA Today conducted separate surveys for men's and women's programs. In the 23-year history of the All-Sports Survey for men's programs (formerly conducted by the Knoxville Journal), UCLA finished first 11 times (no other school had more than six titles), second seven times, third once and fourth once and was in the top 10 each year. The Bruins won five of the last eight men's surveys and placed fifth in 1993. In the women's survey (formerly sponsored by the Santa Monica Evening Outlook), UCLA won 10 titles in 18 years, including four straight (1988-1991), and finished second in 1992 and 1993.

UCLA has won more NCAA team championships than any school in the nation — 75 (61 men's and 14 women's). The men's total is second to USC's 68 while the women's total is fifth behind Stanford (22), LSU (19), North Carolina (17) and Texas (16). In the 16 years that the NCAA has awarded women's championships, UCLA has won 35 NCAA team titles (21 men's and 14 women's).

UCLA has won at least one NCAA team title (men's or women's) in 16 of the last 17 years. In addition, the school has won at least one collegiate title (NCAA or AIAW) in 32 of the last 34 years, missing only in 1979-80 and 1993-94. Over the last 27 years, UCLA has won at least two collegiate titles 21 times.

Overall, UCLA has won a nation-leading total of 94 collegiate championships — 75 NCAA crowns and 19 other titles — including the 1997 women's water polo crown.

In the last 28 years, the Bruin men have won 46 NCAA championships, 10 more than second-place Stanford and 26 more than third-place UTEP and USC. Eight times during that 28-year span, they have won at least three titles in a single year. UCLA is the only school to win four men's titles in a single year more than once, accomplishing the feat in 1969-70 (basketball, tennis, volleyball, and water polo), 1970-71 (basketball, tennis, volleyball, and outdoor track) and 1971-72 (basketball, volleyball, outdoor track, and water polo).

In 1981-82, the first year in which the NCAA hosted women's championships, UCLA became the first school in history to win five NCAA titles (men's swimming, men's tennis, men's volleyball, softball, and women's track) in a single year. That record has since been broken.

MEN'S SPORTS

No school has dominated men's volleyball, men's basketball or men's tennis like UCLA. In volleyball, Al Scates has established himself as the premier coach in the sport. In 1997 he became the first coach to pass the 900-victory plateau in guiding the Bruins to their fifth straight NCAA championship match. In the 1990s, the Bruins have won three NCAA titles, raising their total to 16, a national leader. Scates' total of 16 NCAA titles is tied for first on the list of NCAA titles won by one coach in a single sport. The Bruins have played in the NCAA Final Four 20 times in 28 years. The Bruins' Paul Nihipali earned All-American honors for the third straight season and was joined by true freshmen Adam Naeve and Brandon Taliaferro, the latter was also named MPSF Freshman of the Year. Karch Kiraly, Doug Partie, Ricci Luyties and Dave Saunders all played on the 1988 U.S. Olympic Gold Medal team, and many of the stars of the beach, including Kiraly, Sinjin Smith and Randy

Adam Naeve

Stoklos, are Bruin alums. Kiraly and partner Kent Steffes won the 1996 Olympic beach gold medal, and Jeff Nygaard, a two-time AVCA Player of the Year, and Dan Landry were members of the 1996 Olympic indoor volleyball team. A total of nine current or former players and coaches represented UCLA men's volleyball in the Atlanta Olympics, including beach legend Smith and 1996 FIVB World Champion Bjorn Maaseide.

UCLA basketball has been synonymous with success for over three decades and the 1996-97 season, Steve Lavin's first as head coach, was another great year. The Bruins won their third consecutive outright Pacific-10 championship, reached the NCAA Elite Eight, the third time in the last six years they have progressed that far, and finished with a 24-8 record, winning 17 of their final 21 games, to earn a No. 7 ranking. In 1994-95 Bruins won their 11th national championship, five more than any other school in the nation. UCLA has now won 23 of the last 36 league titles, including three straight and four of the last six, holds the record for the most NCAA playoff games won (77) and has participated in the NCAA playoffs in 30 of the last 36 years, including each of the last nine (only three schools have a longer current streak). In 1996, the Bruins compiled a 16-2 record in Pac-10 play for the second straight year and finished 23-8. In 1994-95, they won their final 19 games en route to the NCAA title and a 31-2 record. NBA stars such as all-time leading scorer Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Reggie Miller of the Indiana Pacers, Pooh Richardson of the Los Angeles Clippers and young players such as Darrick Martin, Tracy Murray, Don MacLean, Mitchell Butler, Ed O'Bannon and Tyus Edney enjoyed fine careers at UCLA.

Toby Bailey

The Bruin netters have earned 15 NCAA titles, tied for No. 1 in that sport. The Bruins have also finished second 11 times. Under fourth-year coach Billy Martin, the Bruins were ranked No. 1 and reached the NCAA semifinals a year ago. In 1996, UCLA was ranked No. 1 with a 27-1 record and reached the NCAA championship match after reaching the semifinals in each of the previous three years (1993-95). Justin Gimelstob and Srjdan Muskatirovic won the 1996 NCAA doubles title and also earned All-America honors. Jimmy Connors and the late Arthur Ashe are just a few of the UCLA alums who have played pro tennis.

The Bruin football program has been one of the more successful over the last two decades. Jerry Robinson and Kenny Easley, the nation's only three-time consensus All-Americans in the last 50 years and members of the College Football Hall of Fame, played at UCLA, as did Troy Aikman of the Dallas Cowboys, the only quarterback to win three Super Bowls in four years, Ken Norton of the San Francisco 49ers, the only man to play on three straight Super Bowl champions, 1995 Outland Trophy winner Jonathan Ogden of the Baltimore Ravens and running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar, who in 1996 became the first Miami Dolphin to rush for over 1,000 yards since 1979. UCLA was the first school in NCAA history to win a bowl game in seven consecutive years and during the last 15 seasons, the Bruins have won more bowl games and been ranked in the final AP Top 20 more often than any other school in the Pac-10. UCLA, which has defeated crosstown rival USC a record six straight seasons, will be looking for its 12th bowl bid in 17 years in 1997.

UCLA also owns one of the most respected track and field programs in the nation. The Bruins have won eight NCAA crowns, including the 1987 and 1988 titles, and have finished second six other times, including 1995. The Bruins finished third in 1996 and tied for fourth in 1997. In addition, they have placed in the top five in 22 of the last 32 years, and also own 10 Track & Field News dual meet titles. During head coach Bob Larsen's 13 years, they have lost just two dual meets and have won five of the last six and eight of the last 11 Pac-10 titles. Willie Banks, Greg Foster, John Smith, Mike Powell, Steve Lewis, Kevin Young, Mike Marsh, Danny Everett, John Godina, Jonathan Ogden, Ato Boldon and Mebrahtom Keflezighi are just a few of the NCAA and/or Olympic champions produced by the UCLA. Several Bruins, including Boldon, competed in the 1996 Olympics.

UCLA became the first school in history to win NCAA titles in eight different men's sports when the soccer team won the 1985 championship. Head coach Sigi Schmid, who served as an assistant coach for the U.S. World Cup team and is now a member of the National Soccer Hall of Fame, took the 1994 Bruins to the Final Four for the second time in the 1990s. UCLA reached the second round in 1995 and the first round in 1996. In 1990, the Bruins won their second NCAA crown, reached the NCAA quarterfinals in 1991, the second round in 1992 and the first round in 1993. They have competed in the playoffs 24 times in 29 years, including each of the last 14 years, and have finished second three times, third twice and fourth once. UCLA was the only school to place five players on the 1994 U.S. World Cup soccer squad — Paul Caligiuri, Brad Friedel, Cobi Jones, Mike Lapper and Joe-Max Moore and six players on the 1992 Olympic team — Friedel, Chris Henderson, Zak Ibsen, Jones, Lapper and Moore. Eighteen former Bruins currently play for Major League soccer teams, including Tahj Jakins, whom the Colorado Rapids selected with the No. 1 pick in the 1997 draft.

UCLA earned a championship in a ninth men's sport when the golf team captured its first NCAA title in 1988, coming from 13 strokes back entering the final day to win by three. UCLA finished in the NCAA Top Ten four times in the 1980s and the program has produced some of the PGA's top young stars, including Corey Pavin, Scott McCarron, Steve Pate, Duffy Waldorf and Jay Delsing. Five former Bruins played in the 1995 U.S. Open. Brad Sherfy, another former Bruin who is currently one of the country's top club professionals, just completed his second year as head coach. In 1997, Sherfy guided the Bruins to their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1993. His top player, sophomore Brandon DiTullio, earned second-team All-Pac-10 honors.

UCLA: THE BEST IN COLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

In 1997, perhaps the finest baseball team in school history reached the College World Series for the first time since 1968, winning five straight Midwest Regional games after losing its opener. Led by first-team All-Americans Troy Glaus, who set school and Pac-10 season (34) and career (62) home run records while batting .409, and Jim Parque (13-2 with a 3.08 ERA), second-team All-Americans Jon Heinrichs (28 homers) and Eric Valent (27 homers, including six in the regional) and third-teamer Peter Zamora (.379 batting average and 6-2 pitching record), the Bruins rewrote the record books while winning a school-record 45 games and finishing with a No. 5 ranking. UCLA has participated in the NCAA playoffs in seven of the last 12 years, reaching a regional championship game in 1992 and 1996. A top producer of major leaguers, former Bruins in the majors include 1992 National League Rookie of the Year Eric Karros, Todd Zeile, Rich Amaral, Bill Hasselman, Torey Luvello, Don Slaught, Sean Berry, Mike Gallego and Bob Hamlin. Glaus, the 1997 Pac-10 Southern Division Player of the Year, and Parque were members of the 1996 Olympic team and the third and 46th selections, respectively, in the 1997 Free Agent draft.

UCLA's water polo team returned to the victory stand in 1996, winning a second consecutive NCAA championship and the fifth in the program's history. UCLA also has finished second five times and third six times. Guy Baker and goalie Matt Swanson were selected National Coach of the Year and National Player of the Year, respectively, for the second straight year. 1996 Olympic alternate Jim Toring was also selected a first-team All-American while Jeremy Braxton-Brown and Corbin Graham were second-team choices. In Baker's six seasons as head coach, UCLA has never finished lower than fifth and have finished fifth or better in 16 of the last 23 years. Alex Rousseau and Dan Hackett played for the 1996 U.S. Olympic team and Toring was an alternate.

At the end of the 1993-94 school year, UCLA discontinued two programs for financial reasons, but their accomplishments are still part of UCLA's tradition. The Bruins won the 1982 NCAA swimming title and finished among the top seven nationally between 1970-90. Brian Goodell, Tom Jager, Bruce Hayes, Bill Barrett and Robin Leamy earned Olympic honors as Bruins.

UCLA won two NCAA men's gymnastics titles (1984 and 1987). Peter Vidmar, Mitch Gaylord and Tim Daggett, each a 1984 Olympic gold medalist, competed at UCLA as did two 1992 Olympians — Chris Waller and Scott Keswick.

WOMEN'S SPORTS

UCLA owns 25 women's national championships — 14 NCAA titles, two collegiate titles and nine AIAW crowns. In the nine-year history of the USA Today All-Sports Survey, UCLA won five titles, including four straight (1988-91), and finished second in 1992 and 1993.

UCLA has dominated the sport of softball for two decades. It has participated in 15 of the 16 NCAA College World Series and has won seven NCAA titles (an eighth, 1995, was vacated). Last year, UCLA played in the NCAA championship game after reaching the semifinals in 1996. In 1995, the Bruins won the NCAA title but was required to vacate the championship almost two years later. In the first 11 years of the NCAA Tournament, UCLA won its seven team championships. The Bruins also have finished second four times, including 1993 and 1997, third twice and fourth once in their 15 NCAA appearances and won an AIAW title in 1978. Some of the top collegiate stars in the history of the game, including three-time College Player of the Year and 1996 Olympian Lisa Fernandez, Bruin Hall of Fame pitcher Debbie Doom, 1996 Olympians Sheila Cornell and Dot Richardson, and All-America third baseman Jennifer Brundage, who was selected the 1995 GTE/Academic All-American of the Year, played at UCLA. In addition, four other former Bruins competed for other countries in the Olympics. Pitcher Christa Williams, who starred as a freshman in 1997 after playing in the Olympic Games, and freshman catcher Stacey Nuveman, whose 21 home runs set UCLA season and career records, will lead the Bruins into the next millenium.

Another very successful sport at UCLA is women's volleyball. The Bruins won three national titles in the 1970s. In the 1980s, UCLA captured the 1984 NCAA title and appeared in seven Final Fours, finishing second twice. The Bruins have been even more impressive in the 1990s, winning back-to-back NCAA championships in 1990 and 1991, finishing second in 1992 following an undefeated regular season, posting a 30-2 record and reaching the regional final in 1993, placing second nationally in 1994 and reaching the regional final in 1995. UCLA has played in the NCAA Final Four 10 times in its 16 years, including five straight between 1988-92. The first women's volleyball coach to win 800 matches, Andy Banachowski has led UCLA to six national titles and five second-place finishes, including the AIAW years. Banachowski has produced 16 AVCA All-Americans who have earned 28 All-America certificates, the nation's top total in both categories, and 21 Volleyball Magazine All-Americans. His program has also produced five Olympians — Laurie Lewis, Jeanne Beauprey-Reeves, Liz Masakayan, Elaine Youngs, Holly McPeak and Linday Hanley (Robertson) — 22 pro beach players and 15 National Team players.

The Bruins boast one of the top women's gymnastics programs in the nation. In 1997, they won their first-ever NCAA team title, completing a run which saw them improve each year, finishing second in 1996, fourth in 1995 and fifth in 1994. The Bruins have won seven of the last 11 Pac-10 championships and have won five consecutive NCAA West Regional crowns. Sharon Shapiro, Jill Andrews, Kim Hamilton and 1995 floor exercise champion Stella Umeh have all won individual NCAA titles. In 1997, five Bruins earned All-America acclaim, Leah Homma was selected Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year and Valorie Kondos was selected National Coach of the Year for the second consecutive time.

The women's track and field team contends for the NCAA title on an annual basis. Last year, UCLA finished third at the NCAA outdoor championships. In 1995, the Bruins placed second in both outdoor and indoor competition and tied for ninth outdoors in 1996. UCLA won back-to-back championships in 1982 and 1983 and finished second in 1988-89-90, fourth in 1991 and third in both 1993 and 1994. Including the AIAW years, the Bruins have won four national titles and have finished second seven times thanks to Olympic gold medalists such as Gail Devers, Jackie Joyner-Kersee, Florence Griffith Joyner and Evelyn Ashford and NCAA champions such as Dawn Dumble, Amy Acuff (five outdoor and indoor titles), Karen Hecox, Valeyta Althouse and Seilala Sua. Acuff, Joyner-Kersee and Suzy Powell were just a few of the Bruins who competed in Atlanta. In 1997, UCLA won the Pac-10 title for the sixth time in eight years after finishing third in 1996.

In 1997, the UCLA women's tennis team, under the direction of first-year head coach Stella Sampras, advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals. In 1996, the Bruins played in the NCAA semifinals after reaching the quarterfinals in 1995 and 1992. UCLA has now recorded 12 Top Five finishes in the 16 years of the NCAA Tournament. In 1991, the Bruins reached the NCAA championship match for the second time in three years (they reached the semifinals in 1990) and also finished second in 1982 and third in 1983 and 1988. The Bruins won the AIAW Tournament in 1981 and have produced numerous All-Americans over the years. Keri Phebus was selected the 1995 ITA Player of the Year after becoming UCLA's first NCAA singles champion. UCLA doubles teams have won four championships, with Phebus and her partner Susie Starrett taking the title in 1995.

In women's swimming, the Bruins have finished in the Top Ten at the NCAA championships in 10 of the last 13 seasons and in the Top 15 in 14 of the 16 years the event has been held. In 1997, they placed a strong 14th with eight swimmers earning 21 All-America citations. UCLA finished 11th in 1996, 10th in 1995, seventh in 1993 and 1994, sixth in 1992 and fifth in both 1991 and 1990. Annette Salmeen, the 1996 UCLA Female Athlete of the Year, became the first UCLA woman to win an NCAA individual championship (200 butterfly). She also won a gold medal at the 1996 Olympic Games (800 freestyle relay) and is the first Bruin female student-athlete to earn a Rhodes Scholarship, having compiled a 3.9 grade-point average in Chemistry.

The women's basketball program has produced some of the most famous players in the game, including Olympians Ann Meyers and Denise Curry, both of whom have been voted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, and several All-Americans, including Pac-10 Female Athlete of the Decade Natalie Williams, who won NCAA Player of the Year honors in volleyball, Pac-10 Player of the Year acclaim in basketball and dominated all rebounders in the new American Basletball League. UCLA has a bright future, built around 1996 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year Erica Gomez, 1997 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year Maylana Martin and a host of talented youngsters, and will compete for a spot in the NCAA Tournament in 1998. UCLA won the AIAW national title in 1978 and last reached the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1992.

In 1991, the Bruin women won their first NCAA golf championship, defeating top-ranked San Jose State in a one-hole playoff. In 1997, they placed fifth — their seventh consecutive Top 10 finish. They now own 12 Top 10 finishes (eight NCAA) and have participated in 14 of the 16 NCAA championships. Former Bruin Lisa Kiggens is a rising star on the pro tour. This past year, the team was rose from 25th in the national rankings to sixth at the end of the season. Newcomer Sophie Sandolo, who finished the season ranked 10th nationally, earned second-team All-America honors.

In only its fourth season (1996) as an intercollegiate program, the women's soccer team finished with a record of 11-7-1, a year after reaching the NCAA Tournament for the first time and finishing with a record of 14-4-1 and a No. 16 ranking. UCLA, which rose to as high as No. 14 at one point in the year, was led by forward Traci Arkenberg, who earned first-team All-Pac-10 acclaim for the second straight year. The program has built a good foundation for the future under the guidance of head coach Joy Fawcett, a Hall of Fame collegiate player who was a starter for the 1996 U.S. Olympic team and assisted on the gold medal-winning goal.

In 1997, UCLA's women's water polo program, in only its third season, won its second consecutive collegiate championship, finishing with a 31-1 record. In the last two seasons, the Bruins have won 60 of 62 games while capturing the back-to-back titles. Guy Baker was named National Coach of the Year for the second straight time while Coralie Simmons was the second consecutive Bruin named National Player of the Year (Nicole Payne was selected in 1996). Simmons and Payne were both selected first-team All-Americans a year ago while Catharine Von Schwarz and Amanda Gall were second-team choices. In its three years of existence, the team has compiled a record of 73-13 and has finished first twice and fifth once.

In women's cross-country, UCLA has established a fine program and has competed in the NCAA championships four times in the last nine years. The Bruins finished fifth in the NCAA District championships in 1996.

DR. ALBERT CARNESALE

COOPER UNION '57
NORTH CAROLINA STATE PH.D. '66
UCLA CHANCELLOR

On July 1, 1997, Albert Carnesale became chancellor of UCLA, the eighth chief executive in the university's history. He also has a joint tenured faculty appointment in two academic departments: the Department of Policy Studies, in the School of Public Policy and Social Research, and the Department of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering, in the School of Engineering and Applied Science.

At UCLA, Carnesale heads an institution with nearly 35,000 students, 3,300 faculty members, a staff of more than 18,000, and an operating budget of $2 billion. Educating more students than any other college or university in California, UCLA's academic enterprise includes the College of Letters and Science and 11 professional schools. In addition, UCLA operates a renowned medical center that treats more than 300,000 patients a year and performing arts programs that draw 500,000 audience members annually. UCLA began in 1919 as a two-year teachers college in downtown Los Angeles and is now regarded in many quarters as the youngest of the best research universities in America.

When Carnesale's appointment was announced in March 1997, he said: "Just how a university could achieve this level of excellence in so short a time is amazing. My objective is to build on that excellence and move UCLA to the next level. When informed people around the world ask 'What are the world's great universities?' that list will include UCLA."

Before joining UCLA, Carnesale was provost of Harvard University and Lucius N. Littauer Professor of Public Policy & Administration. As provost, he coordinated the work of Harvard's central administration, supervised its information technology activities and oversaw academic programs that involved two or more of the university's schools.

His research and teaching have focused on international relations and national security policy, with an emphasis on issues associated with nuclear weapons and arms control.

Carnesale was born July 2, 1936, and grew up in a tenement in the Bronx, New York. He has said his ambition as a child was to "find a job where you wear a white shirt and tie and earn at least $100 a week."

Carnesale earned B.S. and M.S. degrees in mechanical engineering at Cooper Union (1957) and Drexel University (1961) and a Ph.D. in nuclear engineering at North Carolina State University (1966). He holds honorary degrees from Harvard University (A.M.), New Jersey Institute of Technology (Sc.D), and Drexel University (LL.D.).

Carnesale has held positions in industry (Martin Marietta Corporation, 1957-62) and government (U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, 1969-72).

In academia, Carnesale was a professor at North Carolina State University from 1962-69 and 1972-74. He came to Harvard in 1974. In addition to teaching and research, he served at the John F. Kennedy School of Government as academic dean from 1981 until 1991, and dean from 1991-1995.

Carnesale has consulted widely on foreign and defense policy matters, with private firms and for government agencies, including: the Executive Office of the President; the Departments of Defense, Energy, and State; the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency; the Director of Central Intelligence; and the Congressional Office of Technology Assessment.

He participated in the U.S. delegation to the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks (SALT I, 1970-72) and led the U.S. delegation to the International Nuclear Fuel Cycle Evaluation (1978-80), a 66-nation study of the relationship between civilian nuclear power and proliferation of nuclear weapons.

Carnesale has written extensively on international affairs, defense policy, and nuclear energy issues, and has testified often before Congressional committees. He is co-author of New Nuclear Nations: Consequences for U.S. Policy (1993); Fateful Visions: Avoiding Nuclear Catastrophe (1988);

Superpower Arms Control: Setting the Record Straight (1987); Hawks, Doves and Owls: An Agenda for Avoiding Nuclear War (1985); and Living with Nuclear Weapons (1983). His work has been published in Foreign Affairs, International Affairs, International Security, Washington Quarterly, and other journals, and he was a founding editor of the quarterly journal International Security. He is a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and of the International Institute for Strategic Studies.

He is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, Sigma Pi Sigma and Sigma Xi honorary societies.

Carnesale succeeds Charles E. Young, who served as UCLA chancellor for 29 years. He will live on the UCLA campus in the university residence, a Florentine-style house that was built in 1929.

Peter T. Dalis

UCLA '59

Director of Athletics

Now in his 15th year as UCLA's director of athletics, Peter Dalis ranks first in seniority among Pac-10 athletic directors. During his 14 years on the job, he has continued the Bruin tradition of competing for national titles and conference championships. UCLA has won 28 NCAA championships (17 men's and 11 women's) — two fewer than it won during the J.D. Morgan Era, played in nine bowl games, winning seven, and played in the NCAA men's basketball tournament 10 times, including each of the last nine years. During that same span, UCLA has moved into the No. 1 spot nationally in terms of NCAA and collegiate team championships.

No school in the nation can match UCLA's combination of NCAA team titles, football bowl victories, NCAA men's basketball tournament appearances, Sears Cup and USA Today rankings and Olympic medals over the past 14 years.

Here are some of UCLA's accomplishments under Dalis:

•UCLA has won at least one NCAA team title in 13 of 14 years and at least two titles in 10 of the 14 years.

•UCLA placed third in competition for the 1996-97 Sears Directors Cup. UCLA placed second in 1995-96 and third in 1993-94 and 1994-95.

•UCLA has won NCAA team titles in 12 different sports — men's basketball, men's golf, men's gymnastics, men's soccer, men's tennis, men's track, men's volleyball, men's water polo, women's golf, women's gymnastics, women's softball, women's volleyball

•The Bruin men's basketball team has been to 10 NCAA tournaments and won the 1995 NCAA title. UCLA has appeared in each of the last nine years and only three schools have a longer current streak.

•The Bruin football team has been to nine bowl games, including five New Year's Day games and three Rose Bowls, and has won seven of those. UCLA set an NCAA record with bowl victories in seven consecutive years during this span.

In 1996-97, UCLA added two NCAA titles and a collegiate championship to its victory total. The Bruins won their first-ever NCAA crown in women's gymnastics and their second straight in men's water polo. They also won a second consecutive national collegiate championship in women's water polo. In addition, UCLA also finished second in men's volleyball, reaching the championship match for the fifth straight year, second in softball, tied for third in men's tennis, fifth in women's golf, tied for fifth in men's basketball (third Elite Eight appearance in six years and ninth straight appearance) and women's tennis, seventh in women's indoor track and field, tied for seventh in baseball (reaching the College World Series for the second time in school history) and ninth in men's indoor track and field. UCLA's football team defeated USC for a record sixth straight season.

In 1995-96, UCLA added two NCAA titles and a collegiate championship to its victory total. The Bruins won their 16th NCAA crown in men's volleyball and their fourth in men's water polo. They also won the national collegiate title in women's water polo. In addition, UCLA placed second in women's gymnastics and men's tennis, third in men's outdoor track, tied for third in softball and women's tennis and fourth in women's golf.. Overall, UCLA finished in the Top 11 in 16 sports.

In 1994-95, UCLA won NCAA titles in men's basketball and men's volleyball and finished second in women's volleyball, men's track, women's track and women's indoor track, tied for third in men's soccer and men's tennis and fourth in men's water polo and women's gymnastics. Overall, UCLA placed 15 teams in the Top Tens of various NCAA championships.

During the 1993-94 school year, UCLA finished second in the NCAA volleyball championships and placed third in women's track, men's tennis (tied) and softball (tied) and the football team played in the Rose Bowl. Overall, UCLA placed 11 teams in the Top Tens of various NCAA championships.

During the 1992-93 school year, UCLA won an NCAA championship in men's volleyball. A total of 10 teams recorded NCAA Top 10 finishes.

During the 1991-92 school year, the UCLA women's volleyball and women's softball teams won NCAA titles and a total of 15 teams recorded NCAA Top 10 finishes. In addition, the football team finished 9-3 and won its eighth straight bowl game (John Hancock Bowl). UCLA won three NCAA titles in 1990-91, one in 1989-90, two in 1988-89, three in 1987-88 and 1986-87, one in 1985-86, two in 1984-85 and four in 1983-84.

Dalis' successes have not been limited to the playing fields. When he became athletic director in 1983, UCLA had no endowed scholarships. Under his direction, UCLA has now endowed almost half — 125 — of its athletic grant-in-aids through private donations.

Selected 1987-88 Axios Sportsman of the Year, Dalis is a member of the Los Angeles-Athens Sister City Committee as well as the Los Angeles Sports Council and the Rose Bowl Management Committee. He is a member of the NCAA Special Events Committee and is currently serving as chair of the Pac-10 Television Committee. He is also a member of the Board of the Southern California Committee For The Olympic Games.

Dalis, appointed by former Chancellor Charles E. Young in 1983, has been associated with UCLA, either as a student or an employee, since the fall of 1955. Prior to becoming athletic director, he served as director of UCLA's impressive Cultural and Recreational Affairs department.

The John R. Wooden Center represents many hours of hard work by Dalis, who was a central figure in the project from its inception in 1975. He prepared the original feasibility study and enjoyed "hands-on" responsibility of the project through the design and construction stages, culminating with the building's opening in May of 1983.

Dalis, who played a major role in the planning and construction of the Sunset Canyon Recreation Center, has been utilized as a capital project consultant by several other schools, including the University of Connecticut and Australia's University of New South Wales. He also played a major role in the planning of UCLA's participation in the 1984 Olympic Games and was selected to the LAOOC Citizens Advisory Commission.

As an undergraduate at UCLA, he served as football manager for four years, including senior manager for Red Sanders. Dalis earned a B.S. degree in 1959, majoring in Physical Education with a concentration in administration. In Jan. 1963, he earned an M.S. in Education.

DONALD G. MORRISON
M.I.T. '61
FACULTY ATHLETIC REPRESENTATIVE

Donald G. Morrison is in his fourth year as UCLA's Faculty Athletic Representative. In 1996-97, he will serve as President of the Pacific-10 Conference.

Morrison, a specialist in management science and marketing, is The William E. Leonhard Professor in the Anderson Graduate School of Management.

A 1961 graduate of M.I.T. with a B.S. in mechanical engineering, Morrison earned a Ph.D. in operations research at Stanford University in 1965. He joined the Columbia Business School faculty the following year as assistant professor, served as associate professor from 1968 and was named professor of business in 1973. He has also served as visiting professor at Stanford and at University of California, Berkeley. He joined the UCLA faculty in 1987.

Over the past 26 years, Morrison has supervised the doctoral dissertations of a number of students who are now faculty members of other leading institutions. Many are now on key editorial boards. Morrison was the founding editor of a professional journal, Marketing Science, was editor-in-chief of Management Science for eight years. He has served as departmental editor or editorial board member of several other professional journals.

He is the author or co-author of over 80 articles, with a special emphasis on marketing research and applied statistics. He has been an expert witness as a statistician in a number of legal cases and a consultant to industrial firms and government agencies.

Morrison, who will be 59 on February 26, served as captain of the M.I.T. track team. In 1961, he was the Eastern Conference long jump champion and placed third in the long jump at the New England Championships.

Morrison's wife Sherie is the chair of UCLA's Microbiology and Molecular Genetics department. Their daughters Heather Cloonan and Michelle Oliva earned their MBA degrees from the Anderson Graduate School of Management at UCLA.

A Look at UCLA

With a deep commitment to research, teaching and public service, UCLA is one university touching many lives. Uniquely qualifying UCLA to carry out this three-part mission is its setting in Los Angeles. The region serves as a vast laboratory for study where the university can apply its intellectual resources to pressing societal problems. Everyone wins.

Some of UCLA's recent notable achievements in research, teaching and public service include:

• Breakthroughs in the study of brain tumor vaccination, earthquake prediction, endangered languages, television violence, treatment for stroke, global warming, the ancient civilization of Urkesh and in innumerable other areas. Total grants for research on campus placed UCLA among the nation's top six universities in funding for science and medical research and development.

• Numerous faculty distinctions for teaching and scholarship. Four faculty members were elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 1997, and five others received Sloan Foundation Fellowships, given to outstanding researchers in the early stages of their careers. Among the faculty there have been three Nobel Prize winners, seven winners of the National Medal of Science and 30 members of the National Academy of Science. Faculty also repeatedly receive such honors as Guggenheim Fellowships and Fulbright Awards.

• The expansion of UCLA's world-class health-care network, which contributes to the welfare of Southern Californians by providing a network of neighborhood primary care centers and regional treatment centers staffed by hundreds of university-affiliated physicians, as well as the leading hospital in the western United States. Public school reform and environmental cleanup are among the many other areas in which UCLA is serving L.A., and community service programs engage nearly one-third of UCLA's students as volunteers.

These and countless other daily triumphs, large and small, distinguish UCLA in the realm of American higher education. No other university offers the educational experience available at UCLA, where the finest students and scholars from every cultural background come together at the gateway of the Pacific Rim to pursue intellectual and personal growth. At UCLA they reap the combined benefits of innovative curriculum, groundbreaking research programs, world-class facilities, and distinguished artistic and literary collections.

Albert Carnesale, former provost of Harvard University, became chancellor of UCLA on July 1. He succeeded Charles E. Young, who retired after 29 years as the university's chief executive. Under Dr. Carnesale, UCLA continues its pursuit of excellence. The campus maintains 80 departments of instruction in the College of Letters and Science and 11 professional schools. It has the largest enrollment and receives the most applications of any of the nine UC campuses.

The UCLA Library is ranked among the top five academic research libraries in North America. It comprises the University Research Library, the College Library and 11 subject libraries, with total holdings of more than 6.2 million volumes.

A broad range of public arts programming makes UCLA the leading arts and cultural center of the West. More than 500,000 people attended arts events last year at UCLA's two professional arts schools, the Center for the Performing Arts, the UCLA at the Armand Hammer Museum of Art and Cultural Center, the Fowler Museum of Cultural History, Geffen Playhouse, a world-class film and television archive, and hundreds of continuing-education arts courses.

Royce Hall

UCLA Extension, the nation's largest division of continuing higher education, sets the standard for lifelong learning, offering more than 4,000 courses each year in diverse fields.

The world-renowned Center for the Health Sciences includes the schools of medicine, dentistry, nursing and public health; the UCLA Medical Center; the Neuropsychiatric Institute and Hospital; the Jules Stein Eye Institute and Doris Stein Eye Research Center; and the UCLA AIDS Institute. UCLA Medical Center has been ranked as the best hospital in the West for six consecutive years by a U.S. News & World Report survey.

Only a quarter of UCLA's annual income comes from state appropriations. The remaining three-quarters of the operating budget is derived from federal and private contracts and grants, teaching hospitals and auxiliary enterprises, student fees and private gifts.

UCLA's lush 419-acre campus is close to ocean, mountains and city. Campus attractions include Murphy Sculpture Garden and botanical gardens, as well as the UCLA Sports Hall of Fame and the Bruin statue. UCLA conducts guided walking tours of the campus and distributes self-guided tour maps. For information, call (310) 206-0616.

The Legacy of UCLA's Jackie Robinson

• The first African-American to play major league baseball (April 15, 1947). Born Jan. 31, 1919 in Cairo, GA.
• His widow Rachel, a UCLA alumna, founded the Jackie Robinson Foundation, which has funded college scholarships for deserving African-American students.
• The first four-sport letterman in UCLA history—football (1939 and 1940), basketball (1940 and 1941), track and field (1940) and baseball (1940).

UCLA Football

• Led the nation in punt return average in both 1939 (16.5 yards) and 1940 (21.0 yards). His career average of 18.8 yards ranks fourth in NCAA history.
• As a senior in 1940, he led UCLA in rushing (383 yards), passing (444 yards), total offense (827 yards), scoring (36 points) and punt returns (21.0 average). In his two-year career, he rushed for 954 yards (5.9 average) and passed for 449 yards.

UCLA Basketball

• Led the Southern Division of the Pacific Coast Conference in scoring in both 1940 (12.4 average in 12 league games) and 1941 (11.1 average in 12 league games).

UCLA Track and Field

• Missed most of the 1940 season while playing with the Bruin baseball team but won the NCAA title in the broad jump (24-10 1/4) after winning the Pacific Coast Conference meet with a leap of 25-0.

UCLA Baseball

• In 1940, batted just .097 during the California Intercollegiate Baseball Association season. In his first game (March 10, 1940), he had four hits and stole four bases, including home once.

Major League Baseball

• Played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1957.
• Selected National League Rookie of the Year in 1947 (the award is now named in his honor).
• Selected National League Most Valuable Player in 1949.

Post-Baseball Career

• Became Vice-President at Chock Full O'Nuts in 1957.
• Served as a member of the national board of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.
• Selected UCLA "Alumnus of the Year" in 1962.
• Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962.
• Was instrumental in the founding of the Freedom National Bank in Harlem, NY.
• Became the first African-American baseball commentator when hired by ABC-TV in 1965.
• Passed away on Oct. 24, 1972 in Stamford, CT.
• Selected as a charter member of UCLA's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1984.

The UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame is now in its 13th year of operation. Within the two-story Hall of Fame, which is housed in the J.D. Morgan Intercollegiate Athletics Center, are trophies, pictures and newspaper articles commemorating UCLA's seven-plus decades of athletic excellence. Each of UCLA's intercollegiate sports has a display highlighting its successes on the playing field. The Hall is open to the public every weekday (8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.).

UCLA athletic teams have won 75 NCAA team championships and each of those first-place trophies are on display, along with pictures of the championship teams. Other exhibits include photographs of each of UCLA's first-team All-Americans in football and basketball, Gary Beban's Heisman Trophy, the Wooden Awards won by Marques Johnson and Ed O'Bannon, Peter Vidmar's Nissen Award and special displays on UCLA's football bowl victories, the Bruins' NCAA basketball tradition and UCLA's Olympic Games medal winners.

John Wooden

In addition, outstanding photographs of each of UCLA's athletic facilities, including the Rose Bowl, Pauley Pavilion, Drake Stadium, the Los Angeles Tennis Center Jackie Robinson Stadium and Easton Stadium, adorn one wall while another is filled with reproductions of UCLA Sports Illustrated covers.

In connection with the building, UCLA has established a Hall of Fame with 25 charter members representing a cross-section of the school's athletic history. Each year, a minimum of one and a maximum of eight (including two 'pioneers') former UCLA athletes, coaches or administrators are added to the Hall of Fame. Rose Bowl: Football Home of the Bruins

The nation's most famous college football stadium — The Rose Bowl — is now in its 16th season as the home of the UCLA Bruin football team. One of the finest football stadiums in America, the Rose Bowl was built specifically for football, but was used for portions of the 1932 Olympic Games and was also the soccer site for the 1984 Olympics. The Rose Bowl has also been the site of four Super Bowls, most recently Super Bowl XXVII on January 31, 1993, and was a venue for the 1994 World Cup soccer tournament, including the championship game. It is currently the home of the Galaxy of Major League Soccer.

Prior to the 1992 season, the Rose Bowl built a new three-level press box. In addition to modern facilities for the print and electronic media, the new press box has two levels of executive and club suites, some of which are still available for lease. Three elevators service this state-of-the-art facility.

In addition, the Rose Bowl also received a new state-of-the art lighting system prior to 1992 season. The system included new lights, fixtures and towers.

Beginning this season, the Rose Bowl will undergo a number of renovations in order to bring it into the 21st Century as America's premier college football stadium. The stadium has a state-of-the-art video board as well as new matrix-style scoreboards. Additional seating and other improvements for disabled persons are also being installed. A state-of-the art sound system is also scheduled to be installed this season. Team dressing rooms are scheduled to be renovated and addtional concession stands and restrooms will also be completed during the season.

Completed in 1922, the Rose Bowl was first used for the USC-California game that year. The stadium was horseshoe shaped and seated 57,000 persons when it hosted the 1923 Rose Bowl Game. The south end was enclosed prior to the 1929 game and enlarged to seat 76,000 spectators. Demands for more and more seats led to further enlargements; to 83,677 in 1932 and to 100,807 in 1949.

All new grandstand and loge seats have been installed since 1971, and new red backs were added on 22,000 seats prior to the 1980 Rose Bowl Game. Current seating capacity is 98,636, though a record 106,869 witnessed the 1973 USC-Ohio State Rose Bowl contest.

In conjunction with UCLA's move (1982) and the Olympics, a Rose Bowl improvement program, which included refurbishing the press box and adding permanent concession stands, has resulted in backs for more than 50,000 seats.

The Rose Bowl has many firsts to its record. On Jan. 1, 1927, radio stations across the nation were linked together for the first time in a coast-to-coast broadcast. On Jan. 1, 1954, the UCLA-Michigan State Rose Bowl Game was the first west-to-east color telecast on a nationwide hookup.

The Rose Bowl has 77 rows of seats. It measures 880 feet from the north to south rims and 695 from east to west. Its circumference around the rim is 2,430 feet, compared to 1,350 feet at field level. It took 28 miles of lumber to provide the original seats. There are 79,156 square feet of natural grass on the floor of the stadium.

At Home with the Bruins: UCLA played its home games at Moore Field from 1919-1928 with the following exceptions: 1919, Los Angeles JC at Los Angeles High; 1926, Occidental and Iowa State at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum; 1927, Occidental, Pomona and Drake at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum; 1928, Pomona and Oregon at the Los Angeles Coliseum. UCLA played all of its home games from the 1929 through 1981 seasons at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum with the following exceptions: 1929, Fresno State at Westwood; 1933, Los Angeles JC and San Diego State at Westwood; 1934, Pomona and San Diego State at Westwood. The Bruins moved to the Rose Bowl (pictured) prior to the 1982 season.

The UCLA Athletics Campaign (1987-92) raised approximately $13 million in scholarship endowments thanks to the generosity of UCLA alumni and friends. UCLA Athletics wishes to express its gratitude to the individuals listed for their support. To date, 126 of the 273 NCAA allowable athletic grants-in-aid have been endowed through gifts and pledges

An endowment generates income to the University in perpetuity. By investing the gift principal and using just the interest earned to help meet the cost of a grant-in-aid assures the Athletic Department of on-going funds to maintain the quality and diversity of its program.

The Four-Deep Team, chaired by Bob Wilson '53, is a landmark effort to permanently endow all 85 grants-in-aid for student-athletes participating in Bruin football. The goal is to have four scholarship endowed at each position and several for the kicking specialties — hence the term "Four Deep."

Fans of UCLA football have a unique opportunity to "make" the Four-Deep Team through a gift to endow one or more grants-in-aid. With 53 football grants-in-aid already endowed, it is expected that the "Four Deep" Team will be completed in the near future. UCLA hopes to become the first school in the nation to have all 85 of its football scholarships permanently endowed. Thus, by joining the "Four Deep" Team, donors can help UCLA achieve a "depth chart" unparalleled in collegiate history.

"We must turn to alumni and friends if we are to maintain the quality of excellence that has been the hallmark of Bruin athletics," says Peter T. Dalis, director of athletics. "Due to extraordinary cost increases, private funding is more important than ever. Tuition and fees alone, for an undergraduate student at UCLA, have increased by 86 percent in the last three years. Those increases are reflected in increased athletic scholarship costs payable to the University by the Athletic Department. Traditional sources of financial support, such as ticket sales and media contracts, are no longer sufficient to maintain a broad-based program like ours. Donors who establish endowed grants-in-aid are helping to ensure that future generations of student-athletes will have the opportunity to become part of the UCLA family."

While the UCLA Athletics Campaign has concluded successfully, the Athletic Department is still encouraging alumni and friends to help UCLA meet its goal of endowing all of the 273 grants-in-aid allowed by the NCAA. A minimum gift of $100,000, payable over three to five years, is required to endow each scholarship. Donors receive special recognition as part of a unique and permanent display in the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame. Most importantly, they have the satisfaction of knowing that their gifts have enabled Bruin student-athletes to excel in athletics and academics at one of the finest universities in the world.

The Pacific-10 Conference

The Pacific-10 Conference enjoyed unprecedented success during the 1996-97 academic year. The league claimed a record 14 NCAA titles during the year. the most ever won by any conference in a single year. Seven different Pac-10 institutions won at least one NCAA title during the last year. Individually, the Pac-10 was just as impressive, securing 24 NCAA titles.

Pac-10 members have won 225 NCAA men's team championships (far ahead of the 148 claimed by the Big Ten) and 57 women's crowns (far ahead of the Southeastern Conference, which has 38) to lead all conferences in both categories.

Men's NCAA team titles have come at a phenomenal rate — 15 basketball titles, more than any other conference; 16 of the last 31 baseball titles; 18 of the last 37 titles in track and field (44 overall); 18 of the last 33 in swimming; 34 of the last 37 in tennis; 24 of the 28 held in water polo and 21 of the 28 held in volleyball. The Conference has also claimed an incredible 968 NCAA individual crowns.

On the women's side, the story is the same. The NCAA has been conducting women's championships for 16 years and Pac-10 members have won four team titles in a single year on 10 occasions, including eight in 1996-97. Included in the NCAA team titles are 12 of 16 championships in softball (plus one vacated), 11 of 16 in tennis, five of the last seven volleyball titles and seven of the last nine trophies in golf and swimming. Additionally, the 276 individual titles lead all leagues.

Pacific-10 Conference Bowl Commitments

The Pacific-10 Conference champion will advance to the Rose Bowl to face the champion of the Big Ten Conference.

A second team (not necessarily the second-place team) from the Pac-10 will play in either the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl in Dallas, TX or the Plymouth Holiday Bowl in San Diego, CA. The Cotton Bowl will have its choice between the Pac-10 No. 2 team and the WAC champion to match against the No. 2 team from the Big 12 Conference. The team not chosen will play the No. 3 team from the Big 12 in the Holiday Bowl.

The next highest remaining team in the Pac-10 standings will play the Big Ten No. 5 team in the Norwest Sun Bowl in El Paso, TX. If a tie exists, the bowl may select from among the tied teams. A fourth Pac-10 team (not necessarily the fourth-place team) will play the Big 12 No. 5 team in the Eagle Aloha Bowl Football Classic in Honolulu, HI.

Rose Bowl Selection Procedures

The Pac-10's Rose Bowl representative shall be that member's team with the best record in the loss and tie columns (a tie being counted as one-half loss) in all conference games. If however, the lowest loss-tie totals of two or more members are identical, determination of the Rose Bowl representative shall be determined as follows:

Two-Team Tie: If the tied teams played one another, the winner of that game shall be the representative. If they tied or did not play one another, if either team is ranked for or second nationally in the Associated Press, USA Today/CNN Coaches or the UPI/Football Foundation polls (must be first or second in two of three polls) which immediately follow the final regular-season game played by the conference's members, then it shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If they tied or did not play and are not so ranked, then the following formula shall be used — four points for a conference win; three points for a non-conference win against a Division 1-A team; two points for a conference tie or a non-conference win against a non-Division 1-A team; 1-1/2 points for a non-conference tie against a Division 1-A team; one point for a non-conference tie against a non-Division 1-A team. The team with the highest point total for all games shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If a tie remains, the last team appearing in the Rose Bowl shall be eliminated.

Multiple Ties: When three or more teams are tied in the loss-tie column in conference play, if one team has defeated all others, it shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If that is not the case and one of the teams is ranked first or second on the polls listed above, then it shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If that is not the case, a team defeated by all other teams shall be eliminated. If one team has not defeated the others, the point formula shall be computed. Only the top two teams on the point system shall thereafter be considered. If a tie for the second position occurs upon application of the point formula, the second team shall be the winner of the game between the tied teams, or if the teams did not play each other or played a tie game, the team which has not played in the Rose Bowl for the longest period of time shall be the second team.

If the remaining two teams played one another, the winner shall be the representative. If they tied or did not play one another, the team with the highest point total of all games shall be the Rose Bowl representative as in "two-team tie." If a tie remains, the team most recently appearing in the Rose Bowl shall be eliminated.

Other Factors: Teams ineligible to participate in the Rose Bowl shall not be included in the tie-breaking formula. Games in Alaska or Hawaii shall not be counted in the point system if they are "12th games" permitted under NCAA legislation. Participation in NACDA's two pre-season games shall not be counted in the point system.

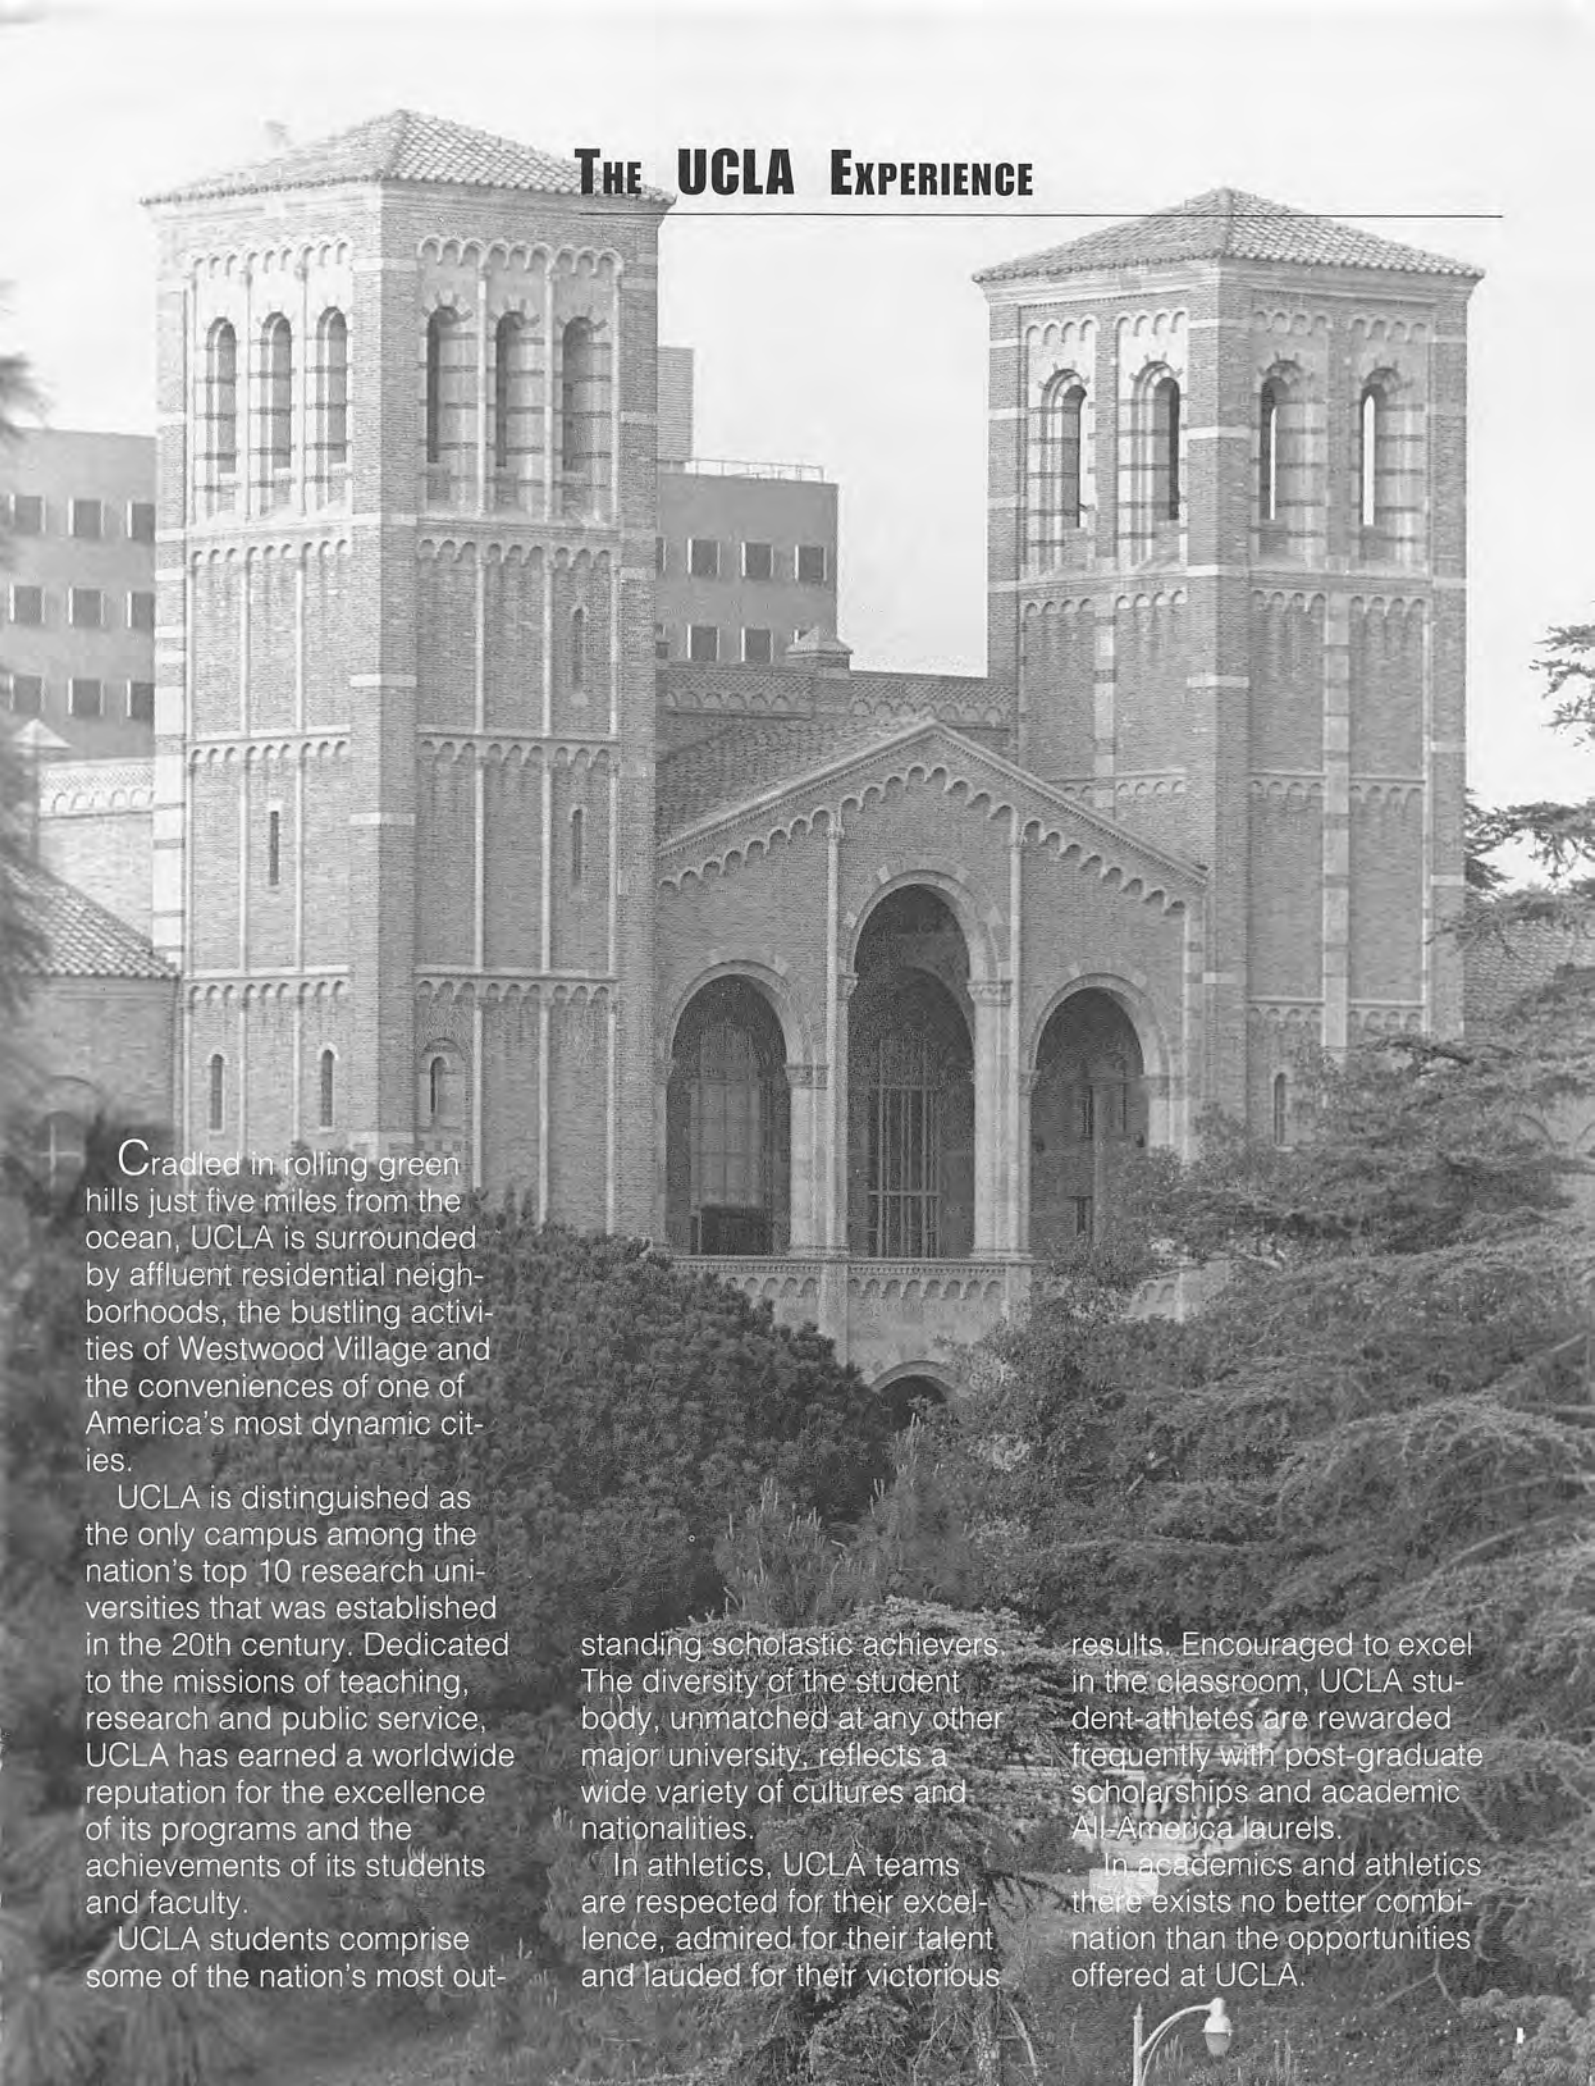
The UCLA Experience



Cradled in rolling green hills just five miles from the ocean, UCLA is surrounded by affluent residential neighborhoods, the bustling activities of Westwood Village and the conveniences of one of America's most dynamic cities.

UCLA is distinguished as the only campus among the nation's top 10 research universities that was established in the 20th century. Dedicated to the missions of teaching, research and public service, UCLA has earned a worldwide reputation for the excellence of its programs and the achievements of its students and faculty.

UCLA students comprise some of the nation's most outstanding scholastic achievers. The diversity of the student body, unmatched at any other major university, reflects a wide variety of cultures and nationalities.

In athletics, UCLA teams are respected for their excellence, admired for their talent and lauded for their victorious results. Encouraged to excel in the classroom, UCLA student-athletes are rewarded frequently with post-graduate scholarships and academic All-America laurels.

In academics and athletics there exists no better combination than the opportunities offered at UCLA.

Bob Toledo's Philosophies and Goals

Player Relationships

"College football can be and should be a rewarding experience. I believe that the most important thing that our players can accomplish is to get an education and a degree from UCLA. We will do everything that we possibly can do to help our student-athletes achieve that goal.

"Football, to me, draws the most competitive people to it. Life is also very competitive. In order to be successful in life, we have to be able to compete every day and I believe that football can help us achieve that success.

"While college football can be a rewarding experience, it should also be fun for the people who participate in it. I want our players to enjoy the total college experience.

"I believe that it is vital to have an open line of communication between the players and myself. They will know that my door is always open. I would like them to think of me as an extension of their family. All of these beliefs can only be applied in an environment which rewards loyalty, dedication and 100% effort. I enthusiastically anticipate the opportunity to create this environment and to implement these philosophies and, hopefully, create an everlasting influence in their lives.

"My mission is to motivate young people to expand their limits and maximize their potential to become the player and person they can and want to be."

Football Philosophy

"From a football standpoint, offensively, my philosophy is to put as much pressure on a defense as possible by utilizing numerous formations and shifting of personnel. We want to stretch the field vertically and horizontally. We will have a power running attack and utilize screens, draws play action passes and a ball-control passing attack.

"Defensively, we will be an aggressive, attacking force trying to make things happen. We want to be an offensive defense. We will put our defensive players in a position to make the big play.

"Our kicking game will be fundamentally sound. We want to be efficient and effective because some of the biggest plays in football come from the kicking game. We will give it as much attention as we give to offense and defense."

Program Goals

"Our goal at UCLA will always be to win the Pac-10 championship, play in the Rose Bowl and compete for a National Championship."

Tributes

Dick Vermeil

Head Football Coach,
St. Louis Rams

"Having been affiliated in the past with UCLA and now in a position to evaluate talent from all over the country, I can honestly say that UCLA's program is one of the finest in the nation. When you combine the academic excellence of UCLA, the on-campus environment and the success and tradition of a great football program, there are very few situations that compare."

Karim Abdul-Jabbar

First-team All-American at UCLA, 1995
UCLA Single-Season Rushing Leader
Running Back, Miami Dolphins

"I feel that Coach Toledo is going to enjoy tremendous success at UCLA. I enjoyed my two years with him and was impressed with the offensive schemes he developed. Just as important were the relationships he developed with the players. Coach Toledo communicates well and also listens to his players. I feel that young players coming to UCLA will benefit greatly from their association with Coach Toledo."

Carl D. Peterson

B.S., M.S., Ed. D., UCLA
President, General Manager/
Chief Operating Officer
Kansas City Chiefs

"As a UCLA alum, it is difficult for me not to show some bias. However, having worked in college and professional football, I can speak with knowledge that the UCLA football program is of one the finest in America. The emphasis on excellence in both football and academics is evident. The record of success both on and off the athletic field speaks well for UCLA football alumni."

Troy Aikman

First-team All-American at UCLA, 1988
No. 1 selection in 1989 NFL Draft
MVP of Super Bowl XXVII

"UCLA has an outstanding all-around program that creates a solid foundation for the players both on and off the football field. The lessons I learned at UCLA have enabled me to be successful in the National Football League as well as in my other endeavors."

UCLA IN THE BOWLS

When it comes to winning bowl games, UCLA is one of the most successful programs in the nation. The Bruins have won eight of their last 10 bowl appearances and their eight straight wins were one shy of the national record.

In the last 22 years, UCLA has participated in 14 bowl contests and owns a post-season mark of 9-4-1 during that span.The 1995 Aloha Bowl was UCLA's 20th bowl appearance. The Bruins have won five of their last six Rose Bowls and are 10-4-1 in their last 15 bowl appearances.

On January 2, 1989, UCLA set an NCAA record for bowl victories in consecutive seasons by beating Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl. That was UCLA's seventh bowl triumph in as many seasons. Those UCLA post-season victories included the 1983, '84 and '86 Rose Bowls, the 1985 Fiesta Bowl, the 1986 Freedom Bowl, and the 1987 Aloha Bowl.

The 1994 Rose Bowl was one of UCLA's 11 bowl appearances in the last 16 years.

Bruins Playing in the

UCLA ranks among the top college football programs in producing NFL caliber players.

In 1993, 37 former Bruins were listed on NFL opening-day rosters, the highest total of any school in the nation. UCLA ranked fifth nationally with 36 former Bruins active in the NFL in 1995.

Seven former Bruins played in Super Bowl XXVIII and eight — five Dallas Cowboys and three Buffalo Bills — played in Super Bowl XXVII, representing the largest contingent of players from one institution each year.

In the last 10 years, UCLA has produced 48 draft selectees, including the No. 1 pick in 1989, the No. 2 pick in 1991 and the No. 4 pick in 1996. Overall, seven Bruins have been selected in the first round and nine in the second round since 1988.

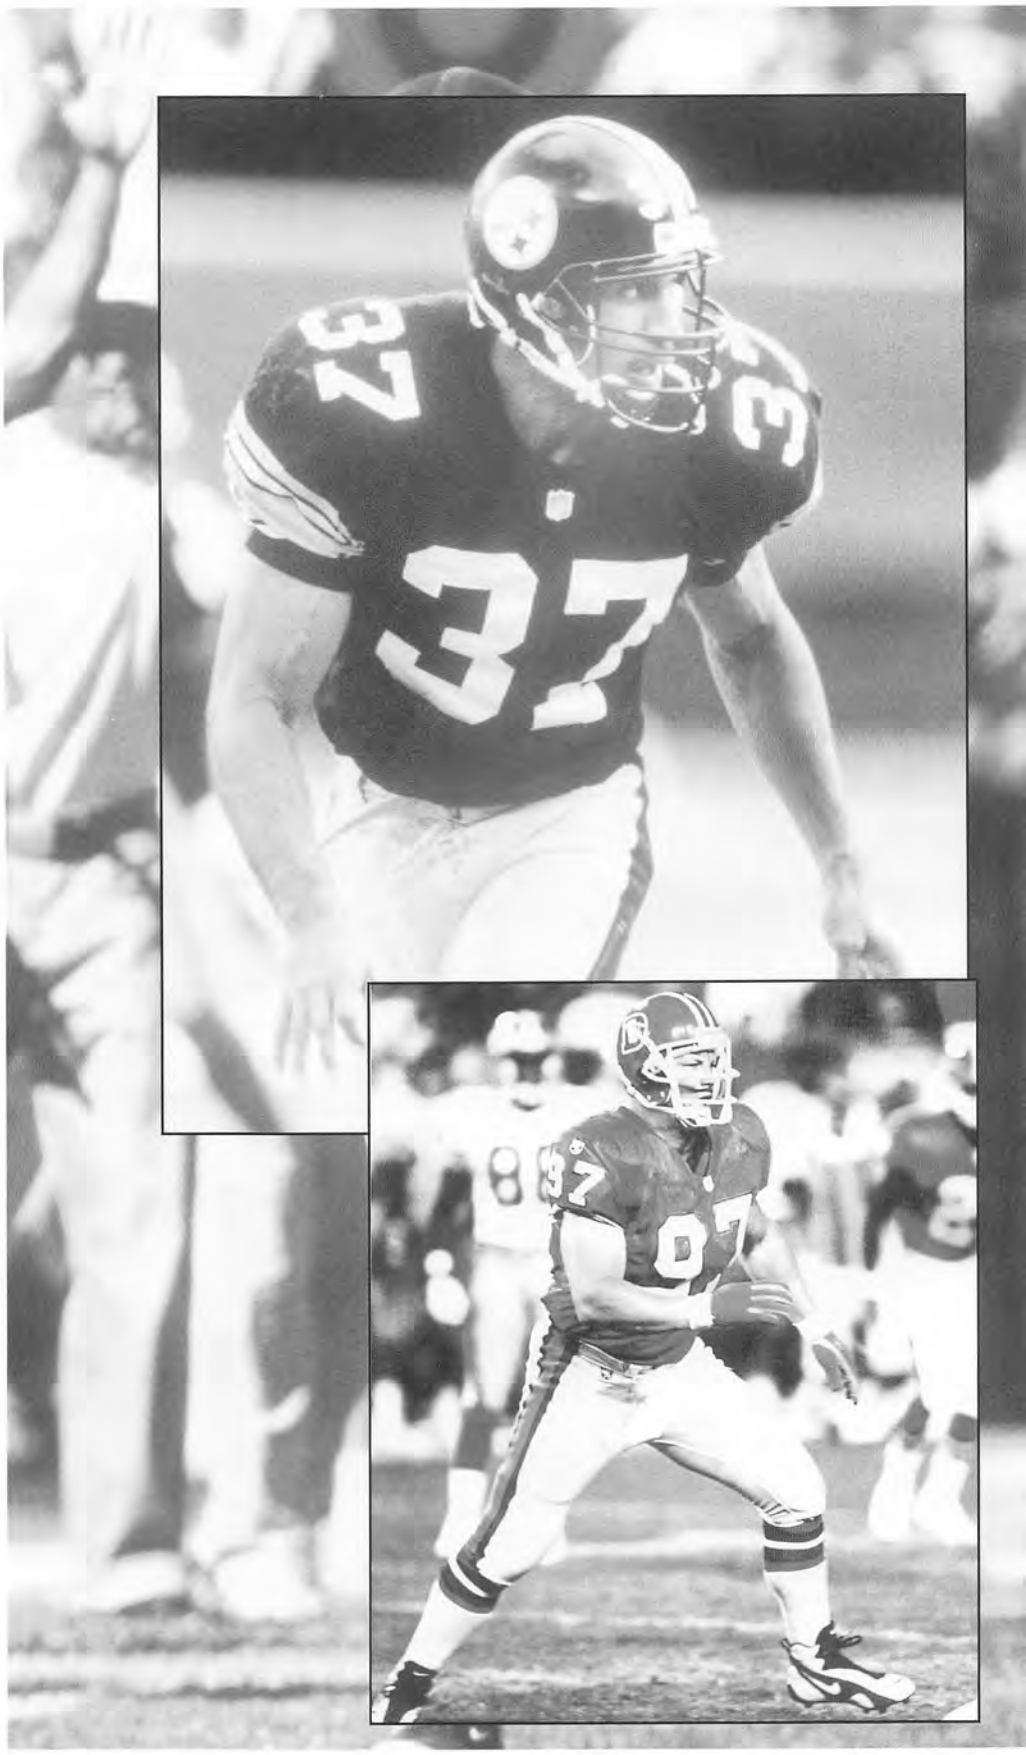
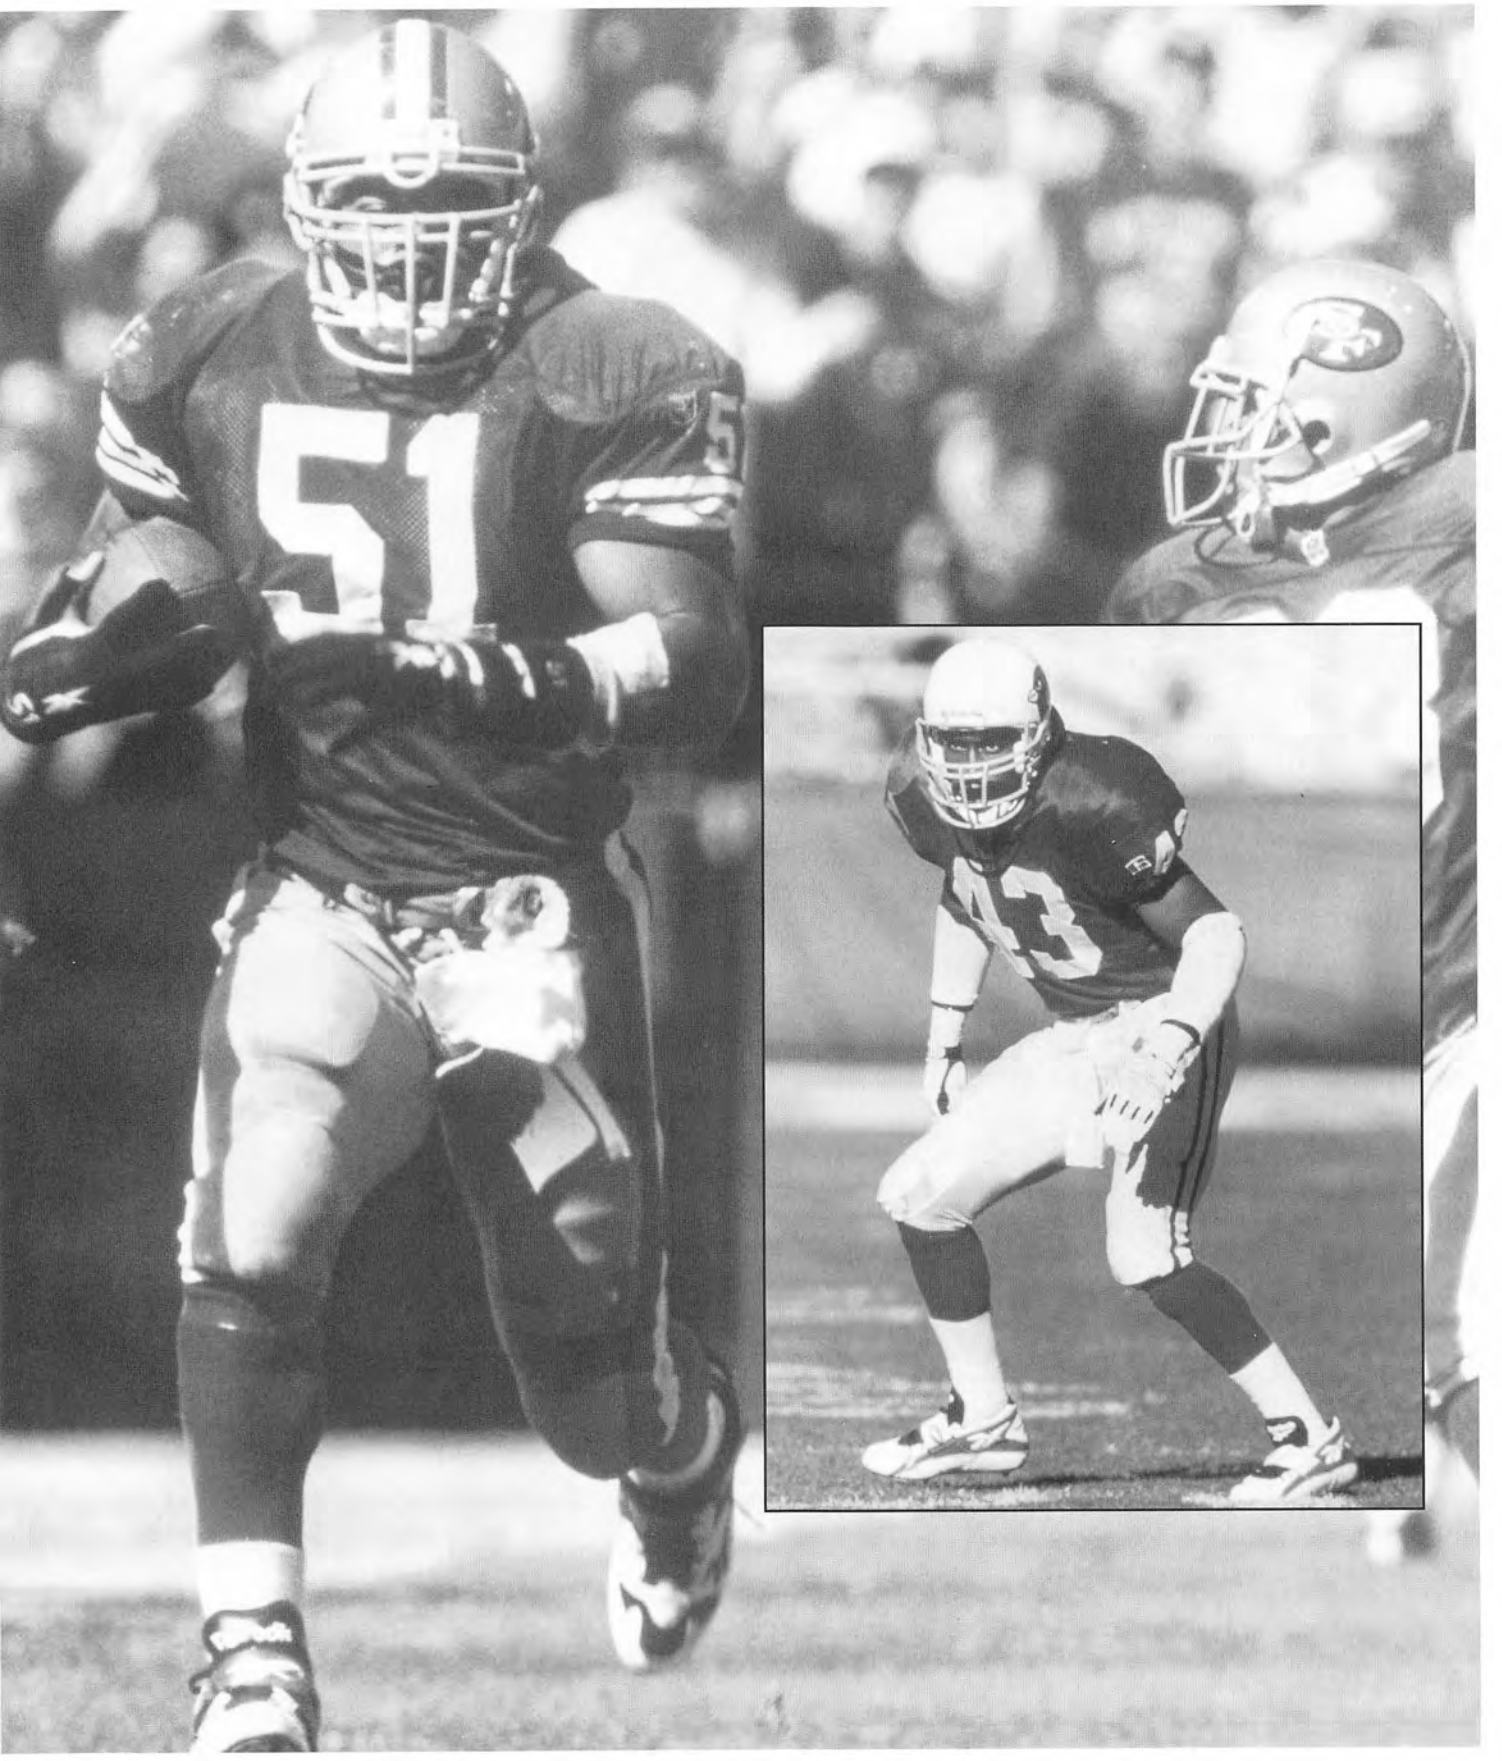
Consistently Producing Some of the Finest

The players on these pages — Carnell Lake (near right), Mike Lodish (lower right), Matt Darby (far right) and Ken Norton (center) — played in a total of nine Super Bowls. The Bruins' pro football tradition boasts a total of 41 players making 63 Super Bowl appearances. The 1993 World Champion Dallas Cowboys boasted five former Bruins on their Super Bowl roster: quarterback and MVP Troy Aikman, offensive lineman Frank Cornish, Norton, tight end Derek Tennell and safety James Washington. Finally, for 18 consecutive years, UCLA has been represented in the Super Bowl by at least one of its former players.

UCLA is the only school in the country to have five former quarterbacks play in the Super Bowl. Aikman is the only quarterback to win three Super Bowls in four years and Norton is the only player in Super Bowl history to play for three consecutive champions.



Players in the National Football League



All-American Bruins

UCLA has produced some of the finest All-Americans to play college football.

Included are two three-time consensus choices, linebacker Jerry Robinson (1976-78) and free safety Kenny Easley (1978-80). Robinson and Easley are the only three-time consensus All-Americans in Pacific-10 Conference history.

In 1993, six Bruins earned first-team honors from at least one organization and three — J.J. Stokes, Bjorn Merten and Jamir Miller — were consensus choices. Kevin Jordan was a first-team choice in 1994 and Jonathan Ogden, the Outland Award winner, and Karim Abdul-Jabbar were first-team selections in 1995. In recent seasons, Troy Aikman, Eric Turner, Frank Cornish, Matt Darby and Carlton Gray have earned first-team All-America acclaim.

UCLA —The Best in Collegiate Athletics

Over the last two-plus decades, UCLA has established itself as the nation's finest all-around athletic program.

The Bruins now rank No. 1 with a total of 75 NCAA team championships, 61 by the men and 14 by the women. In the last 28 years, the Bruin men have won 46 NCAA crowns, the highest total in the nation.

In the 1996-97 academic year, UCLA placed third nationally in competition for the third Sears Directors Cup, presented to the school with the best all-around athletic program based on NCAA championship finishes. UCLA ranked second in 1995-96 and third in 1994-95 and 1993-94

In 1993, UCLA ranked No.1 for total points earned by the men's and women's combined programs in the USA Today All-Sports Survey. UCLA won 11 men's titles in 23 years and four of the final six women's surveys.

UCLA has produced more than 250 Olympians, including 52 in 1996. In the last four Olympiads (1984, '88, '92, '96), Bruin athletes and coaches have earned 97 medals, including 56 gold.

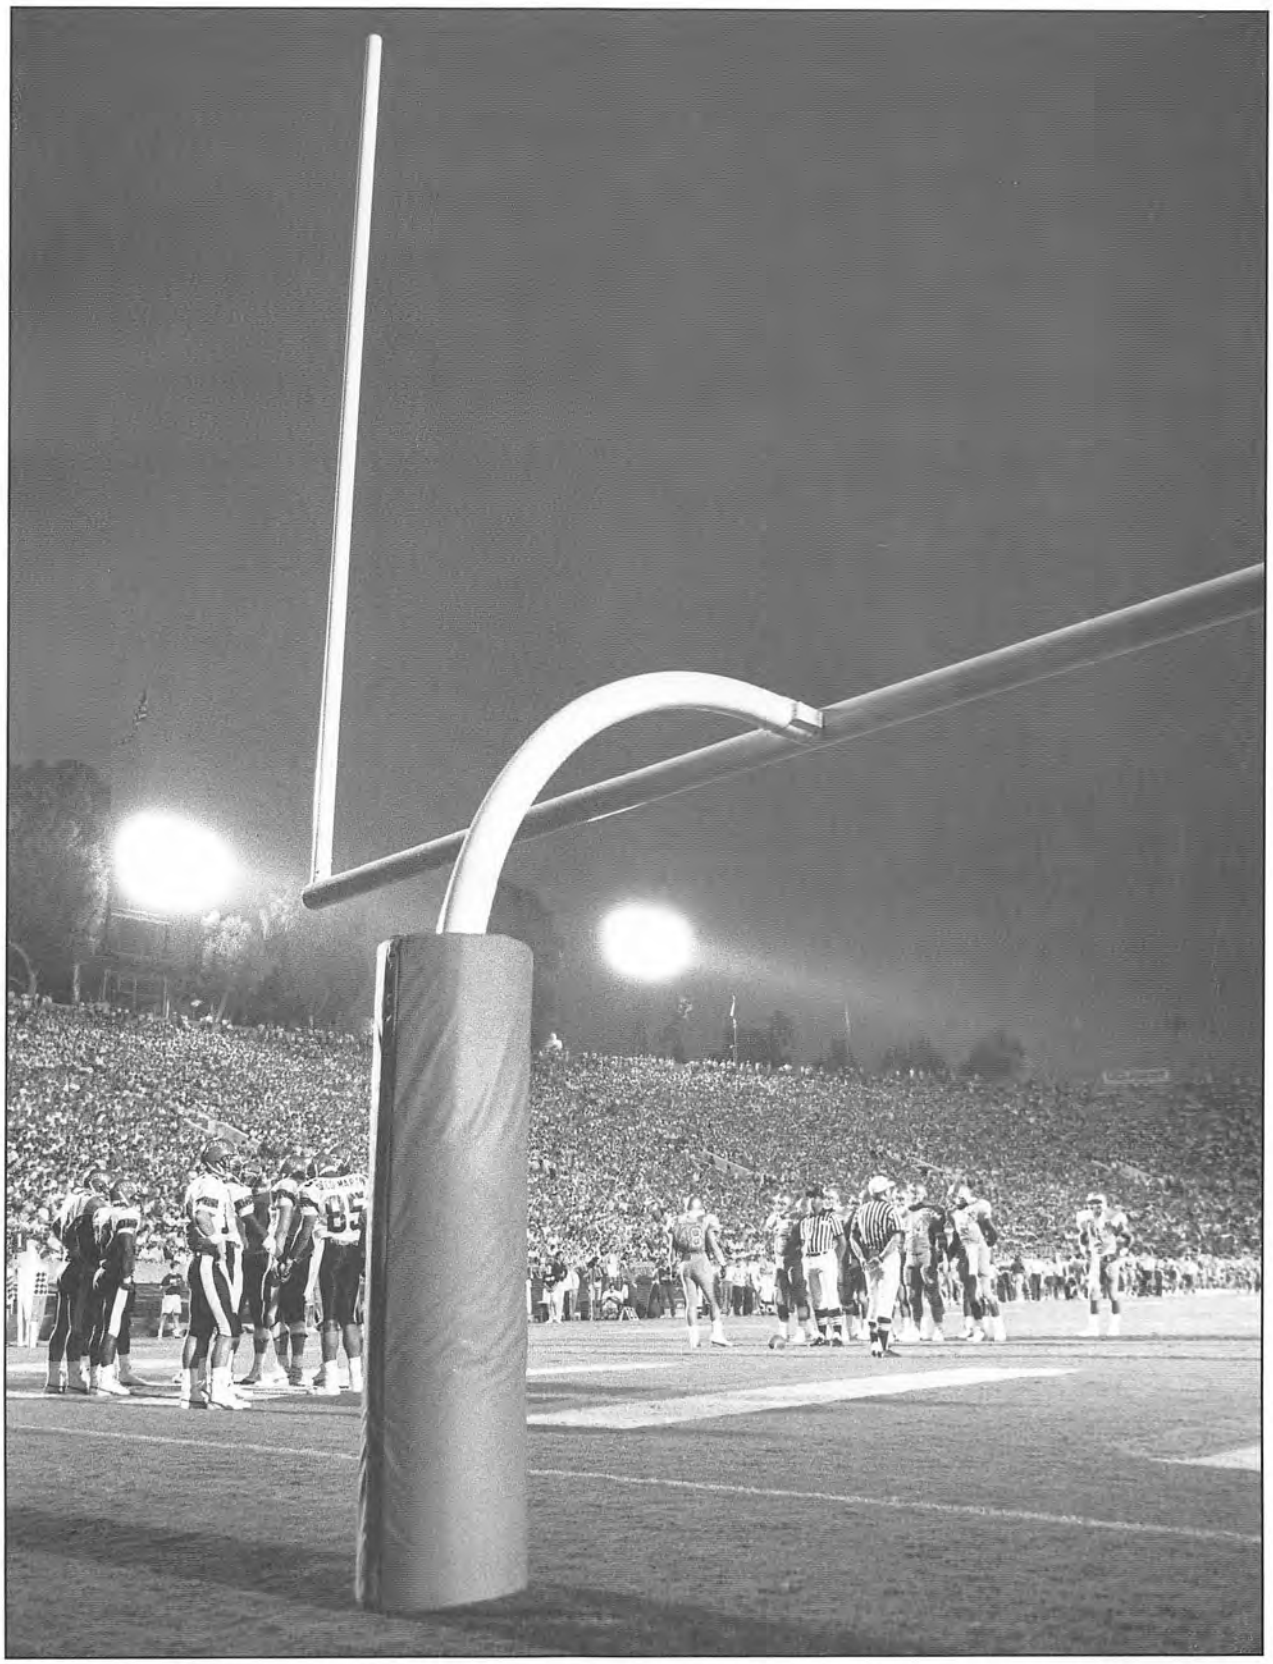
First-Class Facilities

Left: The Bruins practice daily at Spaulding Field, an outdoor natural grass surface with two football fields. Below: Student-athletes enjoy all the comforts of home in the many on-campus coed dorms. Lower left: the Computer Room offers a wide variety of educational hardware and software for every student-athlete's needs.



The Rose Bowl is the centerpiece of UCLA's top-notch facilities. Designed especially for football, the 100,000-seat, oval-shaped stadium annually hosts the nation's most prestigious college football bowl game and serves as the Bruins' home during the regular season. In 1994, the stadium hosted the finals of the World Cup soccer tournament.

The Athletic Performance Sport Training

The UCLA 8,500 square foot strength and conditioning facility is a total sport fitness center directed by Kevin Yoxall and staffed by Mike Linn, Sarah Andrews and Craig Stowers. The development of an athlete's sport fitness must entail a comprehensive plan that enhances all physical components of competition. This UCLA facility and program reflects the total fitness philosophy of the Bruin conditioning staff. UCLA's sport fitness center includes:

Cardiovascular Equipment

Athletes can enhance their level of conditioning with Aircync cycles and Stairmasters. The conditioning staff also administers a running program to improve quickness and endurance.

Free Weight Equipment

Fifteen weight lifting platforms are available where each athlete is taught Olympic and power weight training exercises. These multiple joint movements will develop in each athlete the performance-specific strength and power needed to be successful at the highest level.

Machines/Dumbbells/ Pulleys

This area is highlighted by 25 lower and upper body machines. With this equipment, the athlete can isolate specific joints and muscle groups. These machines will help each athlete prevent the number and severity of injuries by developing sport and specific joint stability.

Speed/Power/ Reactivity/Flexibility

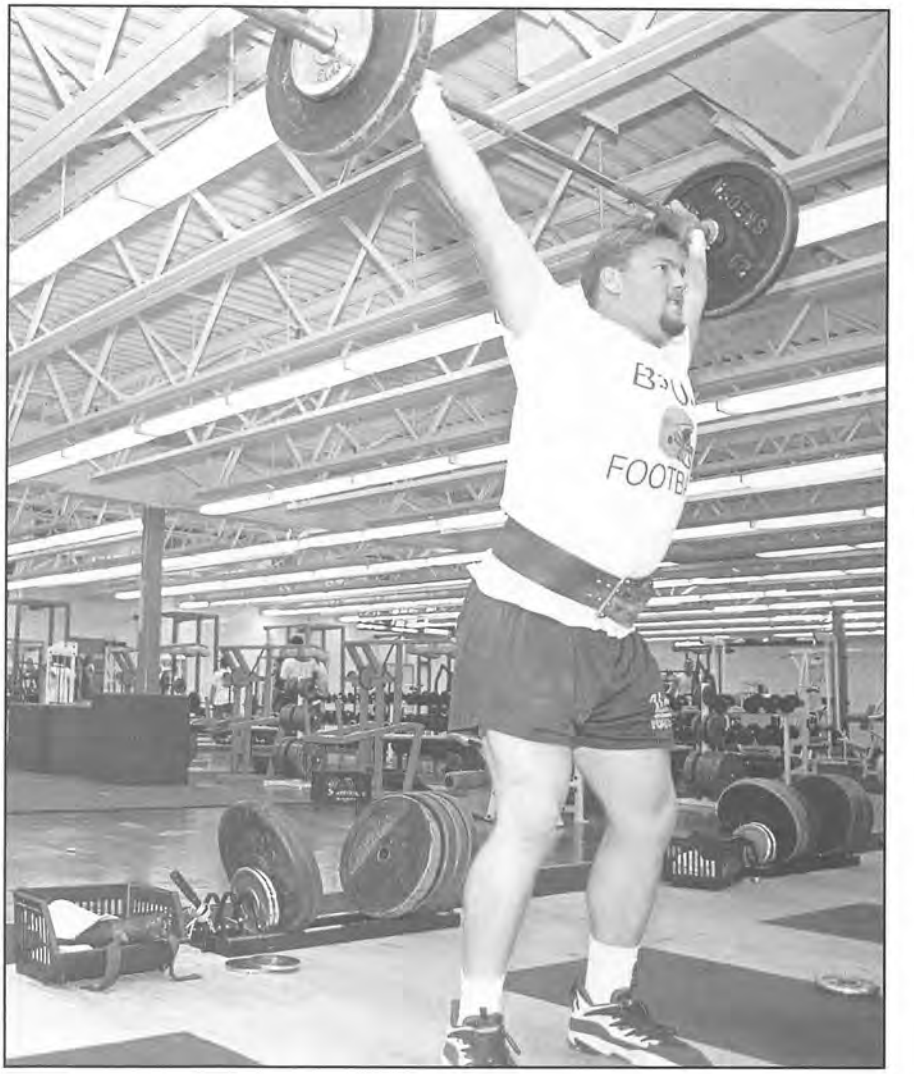
This area is used to develop each athlete's explosive power, reactive capabilities, foot speed and co-

Facility — The Strength of the Bruins

ordination flexibility. By implementing a progressive Plyometric program, each athlete can begin to maximize his competitive strength.

No. 1 Goal

Our No. 1 goal is for each athlete to stay healthy and improve performance. The importance of staying injury-free is paramount in sport development and improvement. The UCLA Athletic Performance Sport Training Facility gives each athlete the ability to train and enhance performance capabilities in the best facility in the country. UCLA athletes train hard and often.



Head Strength and Conditioning Coach Kevin Yoxall and his staff personally supervise the fitness programs of more than 700 student-athletes.

THE STUDENT-ATHLETE AT UCLA

UCLA sets high academic standards. The goal of the athletic department is to assist the student-athlete in the pursuit of an undergraduate degree. UCLA ranks among the nation's finest public universities and a degree from UCLA is a springboard to future success.

Wayne Johnson

In the athletic department, it is the responsibility of Frank Stephens, Director of Student Services, and Wayne Johnson, Director of Academic Services/Head Letters and Science Counselor, to create a comprehensive network of support services for the student-athlete.

Johnson, in his 11th year, supervises a network that includes three Letters and Science counselors — Dr. Chelley Maple, Shiela Gardette and Eric White — and two academic support persons — Joanne Suechika and Ed Kezirian, whose responsibilities include recruitment, study hall, housing and parking.

This unit oversees the academic orientations, enrollment, testing, career and major workshops, career guidance and tutoring to ensure UCLA student-athletes achieve their full academic potential.

The Letters and Science counselors advise and assist in course selection, eligibility and monitoring the progress towards a degree. They also determine the amount of tutorial assistance each student receives. Additional assistance comes from academic coordinators and 100 tutors supervised by Tamrat Beyene.

Director of compliance Rich Herczog and assistant Tam Breckenridge are responsible for directing the compliance and certification areas, which include student-athlete admissions, eligibility and financial aid.

Also designed to expose student-athletes at an early age to the available campus resources, Freshman Orientation, conducted by academic and student services, ensures that student-athletes begin their first year at UCLA on the right track. Arriving at the university six weeks prior to the start of classes, these freshmen are exposed to time management workshops, computer orientation, study skills methods, mathematical and writing seminars and College requirements. In addition, each freshman is given a test to determine strengths and weaknesses in writing, language arts and mathematics. Individual tutoring can then be prescribed to address these areas, long before the student-athlete faces the first day of class.

Stephens is in his eighth year with the academic and student services department. He supervises Freshman Orientation, Final Score, Career Pathing, Community Outreach and a Life Skills program — all designed to enhance the student-athletes' academic success at UCLA.

Frank Stephens

Final Score is open to former Bruin student-athletes who did not earn a degree during their eligibility, specifically those who entered professional sports. It is an opportunity for them to return and earn their degrees with the continuing support and cooperation of the athletic department.

Since the Final Score program began in 1984, more than 170 student-athletes have completed their undergraduate degrees. Generally recognized as the first program of its kind in the country, UCLA's Final Score now serves as the model for similar programs at universities throughout the country.

Career Pathing allows Bruin student-athletes to gain insight into post-graduate careers. Starting with the freshman year, direction is offered in job skills and career choices, resume writing, job interview techniques, internships with prospective employers, entrepreneurial guidance and graduate school counseling.

The Community Outreach Program has three primary objectives — to provide student-athletes with an opportunity to reach out to the community by speaking and working with both on and off-campus groups; to provide off-campus agencies the opportunity to have student-athletes deliver an important message to their groups; and to create a positive public image for UCLA and its student-athletes.

UCLA voluntarily participates in a Life Skills program developed by the NCAA Foundation and the Division IA Athletic Directors' Association. This program helps student-athletes bridge the gap between college life and the business world and make meaningful contributions to their communities. The Life Skills program is founded on the premise that the same qualities and skills necessary to attain success in the athletic world can be applied to "real world" situations.

The UCLA Library is ranked among the top five academic research libraries in North America. It comprises the University Research Library, the College Library and 11 subject libraries, with total holdings of more than 6.1 million volumes.

Questions and Answers—Graduation is the Student-Athlete's Goal

Q. When I arrive at UCLA, how does the athletic department help familiarize me with the campus and its departments?

A. The athletic department offers a variety of services to help the Bruin student-athlete in the transition from high school to college. The College of Letters and Sciences offers a special orientation program for incoming freshmen athletes. It provides student-athletes with information on course selections, pre-enrollment and other opportunities available on campus. The athletic department also conducts a three-week academic program designed to strengthen reading, writing, math and study skills.

Q. Are study halls and tutoring available for me?

A. Yes, study hall is required for all freshmen student-athletes. UCLA's athletic study hall, supervised by professional counselors and tutors, provides an academic atmosphere and establishes necessary study skills. Individual and group tutorials along with review sessions are also conducted on a regular basis.

Q. Besides orientation, study halls and tutoring, what else can the UCLA counselors do for me?

A. To address your individual needs, one-on-one personal counseling is available. Among the other counseling sources available are career development seminars, media programs, sports psychology, professional agent information and honors programs.

Q. During my years at UCLA, how can I be sure that I'm progressing toward graduation?

A. The student-athlete is closely monitored regarding course and unit requirements. The Letters and Sciences counselors work with all student-athletes to ensure that they progress toward the requirements of a degree while planning quarterly academic schedules. In an effort to determine academic achievement in each sport and to study the factors which contribute to academic success, the athletic department conducts an ongoing review of student-athlete performance.

Q. What would my course load be at UCLA?

A. A full course load at UCLA is three or four courses per quarter. Each student-athlete is required to take at least three courses a quarter and a greater course load is stressed outside the season of competition.

Q. How do I register?

A. Guaranteed computerized enrollment services through the athletic department provide the student-athlete with time and day course selection preference, so as not to conflict with practice and competition schedules.

Q. What are the class sizes at UCLA?

A. Class sizes at UCLA will vary from small seminars of 15-20 students to lecture sessions. Some lecture sessions include small discussion groups within that class, to review course-related material.

UCLA Student Life and Activities

Above: Supporting the nationally-ranked Bruin baseball team has become a favorite springtime ritual for students and athletes. UCLA's Jackie Robinson Stadium offers prime seats behind the plate and on the lawn. Right: Students participate in every intramural sport, inlcuding softball, golf, water polo, sailing and soccer.

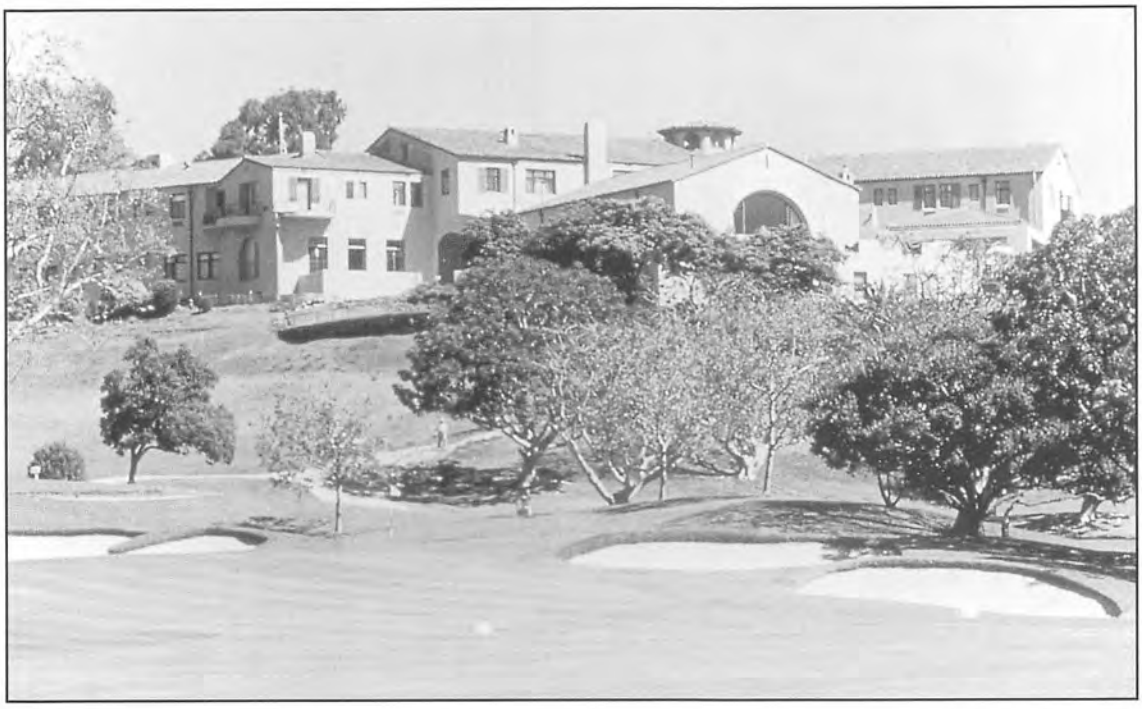
Recreation in Southern California

Southern California invented professional beach volleyball. On any given weekend beach patrons can not only watch volleyball on the sand, they probably will see one or more former Bruins competing. At right is Karch Kiraly (UCLA '82), a three-time Olympic gold medalist and the reigning Olympic champion in beach volleyball. Below: Riviera Country Club, site of the 1983 and '95 PGA Championship and the annual Nissan Los Angeles Open, is located just minutes west of campus on Sunset Boulevard.



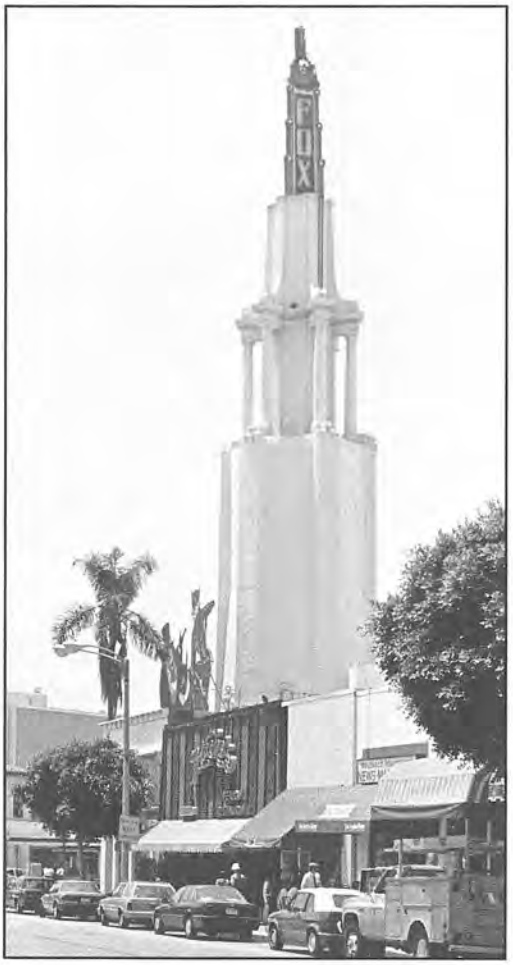
WESTWOOD

UCLA is located in Westwood, a suburb of Los Angeles, in one of America's most beautiful residential areas.

Activity surrounds UCLA. Westwood Village, directly south of the campus, offers a wide variety of shops, restaurants, movie theaters and entertainment centers.

To the west are the popular beaches of Malibu and Santa Monica, to the north are the picturesque Santa Monica Mountains and the luxurious community of Bel-Air. To the east is famous Beverly Hills and Hollywood.

The beautiful and compact UCLA campus offers an ideal setting for education, athletics, recreation and business contacts.



Los Angeles

The city of Los Angeles is internationally recognized as America's leader in the entertainment and communications industries as well as tourism and recreation. It also is one of the nation's leaders in high technology, finance, law and medicine.

Los Angeles is one of the top high-tech centers in the U.S. with companies in computer and data processing, electronics and medical technology. In the motion picture, television, communications and advertising industries it sets the standard.

The Southern California sports market includes seven major professional teams: baseball's Dodgers and Angels, basketball's Lakers and Clippers, hockey's Kings and Mighty Ducks and soccer's Galaxy. Los Angeles also has hosted many major sporting events, including the Super Bowl and World Cup '94.

Los Angeles' recreation areas are unparalleled and internationally renowned — a perfect combination of climate and opportunity. Mountains, deserts, lakes and stunning beaches are just a short drive from UCLA's campus. In addition, Southern California is the home of several world-famous tourist attractions, including Disneyland and Universal Studios.
